THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Message from the President.

In the House of Representatives yesterday, a message from the President in refer-ence to the joint resolution was received, stating that it had been communicated by the Secretary of State to the Governors of the various States on the 16th of June, but that was a ministerial act, and not to be considered as involving the assent of the Executive to the proposed amendments. Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, moved the refer-ence of the message to the Judiciary Com-mittee, but at the suggestion of Mr. Banks and others, amended the motion and moved its reference to the Reconstruction Commit its reference to the Reconstruction Committee, which was agreed to.

To the Senate and House of Representatives: I submit to Congress a report of the Secretary of State, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution of the 18th inst., respecting a submission to the Legislatures of the States of an additional article to the Constitution of the United States, It will be seen from this report the Secretary of State had on the 16th inst. transmitted to the Governors of the several States, certified copies of the joint resolution passed on the 13th inst., proposing an amendment to the Constitution. Even in ordinary times any question of amending the Constitution question of amending the Constitution must be justly regarded as of paramount importance. This importance is at the present time enhanced by the fact that the joint resolution was not submitted by the two Houses for the approval of the President, and that of the thirty-six States which constitute the Union, eleven are excluded from represen-tation in either House of Congress, although with the single exception of Texas, they have been entirely restored to all their functions as States in conformity with the or-ganic law of the land, and have appeared at the national capital by Senators and repre-sentatives who have applied for and have been refused admission to the vacant seats. Nor have the sovereign people of the nation been afforded an opportunity of expressing their views upon the important questionwhich the amendment involves. Grave doubts therefore may naturally and justly arise as to whether the action of Congress is in harmony with the sentiments of the people, and whether State Legislatures elected without reference to such an issue should be called upon by Congress to decide respecting the ratification of the proposed amendment. Waiving the question as to the constitutional validity of the proceedings of Congress upon the joint resolution proposing the amendment, or to the merits of the article which it submits through the Executive department to the Legislature of the States, I deem it proper to observe that the steps taken by the Secretary of State, as detailed in the accompanying report, are to be considered as purely ministerial, and in no sense what-ever committing the Executive to an ap-proval, or a recommendation of the amendment to the State Legislatures or the people. On the contrary, a proper application of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, as well as of the interests of national order, harmony and union, and a due deference for an enlightened public judgment, may at this time well suggest a doubt whether any amendment to the Constitution ought to be proposed by Congress and pressed upon the Legislatures of the several States for final decision until after the admission of such loyal Senators and Representatives of the now unrepresented States as have been or as may hereafter be chosen in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the United ANDREW JOHNSON. States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.-To the President: The Secretary of State, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, of the 18th inst., in the following words: "That the President of the United States be requested President of the United States of requests to transmit forthwith to the Executives of the several States of the United States copies of the article of amendment proposed by Congress to the State Legislatures to amend the Constitution of the United States, passed June 6, 1866, respecting citizenship, the basis of representation, disqualification for office, and validity of the public debtof the United States, &c., to the end that the said States may proceed to act upon the said article of amendment, and that he request the Execu-tive of each State that may ratify said amendment to transmit to the Secretary of State a certified copy of such ratification," has the bonor to submit the following re-port, namely, that on the 16th inst. the Hon Amasa Cobb, of the Committee of the House of Representatives on Eurolled Bills, brought to this department and deposited therein an enrolled resolution of the two Houses of Congress, which was thereupon measured by the Shortery of State and received by the Secretary of State, and deposited among the rolls of the depart-ment, a copy of which is hereunto annexed Thereupon the Secretary of State, on the Set in contrast of State, on the 16th instant, in conformity with the pro-ceeding which was adopted by him in 1865 in regard to the then proposed and after-wards adopted congressional amendment of the Constitution of the United States, con-cerning the prohibition of slavery, trans-mitted certified copies of the annexed reso-lution to the Governors of the several States, together with a certificate and circular letter. A copy of both of these communications is herewith annexed. Respectfully submitted, WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

