RIOT.—A riot occurred on Tuesday night in the neighborhood of Second and Reed streets, which lasted for some time, and in which pistols were discharged and stones and brickbats thrown in seeming utter disregard of life. Several persons were injured. Thomas Reilly, living at No. 29 Reed street, was struck in the face, and as he stepped backward caught by the heels and dragged into the street. Mrs. Reilly received a blow on the arm with a blackjack. Thomas E. O'Riley, a young man living at No. 1321 South Front street, was living at No. 1321 South Front street, was also badly beaten about the head and face. Joseph Kairns, living at No. 1322 Otsego street, was also pounded about the head and breast. One pistol ball passed through the deor of a public house kept by Robert Barns, on the corner of Otsego and Reed streets, lodging in the opposite wall. Andrew J. Hargesheimer, a member of the Shiffler Hose Company, and living at No. 319 Carpenter street, was taken to drug store, and had a rifle bullet extracted from his knee.

ANOTHER FIREMEN'S PARADE.-The Vigilant Fire Company, which has been on a visit to Chicago, will return to the city on Saturday evening. The arrangements for the reception of the company were completed last evening. Twenty-two companies will participate in the procession. Chas. Major, of the Perseverance Hose Company, was elected Chief Marshal, and William J.
Gilbert, Hope Hose, Wm. F. McCully, Hibernia Engine, B. K. Afflick, Empire Hook and Ladder, and George T. Reese, Assistance Engine were chosen Division Marshals. they were enabled to give a handsome en-tertainment to the inmates.

There are at present in the Home one hundred and fifty men, forty of whom are under medical treatment. Jellies and delicacies suitable for the sick, also old muslin and bandages, are much needed, and the ladies rely upon thegenerosity of the friends of these worthy veterans, to supply their pressing wants. The house is open daily to visitors from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

INTERESTING CEREMONY .- The corner stone of the Church of the Incarnation, Rev. Joseph D. Newlin, to be built at the south-east corner of Broad and Jefferson streets, east corner of Broad and Jefferson streets, is to be laid at five o'clock this afternoon. The preliminary services will begin in the chapel. Rev. H. J. Morton, D. D., Chairman of the Standing Committee, will perform the ceremony of placing the stone in position, assisted by several clergymen. The design of the edifice is a grand one, and it will be a noble feature of that district of our city. The interior will be of a crucior whape, and is adapted to seat one thouform shape, and is adapted to seat one thousand persons. The material is to be Leiperville granite, relieved with cornices and ornaments of brown and Picton stone. The ceremony will be most impressive.

FLAGS FOR THE FOURTH.—The indications are that the coming "Fourth" will witness the greatest display of flags, streamers and promiscuous bunting decorations ever made in Philadelphia. The "Great Depot," for supplying these articles, as will be seen by their card elsewhere, is at Messrs. Wilson & Hutchinson's 418 Arch street (formerly Evans, Hassal & Co.) We may add, in this connection, that the new firm of W. & H., while it brings with it the honorable prestige of the old firm, is evidently determined to sustain as high a reputation for energy and business enterprise. The present business of this house in flags is immense.

CAPT. HARRINGTON'S FUNERAL,-The

funeral of Capt. Purnell Harrington, of the funeral of Capt. Purnell Harrington, of the steam tug E. A. Souder, took place yesterday, from his late residence, No. 35 Washington avenue, Second Ward. The funeral proceeded to the cemetery of the Wharton Street Methodist Church. It was attended by the Enterprise Lodge, No. 201, of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a much-respected and hanored member. The shipmasters in port, merchants and others, also joined in the funeral train, to pay the last sad tribute of respect to the memory of the lamented deceased. amented deceased, ATLANTIC CITY.—We yesterday noticed the opening and the change of proprietor-ship of the Surf House at Atlantic City. We may add that the United States Hotel opened may add that the United States Hotel opened yesterday, under the able management of Messrs. Brown & Woelpper. Dodsworth's band has been engaged for the occasion. Congress Hall is also open—having been renovated, painted, papered, &c. Mr. G. W. Hinkle, the proprietor, has engaged a fine orchestra for the season, and the hotel will undoubtedly do a fine business.

Assaulting a Boy.-John McMenamin was before Alderman Jones this morning, upon the charge of having assaulted Frank Carlin, aged 15 years, who resided in the same house with him, No. 1214 Silver street. It is alleged that the defendant selzed the boy and threw him into the street. Carlin struck upon his head, and received a serious gash. McMenamin was committed for trial. CONTRACT ANNULLED .- The contract of CONTRACT ANNULLED.—The contract of Messrs. Smith & Hill, for cleaning the streets of the Northern District of the city, has been annulled by Mayor McMichael, in accordance with a request from the Street Cleaning Committee of City Councils. The fact will be officially communicated to Councils this afternoon.

BASE BALL.-A new club, called the Monte Cristo Base Ball Club, has been organized in the Fourteenth Ward. The officers are: President. C. W. Warner; Vice. President, F. Smith; Secretary, R. Phillips; Treasurer, W. Carr. All communications must be addressed to the President, No. 1131 Vine street, or to the Secretary, No. 1032 Olive street, Phila.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.—John Smith aged seventeen years, belonging to Harrisburg, and employed on a train on the Pennsylvania railroad, went into the Schuylkill, near the Round House, on Tuesday night, to bathe, and was drowned. His body has not yet been recovered.

CRESSON SPRINGS.—The Mountain House, Cresson Springs, on the summit of the Alleghenies, is now open for guests, and has rooms to accommodate all visitors who may arrive. It was reported that the house was full, but this is an error, as will be seen by the advertisement.

CHARGED WITH SHOOTING.-John Dempsey, charged with having been con-cerned in the shooting of James McCrud-den, liquor dealer at No. 758 South Eleventh street, about four weeks ago, was arrested yesterday, and after a hearing was committed to answer at Court.

PROFESSIONAL COMMITTED. - Barney McIlhenney, alleged to be a professional thief, was, yesterday committed for ninety days by Alderman Beitler. He was arrested on Saturday night last on a passenger car at Ninth and Chestnut streets.

CARELESSNESS.—This morning about three o'clock, the dwelling of Geo. Fow, on Marlborough street, below Girard Avenue, was slightly damaged by fire. The flames were caused by a candle, which a servant had left burning upon going to bed. READING ROOM FOR THE "BOYS IN
