Changes Interesting to the Public-Burning Fluid, Coal toil and Gas.—Faxation on Men's, Women's and Chidren's Wear.—What our Smokers and Chidren's must pay—Important to Merchants, Bankers and Brokers—Impost on Banking Assectations, &c.

The amendments reported from the Senate Committee on Finance to the House Tax bill are numerous. The following are some of the most material changes, namely: A tax of five cents per pound on cotton: imperfect or incomplete lists may be corrected by the assessors at any time within two years; to strike out the tax of $20 on those distilling or manufacturing less than 50 barrels per year, from earlies granes or barrels per year, from apples, grapes or peaches. The nineteenth clause of the tax schedule is altered as follows: Coal oil distillers and distillers of burning fluid and campbine shall pay $50. Any person, firm or corporation, who shall refine, produce or distill petroleum or rock oil, or oil made of coal, asphaltum, shale, peat or other bituminous substances, or shall manufac-ture illuminating oil; shall be regarded as a coal oil distiller.

The tax imposed upon the manufacture of tobacco, enuff and cigars shall be neld to occrue upon the sales or removal from the place of manufacture. All gas companies whose price is fixed by law, are authorized whose price is used by any, are authorized to add the tax herein imposed to the price per thousand feet on the gas sold; provided that coal tarand ammoniacal liquor produced in the manufacture of illuminating gas and the product of the distillation of coal tar and the products of the manufacture of ammoniacal liquors thus produced shall be exemp from duty. On sulphate of barytes, a tax of 12 cents per 100 pounds. Strike out the tax of 5 cents per gallon on wine made of grapes further advanced than juice or must, Boot or shoemakers making boots or shoes to order as certain work only, and not for general sale, and whose annual product does not exceed $2,000, are exempt from taxation. On ready-made clothing gloves, mittens, moccasins, caps, felt hats, and other articles of dress for the wear of men, women and children, not otherwise assessed and taxed, a tax of two per cent. ad valorem, to be paid by every person manufacturing or providing them for sale, or furnishing the materials and employing others to make, manufacture, or produce them; provided, that any labor of any person making gloves, mittens, moccasins, caps, felt hats, or other articles of dress to order, as custom work only, and not for general sale, and whose annual profits do not exceed $2,000, shall be exempt from tax, and articles of dress made or trimmed by milliners or dress makers, for the wear of women and children, shall also be exempt from this tax.

Fine cut shorts are included in the tax of 30 cents per pound; on smoking tobacco of all kinds, not sweetened nor stemmed, nor butted, including that made of stems, or in parts of stems and imitations thereof, a tax of 15 cents instead of 20 cents per pound. On all cheroots, cigarettes, or cigars, the market value of which is over $8, and not over $12 per thousand, a tax of $10 per thousand instead of $4. On all other cigarettes, cheroots and cigars, a tax of $4 per thousand; provided that upon all imported cigars and cheroots, but not including cigarettes, an internal revenue tax shall be levied and collected in addition to the duties paid upon the importation thereof of $10 per thousand, and stamps denoting the payment of such tax, shall be appended to every boxor package of imported cigars or cheroots before the same are sold or offered for sale; and any cigars or cheroots so imported, which shall be sold, offered or exposed for sale without having stamps affixed shall be for-feited to the United States, and the importer of such cigars or cheroots shall be deemed the manufacturer thereof, and shall be subject to all the duties, liabilities and penalties imposed by law upon the manufacturer of domestic cigars and cheroots.

That section 98 be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof as follows:—"There shall levied, collected and paid on all sales of real estate, goods, wares and merchandise, auction, including all sales of stocks, bonds and other securi-ties, a duty of one-tenth of one per cent." Strike out from the clause taxing sales made by brokers, banks or bankers, foreign exchange or uncurrent money-"when the gross receipts of any bridge or toll road for and during any term of twelve consecutive calendar months shall not exceed the amount expended during the said term to keep such bridge or road in repair, no tax shall be assessed upon such receipts during the month next following such term; pro-vided the tax may be added to the rates of