and it does not intend to take one or two hundred troops in the first detachment, and one or two hun-dred more in the second, leaving the great body of them to the last, through it had not deemed it necessary to specify with minuteness details of this bind which with minuteness details of this kind, which depend upon hygienic and climatic consid-erations, of which it was the best and only competent judge. This, his Excellency said, he wished I would say to our Govern-ment. I asked his Excellency if I had ever intimated to him, whether in writing or orally, any suspicion of the Emperor's intention to withdraw his army from Mexico in unequal proportions. He replied that I had not. I then asked him if any other had not. I then asked him if any other person, authorized to speak in the name of my Government, had done so. He said no; but he had read imputations of that kind in one of our papers. I replied in substance that the press was a law in itself, but that we had better not accept it as a law unto us, and as he asked me to communicate to my Government a formal answer to what sounded like an accusation of insincerity and bad faith on the part of the Emperor, I wanted his authority for stating that no such accusation had reached him through any official channel. He replied that he had only read it in a newspaper. I then went on to say that the purpose of your in-struction, as I understood it, was simply to obtain an explanation which was sure to be required of you of the shipment by France of large bodies of troops to Mexico after the purpose to withdraw her whole army had been officially proclaimed. To this His Excellency replied that since seeing me he had gotten from his col-leagues of the Marine and War Departments information to the purport that no troops belonging to the corps expenditionaire had been sent to Mexico this year, un-less for the sake of partly replacing soldiers missing, but at any rate, without aug-mentation of the number of standing troops. That the shipment of troops referred to in the public prints, and in your despatch, was most likely that made in the transport Rhone, about the beginning of the year; that this Rhone touched at Martinique, but not at St. Thomas, as was stated; that she carried 916, and not 1,200 soldiers; that they belonged to the foreign legion, and not to the expeditionary corps; that they consisted of troops which had been waiting transportation a long time in France and in Al-geria, to join their regiments; that no new troops had been enrolled for the foreign le-gion, since the Emperor proclaimed his purpose to with draw his flag from Mexico, and that no more, for what he knew, were intended to be enrolled. In regard to the shipment of troops from Austria, he said that that was an affair entirely between that Government and the Mexican, with which France had nothing to do; that since I had spoken to him upon the subject, he had verified his own convictions by a reference to the Ministers of War and Ma-rine, and had ascertained that no engagements of any sort had been entered into by either for the enrollment or transport of troops from Austria to Mexico. He went on further to say that it was the intention of the Government to withdraw the army entirely from Mexico within the time specified in his despatch to you, at the very latest, and sooner if climatic and other controlling considerations permitted, and it was not his intention to replace them with other troops from any quarter. At the con-clusion of a long conversation, of which I have given the important results, I ex-pressed my satisfaction with his Excellency's explanation, and the pleasure I should have in communicating them to my Government. This despatch has been submitted to M. Drouyn de L'Huys, and the foregoing version of the results of our conversation has been approved by him.

I am, sir, with great respect, your obedient servant, John Bigelow. servant, JOHN BIGELOW. Hon. William H. Seward, Department of State, Washington, D. C.

A Message from the President in Regard To the Employment of Austrian Troops in Mexico. WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President to-day, in further answer to the recent re-solutions of the Senate and House of Represolutions of the Senate and House of Repre-sentatives, requesting information in regard to the employment of European troops in Mexico, transmitted to Congress the follow-ing despatch from Mr. Bigelow to Mr. Seward: Seward :

Seward: LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES, PARIS, June 4, 1866.—Sir : I waited upon his Ex-cellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs, on Saturday last, in pursuance of a previous appointment, to confer with him upon the subject matter of your instruction No. 459, marked "confidential." As he had been already apprised of the contents of that de-spatch, through the French Minister resid-ing at Washington, I was spared the neces-sity of restating them. He said that the Imperial Government proclaimed its in-tention to retire from Mexico because it suited its convenience and interests to retention to retire from Mexico Decause it suited its convenience and interests to re-tire, and for no other reason. When, there-fore, it announced formally, not merely to the United States, but to all the world, that the army would be withdrawn from Mexico within a specified time, he thought it should be deemed sufficient. The Government made its declaration in good faith and means to keep it. It means to withdraw its army within the time prescribed,
