of the President. He has done so much in contravention of the laws Congress has established, and has so frequently denounced Congress as a revolutionary and unconstitutional body, that the rumor of his intention to carry his words into action seemed scarcely an improbability. The treason of the North and the hanging of Thad. Stevens have been so long the burden of Mr. Johnson's speeches that the public were prepared for any madness. But the elections, in teaching him the spirit of the people, have, we hope, taught him the dignity of prudence.

THE NATIONAL TREASURY.
Secretary McCullough's Fortnightly Report.
WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 11, 1866.—The fiscal year ending on the 30th of June, 1866, was one of great material prosperity to the Treasury Department. The respective balances for the commencement and conclusion of the year were as follows:
Cash on hand June 30, 1865, $888,809 15
Cash on hand June 30, 1866, 130,009,815 19

Net gain, $129,811,606 04
If the gold in the National vaults, estimated in the foregoing figures, at par, were expressed in currency, it would amount to a balance on hand at the conclusion of the year of over $160,000,000.

valent, and by taking a dose of the pills, and then a pill every night for a few lines whenever they feel a little bilious, they would never have cholera and fever. Biliousness, intermittently, typhoid and all other fevers are caused from derangement of the stomach and liver. Try the pills; they only cost twenty-five cents per box. They are perfectly harmless, and may prevent weeks of dangerous sickness, if they are not like any other pills offered. They have the power to open the gall bladder and start the bile, which the stools will show, of a bilious person.

Strange to say, that nothing has yet been invented to act upon the liver but Schenck's Mandrake Pills, except calomel or mercury, which salivates and ruins the constitution for life. Even medical men themselves are astonished at their effects. Many allow it, and others have nothing to say. Any common pill, or a dose of pills or oil, will physic the bowels, but they do nothing more while Schenck's Mandrake Pills operate on the liver and stomach. Try them; they can cure the biliousness, and can be obtained from any druggist.

CITY BULLETIN.
BASE BALL.—The Athletics of this city played a game yesterday afternoon with the Athletics of Newark, N. J., at the Centennial Grounds. Game was called at the fourth inning, owing to the deplorable state of the weather. The following is the score:
Athletics, 10 runs, 10 hits, 10 errors.
Newark, 2 runs, 2 hits, 2 errors.

A BEAUTIFUL STORE.—Walnut, like Arch street, is losing its distinctive character, slowly but surely, as the place of residence of our citizens. Business is receding, and in a few years the old store buildings will be replaced by the new establishments of modern architecture. One of the finest improvements on this street is the new building of Messrs. J. H. & Co., No. 311 Walnut street, which will be devoted to the sale of fine French goods in that line. The building is one of the handsomest in this country, and is probably the most costly manner, and with the finest taste and style. It is a credit to the city, and is a great improvement in the business and architectural point of view. It is a credit to the city, and is a great improvement in the business and architectural point of view.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—C. Wisegamer, Charles Fisher and Henry Gafke were before Judge Holmes yesterday, upon the charge of highway robbery. They are soldiers at the time, and were arrested on Monday night last, when they were found in the possession of a large quantity of goods, valued at about $200. Mr. Marshall was badly injured and held him until a policeman came. He was then taken to the hospital, and died there yesterday. The defendants were committed for trial, Marshall is about to be appointed a peddler, and is residing temporarily at Philadelphia.

REARER.—Rev. Richard Malley, pastor of the South street Presbyterian church, has just returned to this city after an absence of several months in Virginia. Mr. Malley was accompanied by his family, who, during their tour, were attacked with a severe illness, and he is now recovering from the effects of the disease. The party on this account, were detained on Sabbath last, when they will preach his return sermon on several prominent social members of the church who died during his absence.

INSTALLATION SERVICES.—Rev. Irvin S. Beaman was installed pastor of the Logan Square Presbyterian Church, at a recent and very interesting evening. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. G. Butler, D. D. Several other clergymen took part in the proceedings.

A BREWERY BURNED.—Austin's brewery, located near Christ Church Hospital, at the upper part of the Twenty-fourth Ward, was destroyed by fire on an early hour this morning. The establishment was an extensive one. The loss is estimated at $25,000, upon which there is an insurance of $30,000.

AT RISLEY'S NEWS EXCHANGE, in the Continental, choice seats for the Italian Opera may be had for the season and for any particular evening.

MILITARY ORGANIZATION.—A new military organization has been formed in Camden, by the veteran soldiers and sailors who did military service in the late war. The organization is called the Camden County Veterans Association, and has for its object the mutual aid and protection of its members, who have been mustered out of the service. The organization is now in the process of organizing, and will have its first meeting on the 15th inst. The members will receive their arms and equipment from the State, in a few days from present indications, this will form the most military company ever organized in Camden.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Camden County Sabbath School Association will be held in the Third Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Camden, on Thursday next. These meetings are generally very largely attended, and are of great importance to the Sabbath School. Interests are usually discussed, and of this year being the centenary of the birth of our Lord, an increased interest is attached to the proceedings.

PHYSICIANS' CERTIFICATES.—The undertakers of Camden are anxious that Combs should pass an ordinance requiring all physicians to give a written certificate to them of the nature of the disease of which any patient may die under their treatment, before the body is interred. This ordinance should be passed by the Clerk of Councils, and the number of deaths, and the disease of which the persons died, can be easily ascertained. An increased interest is attached to the proceedings.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.—The Second Assembly District Convention of Camden county has do not have a meeting on Tuesday next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for that office. The convention will be held on the 15th inst. and will be held at the residence of the candidate, who will be nominated. The convention will be held at the residence of the candidate, who will be nominated.
