CITY BULLETIN.

THE DAY NURSERY.—One of the most useful charities in the city is the Day Nursery, an institution but intile known, but one that commends itself to every benevoient person when its min and object is in derstood. The idea of it was suggested to the mind of a Christian lady who, in visiting Par's became acquainted with 1 a Crèole, a similar institution. The object of the Day Nursery is to offer a home during each day of the week, to the little children of the laboring women of our community; those who in going out by the day to work, must have been compelled to neglect these little ones were it not for the convenience that this excellent institution presents. It is located in Hight street, No 410, a small street below Broad, and running parallel with it, and between Pine and Lembard.

The managers will be very glad to saggrey wisites. THE DAY NURSERY.-One of the most and running parallel with it, and between Pine and Lt mbard.

The managers will be very glad to see any visitors who feel interested in this Home at any time during the day. It is unser the direction of an excellent matron and other efficient women. Children of the most tender age, even little infants, are received here up to ten years of age. The mothers bring them at the same hour in the evening. Those children who are of a proper age to attend the Public Schools are allowed to go, both to the morning and afternoon sessions. Whilst in the nursery they receive three good meals each day, and are kept in habits of order and cleanlines, the expense of this accommodation is but six cents each day for each child. This communication is sent to the BULLETIN in order to interest all benevolent people in the Day Nursery, which without further and liberal aid must be closed, inasmuch as its funds are nearly exhausted. Any persons desirous to aid in this laudable charity can send their con: fluttions to the President, Mrs. Horner, No. 1709 Walnut street, the Treasurer.

Church Dedication.—The Ninefeenth

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The Nineteenth Street M. E. Church, at Nineteenth and Poplar streets, was dedicated yesterday. The church was crowded at each service during the day and evening. The services opened in the morning with singing, and prayer by Prof. Barnhart, of the Fairmoust Female College. An appropriate dedicatory sermon was then preached by Rev. Bishop Simpson. In the afternoon the Rev. Dr. Nadal, of Trinity M. E. Church, preached, and in the evening, the key. J. Walker Jackson. The new Church is a beaudini eddice, fifty-saven by serventy-six feet, with a spacious basement for lecture room, class rooms, &c. The walls are frescoed, and the pews Yery neatly fir ished with walnut backs and strolls.

In some respects the eddice is one of the most elegatily fit ished with walnut backs and strolls. It does his establishment infinite credit. The pews have stuffed backs and cushions, of rich crimson damesk, the color blending sucerbly with the walnut facing sof the pews. The whole effect of the decorations is most admirable, and called forth the neartiest praises from the crowds who attended the dedicatory services. CHURCH DEDICATION.-The Nineteenth EXPLOSION OF GAS.—At the store of Van EXPLOSION OF GAS.—At the store of Van Kirk & Co., No. 912 Arch street, there was an explosion of gas about four o'clock yesterday morning. The front window was used for the display of gas fixtures. A new twelve-light brenze chandeller had just been put in, and all the lights were in use on Saturday evening until seven o'clock. It is supposed that the window was not property ventilated, and the intense heat generated by the gas had melted the cement of the joints of the chandelier, and the gas escaped through them; that one of the burners had not been entirely extinguished; that the gas had ascended to the lop of the window, and when the volume of gas reached the slightly burning light the explosion took place. The glass is French plate, half an inch in thickness, two lights were shattered to atoms the largest piece not being a foot square. The chandeller had twelve ground glass globes upon it. All or them were uninjured. The broken pieces of glass fiew in all directions, making in the adjoining wood-work indentations half an inch deep. The watchman who was passing the store at the time was blown into the middle of the street, but was not much injured. The glass destroyed was valued at about $600.

NAPOLEON AND BISMARCK. - Professor NAPOLEON AND BISMARCK. — Professor Alonzo Tripp, of Boston, will deliver his lecture on "Napoleon III ard the Empire." in Musical Fund Hall. Thursday evening next. This being the first of a series of free lectures to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. Mr. Tripp was in Paris at the subversion of the Orieanist Dynasty, in 1848, which brought Louis Napoleon to power. His writings and lectures on the leading European statesmen have met with much public favor. All the leading events in the chequered career of Louis Napoleon will be clearly sketched, together with an analysis of the man, and an explanation of his wonderful success as a ruler; also a brief ontline of that remarkable personage who now divides with the Emperor his position as the foremost statesman of Europe, the Count Von Bismarck. Members and friends of the Association can obtain tickets gratnitously at the Roems, 1210 Chestnut street.

SHOT ACCIDENTALLY.—Francis Swingle SHOT ACCIDENTALLY.—Francis Swingle was accidentally shot last evening at a house on South street, above Thirteenth. He was passing along the street and heard the cry of a woman. He went into the house and found a man quarreling with his wife. He interposed on behalf of the woman, whereupon he was attacked by the husband, and while eugaged in the conflict with him a revolver dropped from his pocket. In striking the floor, one of the balls was discharged, and entered the groin of Mr. Swingle, inflicting a serieus wound. The wounded man was taken to the Hospital.