Strike out the proviso "that any bank ceasing to issue notes for circulation which shall deposit in the Treasury of the United States, in lawful money, the amount of its outstanding circulation, to be redeemed at par under such regulations as the Scoretary of the Treasury may prescribe, shall be exempt from any tax upon such circulation," and insert the following:—Whenever any State Bank or banking association has been or shall be converted into a National Banking Association, or has ceased its usual banking business, including the making of loans and the receiving of deposits, shall be assessed and collected in addition to the taxes already imposed, a tax of one-quarter of one per cent, each month upon the average amount of the circulation outstanding in any such

State Bank or State Banking Association."
Strike out the proposed amendment to the one hundred and sixteenth section relative to incomes, and insert after the words in the law as it now stands in the excess over $500 the following, "and a like tax shall be levied and collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income of every business and incom ness, trade or profession carried on in the United States by persons residing without the United States, and not citizens thereof." The term money, as used in this bill, shall be held to include drafts and other instruments given for the payment of money.

Amend schedule B, by inserting under the head of "contract," after the words, "for such note or memorandum of sale," the following, "bill or memorandum of the sale or contract for the sale of gold or silver bullion, foreign exchange, coin, uncurrent money, promissory notes or other securi-ties shall pay a stamp duty at the rate pro-vided in section 99."

That section 171 be amended by adding the following provise: "That no claim for drawback on any articles of merchandise exported prior to June 30th, 1864, shall be allowed, unless presented to the Commissioners of Internal Revenue within three months after this amendment takes effect."

That section 6 of the Internal Revenue bill be amended, striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting "that every National Banking Association, State bank or State banking association, shall pay a tax of two per cent, on the amount of not any person, State bank or State banking institution, used for circulation, and paid out by them after the 1st day of July, 1867; and such tax shall be assessed and naid in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue,

That Section 14 of the same act shall be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: SEC. 14. That the capital of any State bank or State banking institution, which has ceased or shall cease to exist, or which has been or shall be converted into a National bank, for all the purposes of the act to which this is an amendment, shall be assumed to be the capital as it existed, immediately before such bank according to diately before such bank ceased to exist, or was converted as aforesaid: and whenever the outstanding circulation of any bank association, corporation, company or person shall be reduced to an amount not exceeding five percent, of the chartered or declared capital existing at the time the same was issued, said circulation shall be free from taxation; and whenever any bank which has ceased to issue notes for circulation shall deposit in the Treasury of the United States in lawful money, the amount of its outstanding circulation to be redeemed at par under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, it shall be exempt from any tax upon such circulation: and whenever any State bank or banking association has been converted into a National banking association, and such National banking association has assumed the liabilities of such bank or banking asscciation, including the redemption of its bills, or by any agreement or understanding whatever with the representatives of such State bank or banking association, shall use the bills of such State bank or banking association, such National banking association shall be held to make the required return and payment on the circulation outstanding so long as such circulalation shall exceed five per cent. of the capital before such conversion of such State bank or banking association.

That the act of March 10th, 1864, to declare the meaning of certain parts of the Internal Revenue act, be amended by striking out sections 3, 4 and 5, and inserting the following:

"That it shall be the duty of all persons required to make returns or lists of revenue, income and articles or objects charged with an internal tax, to declare in such returns or lists whether the several rates and amounts therein contained are stated according to the value in legal tender money."

Include in the free list the following: Prussiate of potash, retorts and tiles of clay, stamped copper, cottons, deerskins, smoked or not, oil dressed; India rubber springs, used exclusively on railroad cars; iron drain and sewer pipes; cordage, ropes and cables, made of vegetable fibres, peat; wrap-ping paper of all descriptions, and tarred paper for roofing and other purposes; fish plates, saltpetre, safes, looms, spinning machines, pumps, steam engines, hot water and bot air furnaces and sewing machines, spokes, hubs, bows and felloes, wooden tanks and cisterns, for crude mineral oil; rail made and fitted for railroads; sugar rom corn; flowers of sulphur and sulphur flour; plants, oils and spices; wine made of grapes, currents, or other fruits, and rhu-

The Financial Committee propose to strike out from the proposed free list iron bridges and castings for bridges, reapers, mowers, threshing machines and separators corn shellers and woodware, sulphate of

All articles sold, given, purchased, re-ceived, made, manufactured, produced branded, stamped or marked in violation of the provisions of this bill shall be forfeited If any person shall carry on the business of a distiller or rectifier without having paid the special tax, he shall pay for every such offence a fine not less than double the tax imposed upon the spirits distilled or double the special tax due for the spirits rectified by such persons or found upon the premises.

