New Jersey Matters. THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS .- The Soldiers and Sailors of Camdon county have just completed the organization of a "Campaign Club," for the purpose of taking a more active and efficient part in the present campaign. This organization consists of those who fought honorably through the war against rebellion, and who are strenu-ously opposed to "My Policy," in admitting unrepentant rebels into the Halls of Con-gress. The following noble letter from Hon, Edward Bettle, the Union candidate for State Senator for Gamden county for State Senator for Canden county, was read and loudly applauded:

"OCTOBER 8,1866.—Col. Wm. Wilson.—My DEAR SIR: Understanding that yourself and others of the Soldiers and Saliors of Canden county, propose second-line. Camden county, propose assembling to-night for the formation of a 'Campaign Club,' I should most gladly have availed myself of the opportunity of meeting them and you personally, but prior and imperative engagements forbid. I need hardly assure you, Colonel, that your proposed action commands my earnest sympathy and support. To the gallant and devoted men who, on many a herd-fought bettle field. who, on many a hard-fought battle-field, and many a blood-stained deck, upheld with stubborn loyalty an imperiled govern-ment and an insulted flag, the best interests of the country may be safely committed. They will be as true in the future as they have been steadfast in the past, and the great principles of Republican liberty for which many a lovel m principles of Republican liberty for which many a loyal man gave the last full measure of devotion; still command the judgment of their intellects and the best emotions of their hearts. That is their policy, and around that circle they propose to swing. Fully believing the Constitution and the Flag, about whose safety a recreant President has been so wonderfully exercised, are emphatically safe in their hands, sympathising entirely in your proposed organization, and wishing you every success, I am, very respectfully, yours, Another Head Gone.—The Executive axe has fallen upon the Postmaster at Bridgeton, Mr. Joseph S. Miner, and off dropped his head. The place has been filled by Samuel R. Fithian. The removal of Mr. Miner, who was never an active politician, and who is highly esteemed by the entire business community, has created considerable indignation, and, it is said, will make a number of votes for the Republican ticket.

CORNER STONE TO BE LAID.—The corner stone of a new Academy is to be laid on Thursday next, at Shiloh, Cumberland county, with appropriate ceremonies.

THE CHOLERA.—Several new cases of cholera occurred in Camden last week, but none of them have been reported fatal. The weather, however, continues favorable, and it is thought it will soon disappear alto-

DEAD.—The oldest resident in Atlantic City, R. Adams, Esq., over eighty years, of age, died in that city, on Thursday night. He leaves a large circle of relatives.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ARCH.—Last evening Mr. Daniel E. Bandmann epened a brief engagement at the Arch, appearing in Le Walden's new and capital play of "Destiny." He took the character of Corporal Antoine, a thorough French scidier, with all the folbies of his class and rank, yet with an earnest loyalty which carries him through many tribulations with unstained honor, and finally leads to a happy denouement of the drama. Mr. Bandmann's acting was admirable, though we were corstantly reminded of Mr. Edwin Booth by the peculiar intonations of his valce. His "make up" in every scene was perfect and excited the warmest admiration. He was supported most splendfully by Miss Annie Ward, Mr. W. H. Wallis, Miss Price, Mrs. Creese, Mr. Robert Craig and the company generally, and the play passed of charmingly. Great pains were taken with the scenery, so that the Arch preserved its reputation in that respect also. In the first act there are some Frenchified jokes which make the ears of a Philadelphia audience tingle, and which might as well-be (to say the least) modified, but with this exception we consider the play a great success. It will be repeated this evening and until further notice, together with a favorite farce.

The Walnur.—Mr. Hackettappears in "The Merry brough many tribulations with unstained honor, and

THE WALNUT.—Mr. Hackettappears in "The Merry Wives of Windsor" this evening, supported by Mr. J. B. Roberts and the strength of the company. THE CHESTNUT.—Mr. Owens repeats last night's superb bill, which was so admirably received by a large audience. THE AMERICAN.—Mr. Proctor again appears in Ambition" at the American this evening. ASSEMBLY BUILDING.—Mr Heller gives a number of new illusions in his programme this evening, as well as some most capital music. This is his last week.
THE OPERA HOUSE In Eleventh street is thronged nightly, and the bills presented are of the most lively and varied character.
NATIONAL HALL—The Lincoln Tableaux are given every evening and at three matiness during the week.