CHILD BURNED.—George Sheppard, aged four years, was seriously burned last evening by his clothing taking fire, at his residence, 1835 Tatlow street.

THE MORNING GLORY,-Having examined this wonderful stove, we shall refer to a few of its superlative merits. Originally perfect in polar of principle, the Morning Glory, by successive improve ments supplied by the best scientific and mechanical talent, has become incomparably superior to all others; and new stands, per excellence, and by the common consent of all who have seen and used it, as the best Heating Stove of the age, having established itself as the great and exclusive favorite. During winter, one of the most unpleasant daties is to kindle a fire every morning, and wait in the cold room until the temperature becomes comfortable. This discrepable areas ture becomes comfortable. This disagreeable nec sity is entirely obviated by the use of the Morning Glory; because, when the fire is once kindled in this wonderful stove, it does not require to be rekindled wonderful stove, it does not require to be rekindled during the entire winter season. Supplying it with coal once a day and shaking the ashes from the grate, is all that is requisite to make it burn perpetually. This splendld stove is encircled by twelve beautiful mica windows, which permit the glowing rays of the fire to strike the sides of the room, imparting their genial heat to the atmosphere, and diffusing a uniform, healthful and summer-like temperature throughout every portion of the room.

healthful and summer-like temperature throughout every portion of the room.

In the Morning Glory, the fire always remains at the base of the coal. From the reservoir, the fresh coal gradually descends into the fire, and the gas from the coal meeting the fire, is entirely consumed, thus generating an intense degree of heat, and entirely preventing the escape of gas.

The combustion being perfect and at a high temperature, the amount of heat generated is immensely greater than at a low temperature; therefore, only a amall quantity of fuel at one time need to be undergoing combustion.

The entire exterior of the Morning Glory is radia-

It always diffuses a genial and summer-like heat that is remarkably pleasant and healthful. The light emitted by the brightly glowing fire, through the mica windows, pleasantly illuminates a parlor. The Morning Glory is symmetrical in its form and outline, and beautin in its onamentation.

Believing that a topough avanuation.

Believing that a thorough examination cannot fail to convince any one of the pre-eminent superiority of the Morning Glory, we respectfully request the public to call at the extensive stove depot of Charles Jones, Nos 309 and 311 North Second sireet, above Vine, and at John S. Clark's extensive establishment, No. 100 Market street, and examine the Morning Glory in suc cessful operation. It will continue to be sold at both of the above establishments.

FIFTY VARIETIES OF CAKES. — Fresh daily, at MORSE & CO'S, 902 & 904 Arch street.

WARBURTON'S NEWSTYLES. - Pedestrians who pass the fashionable Hat Emporium of Mr. W. F. Warburton, 430 Chestnut street, will have noticed the brilliant new display which it presents. For many years the crowning (pardon the pun) glory of this establishment has been that the hats which emanate from it are not only the most tasten and dessy, but from their scientific pecularities, also the most comfortable to the head, the least detrimental to the hair, and of course the most conductve to health. Last, but not least, Mr. Warburton is a gentleman with whom cur cilizers like to deal, as his priority and politeness are no less marked then are the angelor services. are no less marked than are the apperior grace and ele-gance of his styles. And as he is constantly at his post, giving personal attention to customers, in the ordered work department more especially, the personal qual ties which we have here taken the liberty to speak of form no inconsiderable share in the merits of Mr. War-burton's establishment.

THAT EXPLANATION.—The papers to-day publish a full explanation of the bogus despatch which created such an excitement last week in political and financial circles, and which gave a morning journal so much trouble. As the affair has now been ventilated we have lefaure to return to our customary eulegy of the excellence of the cheap coalsold by W. W. Alter, No. 557 North Ninth street, and at Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

THE FATAL ERROR. We have it on the an hority of the Edinburgh Ecview, that the novels of this gifted authoress were "published at the expense of the Queen." The same anthority remarks. "Hence it might have been foretold, that of the various kinds of novels, the romantic and descriptive was the least repugnant to the old Spanish spirit, and that in order for a writer successfully to undertake such a novel, it would be necessary for him to have a passionate attachment to the national manners and characteristics, and a corresponding dislike to the foreign and new such are the qualities we find united in the author of this work. The Lost Beauty is, perhaps, the jinest story of the author. Its advent is a real literary event. The most severe critics have dissected this new work, and have unheeliatingly proclained the authoress to be the 'SPANISH WALTER SCOTT.' Among the painters of manners, the best, without doubt, are the Spanish writers. We are certain to find there truth, joined to a richness and plupancy of details: and above all, a spirited tone, which singularly heightens and sets off their recitais."
