

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"Women of the War; their heroism and self-sacrifice," is the title of an elegant volume by Frank Moore, published by S. S. Scrantom & Co., Hartford, and for sale by O. D. Parmelee, general agent, corner of Sixth and Minor streets, in this city. It comprises the record of the labors of over forty ladies who particularly distinguished themselves during the late rebellion as the friends of the sick and wounded soldiers, and, in some cases as combatants, spies, &c. The work is unique. No such record of the devotion of women to a patriotic cause has been known in history, just as no such earnest self-sacrifice has ever been shown. Such narratives as those of Mrs. Mary Brady, Mrs. Ricketts, Mrs. Fogg, Mrs. M. W. Lee, Mrs. John Harris, Mary E. Shelton, Mrs. Booth, Anna Maria Ross, Nelly M. Chase, &c., thrill the heart of the reader and bring back the memory of the days of 1861, when, through the noble heroism of women; our soldiers and sailors were cared for as if they were kings and princes, and when nearly all the women in the loyal States vied with each other in generous deeds in hospital and camp. The work is well written, well illustrated and beautifully printed. It will have a large sale and will long remain a monument of the nobility of the women of loyal America during the great rebellion.

"The Diamond Edition" of the complete works of Alfred Tennyson is a triumph of taste, even in so tasteful a publishing house as that of Ticknor & Fields. Here we have all the poems of the Laureate, printed in good clear type, on excellent tinted paper, bound in Magnolia colored muslin, and making a volume that can easily be carried in the pocket. It is cheap, too, for who is there that loves letters that will not be glad to get Tennyson's Poems for a dollar and a quarter? The diamond editions of these and other works promise to surpass in popularity even the blue and gold editions of the same house. Mr. G. W. Pithers has the "Diamond Tennyson" for sale.

The forty-second number of "Every Saturday" gives its readers a welcome instalment of Mr. Kingsley's fine novel, "Silcote of Silcotes." This serial appears in monthly chapters, instead of weekly parts; much to the tantalization of those readers who have become involved in the career of Silcote. A large portion of the present issue of "Every Saturday" is devoted to the continuous stories. The brief articles are "An English October," "Reverence for Inferiors," from "The Leisure Hour," "Cousin Jane," a tale from "All the Year Round," and "The Bastard Commander," by the author of "John Halifax Gentleman."

CITY BULLETIN.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Taylor yesterday concluded the inquest in the case of John Williams, who was found in the Delaware, at League Island, on the 7th inst. Lee, who was with the deceased when he disappeared in the water, stated that he and Williams left Reed street wharf late on Sunday night, September 30th, for the purpose of going on board of a schooner in which they had shipped. When about thirty yards from the shore the two quarrelled. During the quarrel Williams drew a knife from his pocket and stabbed Lee several times (wounds shown), when they clinched and both fell overboard. Lee then swam ashore. The last he saw of Williams was when he was getting into the boat. Lee then went to the Shipping House and made his statement, when he was arrested and locked up for a hearing. Dr. Shapleigh made a post mortem examination, but there were no marks of violence on the person of the deceased sufficient to cause his death. The jury rendered a verdict of drowned.

A VISITING FIRE COMPANY.—The Rolla Fire Company, of Elizabeth City, New Jersey, will reach this city on a visit on Monday afternoon next. At a meeting held at the Globe Engine House last evening arrangements were made for an appropriate reception. The Companies represented were the Kensington Hose, United States Engine, Globe Engine, Mechanic Engine, Taylor Hose, William Penn Hose, Good Intent Engine and Pennsylvania Hose. The route decided upon is as follows: Down Frankford road to Laurel, up Laurel to Second, Second to Coates, Coates to Fourth, Fourth to Arch, Arch to Eighth, Eighth to Coates, Coates to Fifteenth, Fifteenth to Girard avenue, along the Avenue to Ohio, Ohio to Richmond, Richmond to Kensington Hose House, and there dismiss. C. K. Smith, of the Kensington Hose, was chosen Chief Marshal, and G. W. Master, Good Intent Engine, E. A. Gordon, Pennsylvania Hose, and A. G. Enser, Taylor Hose, Division Marshals.

ELECTION OFFICERS IN TROUBLE.—Jas. Dillion, Judge of Election of the Sixth Division of the Fourth Ward; Frank Finnegan, constable of the same ward, and Thomas Dugan, were before Alderman Brier yesterday on the charges of assaulting Jacob L. Baugh, an election officer appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of the county of Philadelphia, October 8th, 1866, as return inspector for the Sixth Division of the Fourth Ward, forcibly ejecting said Baugh from the room in which election officers met for the purpose of conducting general election October 9th, 1866, and preventing said Baugh from discharging the duties as an election officer. Defendants waived a hearing and were held in $500 bail each to answer at court.

APPEALS FROM ASSESSORS' RETURNS.—Messrs. Thomas Cochran and Wm. Loughlin, the Board of Revision of Taxes, will meet next week, at the office, No. 11, State House, for the purpose of hearing appeals from the Assessors' returns of taxes for the year 1867. Two wards will be taken up on each day, commencing on Tuesday with the First and Twenty-sixth Wards, and continuing on Wednesday with the Second and Twenty-third Wards, and so on.

STOPPAGE OF THE SUNDAY CARS.—Mr. McGrath, the President of the Union Passenger Railway Company, gives notice that in consequence of the injunction granted by Judge Strong, the running of the cars on that road, on Sunday, will be suspended for the present.

FOUND DROWNED.—Adolph Hand, who was formerly employed at League Island, in the magazine, was found drowned at that place yesterday. The coroner was notified.

The workshop of the Northern Railroad of New Jersey, located at Piermont terminal, was entirely destroyed by fire at three o'clock on Sunday morning. Three locomotives, the J. M. Debezer, Palisade and Englewood, the latter just completed, and a new passenger car, were also destroyed. The workmen employed in the shop lost most of their tools. The damage is estimated at about eighty thousand dollars. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained.