The committee propose the following proviso to the thirty-first section of the bill in relation to bonded warehouses:

Provided, That any article manufactured n a bonded warehouse established under the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the internal revenue act of June 30th, 1864, and located in any of the Atlantic States, may be removed therefrom for transportation to a customs bonded warehouse at any port on the Pacific coast of the United States for the purpose only of being exported therefrom under such rules and regulations, and upon whom the execution of such bonds and upon whom the execution of such bonds or such other security as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

Every person making or distilling spirits shall daily make an entry in such form as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe, of the number of pounds or gallons of materials used, the number of gallons of materials used, the number of gallons of materials used. ions of materials used, the number of gal-lons of spirits distilled, the number of gallons placed in warehouse, the price thereof, and the name and place of business of the buyer, and shall, on the 1st, 11th and 21st of each month, or within five days thereafter, render to the a sor or assistant assesso an account in duplicate with all particulars and verified by oaths, and also a copy to the collector, and the entries shall be verified by oath of the person making them, in the presence of the assessor or assistant as sessor, who shall append a certificate of the execution of the same, and the distiller shall make the following oath:—"I do certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief the foregoing entries are just and true, and hat I have taken all the means in my power to make them so."

The books of entries shall be kept open to the inspection of the assessor, and a viola-tion of this provision renders one liable to a fine of five hundred dollars; and a false account shall be punishable by a similar fine and imprisonment.

There shall be levied, collected and paid on all distilled spirits that may be distilled for consumption or sale of first proof, on and after the passage of this act, a tax of two dollars on each and every proof gallon, upon which no tax has been paid according to law to be paid by the distiller, owner or any other person in possession thereof, and the tax shall be a lien on the spirits distilled, on the distiller used for distilling the same, with the stills, vessels, fixtures and tools therein and the interest of said distiller in the lot or tract of land wherein said distil-lery is situated, from the time said spirits

lery is situated, from the time said spirits are distilled until the tax shall be paid.

The committee propose to strike out the previso imposing $150 per gallon on brandy distilled from grapes, apples or peaches. They propose to amend the twenty-fourth section of the bill by adding "and upon spirits removed under bond, for the purpose of being re-distilled or rectified, and upon f being re-distilled or rectified, and upon of being re-distinct or recemen, and upon which an allowance shall have been made as here'n provided, the duty upon such allowance shall be paid, together with the duties imposed by law upon said spirits, in case such spirits shall be withdrawn for consumption, sale or for transportation, without eing exported.

The committee recommend a provision forfeiting spirits which shall be changed in character either by rectification or mixing after they have been duly rechecked and branded and exposed to sale, without being properly branded, and forfeiting such spirits if brand-ed illegally, without the taxes on them be-ing paid.

ing paid. A new section is proposed, viz-Any person who shall remove spirits elsewhere than into a bonded warehouse, shall be liable to a fine of double the amount of tax, or imprisonment for not less than three months. and the spirits removed shall be forfeited, seized and sold, and any one who shall aid or abet such removal, shall be liable to a fine of $200 and imprisonment for three

A provision is inserted, authorizing the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to exempt distillers of brandy from apples, peaches and grapes from such of the provisions of this act as he may deem expedient. The amount paid into the Treasury on account of stamps shall be included in estimating collector's commissions. A manufacturer of ale or porter may remov one hundred barrels at a time by a permit from the Collector.

A new section provides against bribery, a penalty of three times the bribe, and imprisonment for three years.

Among other amendments to the section reorganizing the Internal Revenue Bureau by the committee is one raising the salary of the Commissioner to $6,000 per annum. Another new section provides the mode of procedure in cases of seizure.
