CITY BULLETIN.

THE EXODUS FROM THE CITY-DELIGHT-FUL SUMMER TRIPS BY RAIL AND STEAM. By the advertisement of Mr. Van Horn, agent, in another column, it will be seen that the arrangements for summer trips via the Catawissa Railroad and its connections are very complete, comprising no less than forty-eight different excursions. As our readers are well aware, there is no finer or more striking scenery of its kind on the continent than that along the line of the Catawissa Railroad. Towering mountains. sequestered valleys, beautiful rivers, bridges of great altitude, giving exquisite outlooks over vast ranges of country, all combine to make this route very attractive to tourists, while the admi-rable management of the road insures both comfort and safety. The fifty-eight excursions which have this line for a basis, comprise trips to Niagara Falls, to Montreal, to Quebec, to the entire extent of the St. Lawrence with its Thousand Islands, to the White Mountains, to Saratoga, to Portland, to Ogdensburg, to Oswego, &c. The rates of fare are astonishingly low, very much less than the tourist could command were he to buy separate tickets from point to point. Mr. Van Horn's office is at 425 Chestnut street, where all necessary information will be given.

CORNER-STONE LAYING .- The Cornerstone of a new Catholic Church was laid at Paschalville, near Darby, yesterday after-noon, in accordance with the prescribed forms of the Roman Catholic ritual, by the Right Rev. Bishop Wood, assisted by Rev. Father McConomy, and by the Rev. Father Fitzmaurice, as Master of Ceremonies. In the stone were deposited the following coins: One gold dollar, one silver dollar, one silver half dollar, one silver quarter dollar, one dime, one half dime, one five-cent piece, of the new currency, one three-cent piece, and one cent. Also, a Latin inscription, beginning "To God, the Best, the Greatest," which sets forth that the corner-stone of the new edifice was laid under the invocation of St. Clement, Pope and martyr, on the 24th of June, 1866, Andrew Johnson being Pre-Governor of Pennsylvania, and James Frederick Wood, Bishop of Philadelphia, etc. After the laying, Rt. Rev. Dr. McGill, Bishop of Richmond, Va., addressed the people, and Bishop Wood spoke briefly, and

THE COURTLAND SAUNDERS INSTITUTE -Rev. Dr. J. Wheaton Smith delivered an address this morning to Dr. Saunders's pupils on the order, aspirations, industry, accuracy, good-fellowship and other high qualities which should characterize every great institution of learning—qualities which, in his opinion, so mark this institution that he has become one of its most interested patrons. The Institution has a war record which endears it to every patriot. The lamented and accomplished Courtland Saunders (subsequently of the Corn Exchange Regiment), its junior principal, converted it into a military school which furnished the army with more than forty thoroughly drilled cadets of different grades; three of them, including himself, were of the rank of captain. He rejoiced that this old Institution which he found, upon coming to Philadelphia thirteen years ago, in a flourishing condition, is now, under the same Principal, more prosperous than at any previous period.

ALLEGED ARSON.—Christiana Sharp, employed as a servant in the house of Mr. Arthur Orr, No. 646 North Twelfth street, will have a hearing this afternoon, upon the charge of arson. It seems that about one o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. Orr had occasion to get up to get something for a sick child. Mrs. Orr noticed a strong odor of smoke, and then Mr. Orr found a dresser in the kitchen burning. A lot of waste paper used for making the kitchen fire, and some kindling wood from the cellar had been piled upon the dresser and set on fire. The flames were speedily extinguished. Their timely discovery was very fortunate for the family. It was found that the house had not been broken open, and suspicion fell on Christiana, who had come home drunk on the previous night, had been scolded by Mrs. Orr for her conduct, was very abusive, and was got to bed with great

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.-A youth an apprentice to John Ascough, blacksmith, at Front and Laurel streets, died this morning of hydrophobia. About three weeks ago a cat entered the shop, and the boy was ordered to turn it out. He took the animal in his hands and was bitten by it. Yesterday morning he was taken with spasms and suffered in great agony until this morning when he died.

New Jersey Matters. EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION,—The New Jersey Editorial Association have made more than their usual arrangements to give their summer excursion, on the occasion of holding their semi-annual meeting. The present one comes off Thursday, Friday and Saturday next, at Belvidere. Arrangements have been made with all the railroad ments have been made with all the railroad companies over which members of the Association will have to pass, and a visit to the Water Gap will be made. All the New Jersey editors, ex-editors, reporters, publishers, employing printers, &c., have been invited to participate, with the privilege of taking their wives, sisters, and sweethearts.

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENTS.— There are now seventeen counties in New Jersey in which auxiliary temperance societies have been formed. In Camden city and county these societies are in a flourishing condition. Efforts are also making to form these societies among the children. There is a wide field for operation in this matter, and the laborers cannot be too earnest in their efforts to abate the practice of indulging in intoxicating liquors of all descriptions.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—Another of those accidents which result from the careless use of firearms, occurred near Mount Holly a few days since. A young man named Benjamin Hughes was endeavoring to wrest from another man an old gun, when it was accidentally discharged, the contents taking effect in his neck, killing him instantly. What a sad calamity! During the last year no less than twelve such accidents have been recorded in the 1st District. Tuckerton.—The congregation of the M. E. Church, at Tuckerton, Burlington county, are actively engaged in raising means for building a new church, the present one being too small to accommodate the rapidly increasing membership. THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The summer vacation of the Camden public schools will begin in a few days, and the interim will be employed in making some essential improvements and additions to the school
