THE WAR ON THE CON TINENT.

Movements of the Hostile Armies,

Alarm in England, &c., &c.

HALIFAX, June 18.—The steamer China has arrived with European advices to the 9th and 10th inst.

[By Telegraph to Queenstown.] LONDON, June 10.—Continental politics are unchanged. In the Diet, Prussia had repudiated the insinuation of any intention to annex the Duchies by force. She was willing to peaceably settle the question by a German Parliament, but the Diet was incompetent to deal with the subject. It is rumored that the imminent departure of the Austrian Minister from Berlin was contradicted.

It was reported that the Emperor from Austria was to start on the 9th for the headguarters of the army of the north. La France considers it certain that M

Rouher will be authorized to make known to the Chambers the Emperor's resolutions concerning the crisis. The same journal contradicts the report that France is making military preparations. One of the Austrian journals asserts that Austria regards the entry of the Prussian troops into Holstein as a breach of the Gastein Convention, and the forcible occupa tion of Holstein as a casus belli. The Duke de Grammont has gone from Paris to Vi-enna, and his last mission is said to be alast effort for conciliation. He had a conference with Count Mensdorff, and an audience with the Emperor of Austria. Mensdorff is stated to have positively maintained the grounds of the Austrian reply to the invitation to the Conference. A Russian Cabinet courier reached Vienne on the 7th, with an autograph letter from the Czar to the Emperor.

Bismarck had issued an important desnatch to the Prussian representatives abroad in very bitter terms towards Austria, and in one passage says: "All our information agrees that the determination to make war by Austria is finally settled in Vienna." "On the other hand, it is asserted that Prussia has been most conciliatory for peace but a corresponding feeling no longer ex-ists at Vienna. Not only was there an un-expected, but an entire absence of all readi-ness to enter into confidential negotiations, and to discuss the possibilities of agree ment, but the expressions of the influential Austrians, statesmen and counsellors of the Emperor, have been reported to the King, and authentic sources, which heave no doubt that the Imperial ministers desire war at any price, partly in the hope of successes in the field, and partly to heal domestic difficulties, nay, even with the ex-pressed intention of assisting the Austrian fressed intention of assisting the Austrian finances by Prussian contributions, or by honorable bankruptcy. We can only see a decided intention on the part of Austria, of forcing a war with Prussia, and of, at the most, making use of negotiations as to a Congress to gain time by procrastination for her own not entirely completed aspect for her own not entirely completed arrange-ments, but especially for those of her allies.

"The fact of war is a settled determina-tion at Vienna. The only truth shall at least be believed when we solemnly pro test against any notion of wishing to make good our claim to the Duchies by force, of disregard to the rights of the co-possessor. Now, too probably, it will not be difficult to understand the real motives of the armation of the Agra and Masterman's Bank. The official statement of Overend & Gurney's affairs show but little prospect of the shareholders getting back much of their million and a half of paid up capital. Hawkes, Whitford & Co., private bankers at St. Columb and Falmouth, have sus-pended, with liabilities estimated at £200,000.

The weekly returns of the Bank of France show a further larger increase of 39,250,000f. in cash. The Bourse on the 9th inst. was steady; rentes 62.90f.

A Paris letter says the Confederate Cap-tain Maury has offered the French Governmentanew torpedo, of immense power, invented by him.

There had been rumors that the Turkish troops had crossed the Danube, and had come into collision with the Roumanians, and that reinforcements have left Bucharest and that the Hospodar would take com-mand, but these reports lack confirmation. It is asserted that energetic measures are progressing in the principalities, and that the Hospadar had aasumed command of 30,000 men. The Italian Chamber of Deputies had al-

Continental advices continue of the same warlike character. There are various unauthenticated rumors from Vienna, includ-ing one that Benedek had been ordered to and one that benchark had been ordered to enter Silesia, and that a forward movement had commenced. Also, that Count Karoly had protested at Berlin against the military measures of Prussia in Holstein, and that his withdrawal from Berlin was imminent Commercial Intelligence.

The Times says such a despatch has not often been penned by a European Minister. The Prussian statesman seems now to think The Prussian statesman seems now to think courtesy unnecessary in his communications with Austria. All the pride, all the bitter hostility, the almost fanatical purpose which has been necessarily repressed during the long negotiations breaks forth anew. Negotiations may be considered at an end. The despatch breathes the spirit of war, and seems to have been written in anticipation of an immediate rupture. The London Telegraph says with this despatch the last hopes of peace have disappeared, and hostilities become inevitable. A Vienna despatch says the diplomatic re-lations between Austria and Prussia will cease the moment the Prussian representa-tives at the Diet leave Frankfort. Austria has telegraphed General Gabenz to avoid an armed conflict in Holstein. It is stated that should a collision take place the Austrian army of the north will advance against Prussia.

The Austrians were reported to be eva-cuating Kiel and concentrating at Altona, on the 8th the Prussian troops arrived at Rendsburg and occupied the town. They were peacefully met by the Austrian garri-son, who withdrew from the town the same day, and the parting was quite friendly. General Gabenz, the Austrian commander, has issued a proclamation protesting against the entry of the Prussians into Holstein, and stating that he awaited orders from his sovereign as to the course to pursue. He announced the Government of Holstein as announced the Government of Holstein as transferred to Altona. General Manteuffel, the Prussian com-mander, had sent a despatch to Gabenz, stating, in consequence of the declaration by Austra in the Federal Diet and the Con-vocation of the Holstein States, the position of affairs as existing before the Gastein Convention is re-established. General Man-tenffel therefore enters Holstein, but will tenfiel therefore enters Holstein, but will not occupy places already in possession of the Austrians. He has received orders to avoid a conflict and not to dismiss the civil functionaries.

He concludes by expressing hope that a peaceful understanding will prevent any outbreak of war. General Manteuffel has also issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of Schleswig, announcing the despatch of troops to Holstein for the maintenance of the sovereign rights of his royal master which has been placed in jeopardy. The step is merely defensive in character. Manteuffel, it is said, has summoned Gabenz to re-establish the state of common administration in the Duchies.
