THE CHOLERA.-Says to day's New York THIRD Herald: The Board of Health held a meetng yesterday of a somewhat private nature. Two cases of cholera were reported, one of which proved fatal. The case of Officer Peck, who was reported as sick on Wednes-day last, proves to have been only diarrhœa. A trial was made yesterday afternoon of the disinfecting room recently constructed at Seguine's Point, to see what degree of heat could be obtained, and under what circumstances it would prove efficient. Eggs, oysters and fish were cooked in five minutes, and in ten, eggs wrapped in eight folds of a soldier's blanket were made as hard as heat can make them. The highes temperature marked by the self-registering thermometer was two hundred and sixty legrees; the highest by the thermometer o

Philadelphia Firemen at Chicago. [From the Chicago Journal, of Wednesday Evening, The fire department was out on full-dress parade, at noon to-day, the entire force, with steamers, hose carts and general apparatus participating. As the long and splendid-looking procession filed through the streets, the men in flaming red shirts and unique helmets, and the engines, etc., gayly deco-rated with flags, while the Great Western Light Guard Band, preceded by a detach-ment of Police, discoursed lively airs, the curiosity of citizens was aroused and many inquiries were made as to the occasion o

It was not generally known that one of the crack fire companies of Philadelphia, the "Vigilant," was expected by the noon train, yet such was the fact, and the procession, under the guidance of Chief Fire Mar shal Harris, proceeded to the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago depot to receive their guests, who were already in waiting. The gallant Philadelphians were headed by David Lyle, the veteran Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia Fire Department, bis aids, C. W. Ridgeway, and T. E. Barry. Vigilant Fire Company is represented by Chief Marshal, George Bartle, Assistant Marshals, Robert J. Barr and H. E. Riddle, and forty splendid looking men. They brought their beautiful hose-cart won by them at the great Philadelphia Sanitary Fair, and Beck's celebrated band of eighteen pieces, said to be the finest in the "Quaker City." The procession again formed, the Great Western Light Guard Band leading, About midway in the procession Chief Fire Mar-shal Harris, of Chicago, and Chief Engineer Lyle and Marshal Bartle, of Philadelphia, rode in an open carriage drawn by four horses. Then followed Beck's Philadelphia Band, playing superbly, followed by the Philadelphia firemen, drawing their hosecart, the balance of the Chicago Fire De-

HOUSE ROBBERY AND AN EXCITING CHASE,-About five o'clock yesterday afternoon two men stopped at the house of Mr. Francis Caldwell, on Wallace street, near Eighteenth. One represented himsel as a metre inspector, and was shown into the cellar. While the servant was engaged in holding a lamp for this man the other fellow slipped up stairs and ransacked the drawers. He was discovered by a woman, who gave the alarm. The thief then ran down stairs, knocked the woman over and went out of the front door. Officer Wood-house was informed of the circumstances and started in pursuit of the raseal. The and started in pursuit of the rascal. and started in pursuit of the rascal. The latter got into a Girard avenue car at Eigh-teenth street, but got off again as soon as Woodhouse entered. He then ran and the officer fired two shot at him, but neither took effect. At Sixteenth and Poplar streets the policeman came up with the fugitive, and after some trouble streeted him. The and after some trouble arrested him. The prisoner had a jimmy with which he at-tempted to strike the officer. On his person were found a gold watch, a silver watch, some coin, and deeds, bonds and mortgages which had been taken from Mr. Caldwell's house. This morning the accused was com-mitted by Ald. Hutchinson. He gave the Name of Chas. Walker.

VIOLENT ASSAULT ON A SERVANT .-- Mrs. Margaret McCullough, residing at No. 312 Cypress street, was before Ald. Butler this morning upon the charge of assault and battery upon Mary Ann Fagan, 15 years of age, a servant in the house. Mary was heaten yesterday and to escape from her assailant she jumped from a third story window. She had an ankle broken and was taken to the hospital. Mrs. McCallough was committed in default of $500 bail for trial.

QUICK WORK,-Lieut. Hampton yester day morning received from the District Attorney of Schuylkill county a warrant for the arrest of Commodore Hendricks, alias Cooney Hendricks, charged with burglary. Hendricks was arrested at two o'clock in the afternoon, at Sixth and Chestnut streets, by Officers Nutt and Lyons, and was sent to Pottsville in the 3.30 P. M. train.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-This morning a young man named. Edward Mullen was en-geged in digging in the cellar of an old building at Hope and Master streets. He dug too far under the foundation wall, which gave way, and he was crushed to death. He was 20 years of age and resided on Cadwalader street above Master.

FIRE AT MANAYUNK .--- This morning. about 11 o'clock, the roofs of three buildings on Cresson street, above Cotton, in Mana-yunk, were burned off. The buildings were occupied by Stephen Josephs, cabinet-maker, I. N. Carr, hotel keeper, and Anthony Cann, provision dealer. The total loss was about $1,000.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY .-- William Holgh, hailing from New York, has been committed by Ald. Haines to answer the charge of having entered a house in the Twentieth Ward, by the besk door, and helped himself to a lot of silverware, concisting of spoons, forks, ladles, &c.

After which he introduced Prof. Rufus Adams, of Phila-delphia, the celebrated elocutionist, who re-cited "Sheridan's Ride" and the "Defenders" (written by T. Buchanan Read) in his inimitable manner, when the Rev. Dr. Mon-roe, of the M. E. Church, was called upon to make a speech, whereupon he excused himself by saying that he was reminded of a minister, who made it his boast, that he never looked at or knew what text he should preach from until he opened the Bible after he entered the pulpit. On cne occasion he opened to the text which reads: "I am fearfully and wonderfully made," but which he read, "I am fearfully and wonderfully mad"-and, now said the doctor, I should make a speech after the eloquent remarks of the man who should have been Governor of the State, and will soon be United States Senator-the Hon. A. G. Catteil-and after listening to those beantiful recitations by the Professor, you might think of me, that as in the text of the preacher, "I am fearfully and wonder-fully mad"—and, after a few more remarks, fully mad"-and, after a few more remarks, he retired, leaving all present in the best possible humor. I would simply say, that if in addition to the demands made upon your citizens, they would like to increase their happiness, by testing more fully that beautiful sentiment, so full of truth, uttered by the Saviour of the so full of truth, uttered by the Saviour of the world, that it is more blessed to give than to receive"-a more deserving charity than this "Home" does not present itself. M. Newkirk, Esq., or Elijah G. Cattell, Esq., the Presi-dent and Vice-President, will thankfully receive any donations for the "Home" of W Camden. P. C. B.

COURTS.

COMMON PLEAS-Judges Allison and Peirce.—This morning the City Commis-sioner's case was resumed on the motion of Mr. Given to have the order allowing testi-mony to be taken enlarged. Under the original order, Mr. Given introduced testimony to show that parties represented to have voted on election day, could not be found at the residences marked on the list. In answer to this, Major Weaver produced testimony to show that the voters were in existence and were, at the residences indicated on the book on the day of election. The present motion was to be allowed to show that the voters thus accounted for by Major Weaver were not qualified. After argument the Court referred the motion and ordered the case to proceed. The argument was commenced on the case as presented by the testimony now before the Court. The argument was not con-
