The bill to amend and continue in force the bill establishing the freedmen's bureau was taken up and read.

Mr. Davis (Ky.) moved to lay the bill on the table. Disagreed to—yeas 6, nays 27; Messrs. Buckalew, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks and Riddle voting in the affirmative. After discussion, in which Messrs. Wilson, Hendricks and Trumbull participated, Mr. Buckalew (Pa.) moved to amend by providing that the bureau shall remain in existence one year instead of two. Dis-agreed to—yeas 6, nays 26. Messrs, Buck-alew, Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie and Hendricks voting in the affirmative. Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) moved to strike out the fourteenth section. Disagreed to,

Mr. Hendricks moved to strike from the third section the following words: "And the commissioners shall, under the direction of the President, and as far as the same shall be in his judgment necessary for the efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the bureau, appoint such agents clerks and assistants as may be required for the proper conduct of the bureau." Disa-

Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) moved to amend, by striking out the provision declaring all persons in the employ of the bureau to be under military jurisdiction, and entitled to the military protection of the Government, while in the discharge of their duties. Disagreed to.

The Bill Passed—The bill was then passed. It goes back to the House for concurrence in amendments. The provisions are as fol-SECTION 1. That the act to establish a

The Senate at half-past two o'clock went into executive session, and soon after ad-House.—Mr. Ancona (Pa.), from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill to extend to civilians employed in the United States Quartermaster's Department the privilege of admission to the Government asylums for the insane. Read three times and passed. Mr. Eliot (Mass.), from the Committee on Mr. Enot (Mass.), from the Committee on Conference, reported back the Senate bill to regulate the transportation of nitro-glycerine of glonoin oil, with amendments extending its provisions to "nitroleum or blasting oil, or nitrated oil, or powder mixed with any such oil or substance," changing the penalty from $5,000 to "not less than $1,000 nor more than $18,000," and requiring the substance to be "surrounded by pleater the substance to be "surrounded by plaster of Paris or other material that will be nonexplosive when saturated with such oil or substance." The amendments were agreed to, and the bill, as amended, was passed.

to, and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The same Committee reported a bill relating to pilots and pilotage, prohibiting any State making discrimination in the rates of pilotage or half pilotage between vessels of different States or against vessels of the United States, and annulling and abrogating the peak discriminations. all such discriminations.

Mr. Randall (Pa.) asked whether the the bill applied to river pilots.
Mr. Elliot (Mass.) replied that it did not, except to prohibit discrimination in rates.

Mr. O'Neill (Pa.) explained that the bill only provided that pilots should bring vessels from sea into ports without discrimination of rates. It seems a just act, and his colleague (Mr. Randali) need not be alarmed about its interfering with the pilot laws of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Randall (Pa.) expressed his opinion that the language of the bill was not sufficiently plain and distinct. He should like to have it so amended that the Federal Government should not attempt to control or interfers with State level.

of any abuse in that particular.

Mr. McRuer (Cal.) who had introduced the bill, deemed its provisions very simple, and so just that they required no discussion or explanation. There were on the statute books only two United States laws affecting the question of pilotage, one the law of 1798, permitting each. State to establish its own poil to laws not to conflict with the state. ilot laws, not to conflict with any act of phot laws, not to connect with any act of Congress; and the other allowing yessels entering ithe port of New York to employ either a New York or a New Jersey pilot. The State of Pennsylvania could, under the existing laws on the subject, pass pilot laws discriminating in favor of Pennsylvania vessels, and against the vessels of other States. The object of this bill was to prevent any such discrimination. The bill was read three times and passed." --Mr. Eggleston (Ohio), from the Committee on Commerce, reported a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell eight hundred shares of the stock of the Dismal Swamp Canal, owned by the Government, in such manner as will best protect the interests of the United States in such canal, and insure its being kept open as a navigable highway without further expense to the Government.

Mr. Eliot (Mass.), from the Committee on Commerce, reported back with sundry amendments, chiefly technical, the Senate bill further to prevent smuggling, and for other purposes.

Mr. Humphrey (N. Y.) offered some amendments, which he was discussing when the morning hour expired, and the bill went over till to-morrow. The Speaker announced the Special Committee appointed in the matter of Dorrance Atwater, as Messrs. Hale, Woodbridge, Thornton, Paine and Longyear.

The Speaker presented a memorial from the Philadelphia Board of Trade to Congress praying for the abolition of legal restrictions on commerce in money. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The House then proceeded to business on the Speaker's table. The Senate amendment to the House bill amending the organic act of Washington Territory was taken up. The ameadment adds a new section disapproving the action of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory, approved Jan. 14, 1866, in reference to the county of Scammonia. The amendment was concurred in.

The Senate amendments, 695 in number, to the Internal Revenue bill were taken up.
Mr. Morrill (Vt.) said that if hethought the House would agree to it, he would move a non-concurrence with all the amendments of the Senate; but not supposing that motion would meet the approval of the House, he would move to refer to the Committee on Ways and Means. Mr. Pike (Me.) expressed the hope that Mr. Morrill would move to non-concur and ask a Committee of Conference, Mr. Stevens (Pa.) said he hoped that would not be done. It was a very important bill, and there were a good many parts of it which ought to be disposed of in the Mr. Morrill moved the reference of the amendments to the Committee of Ways and Means, and they were so referred.

The Senate bill to amend the act of July 1st, 1862, to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri river to the Pacific ocean, was taken up.

A long and excited discussion arose on the bill, participated in by Messrs. Stevens, Wilson (Iowa), Dawes, Higby and Kasson. Mr. Stevens explained that the object of the first section was simply to extend till December, 1866, the time in which the Union Pacific Railroad, Eastern branch, could fill its map, and designate its general route, and the object of the second section was to correct a fraud committed in copythe report of a conference committee last Congress, by which the California Company was prohibited from extending its part of the work more than two hundred and fifty miles beyond the eastern bound-ary of the State.

The House seconded the previous question, and the bill was passed—yeas, 96;

was the Senate act to amend the act of March 3d, 1863, granting lands to Kansas in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of railroads. The bill allows three sections per mile on each side of the road to a steam bill, and Messrs. Julian, Thayer and Ran-dall (Pa.) advocated its reference to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Trowbridge finally assented, and the bill was so referred.

The Senate joint resolution to authorize to $25,000, and the joint resolution, as so amended, was passed.

Mr. O'Neill (Pa.) presented a petition, numerously signed by merchants, business men and officers of the customs of the city of Philadelphia, with a plan of the alterations, asking that the Pennsylvania Bank building, belonging to the Government, may be altered for the accommodation of the Appraiser's Department, and also asking for an appropriation for that purpose.

BEDFORD AND BROAD TOP.

Alex. S. Feather, Pro., Ephrata P. O., Lancaster of APRIL 21st, 1866.

Visitors to these favorite places of Summer resort can now leave Philacelphia by Pennsylvania Builroad from Thirty-first and Market streets at 10 A. M. and reach Bedford or Broad Top early the same evening. There are excellent hotel accommodations now at Huntingdon for those who prefer to lay over night there. There has been added to this popular House, since last season, the entire Ocean House property, giving an ocean front of over 1200 feet, and over 300 rooms fronting and in full view of the sea.

A perfect system of sewerage and drainage has been completed, a feature possessed by few hotels outside of large cities.

The appointments of the House throughout have received a most careful supervision suggested by the experience of past seasons. For apartments address J. F CAKE.
