THE NORTH BROAD STREET PRESBYTE-RIAN CHURCH.—For some months past, Rev. E. E. Adams, the Pastor of the North Broad Street Presbyterian Church, has been Broad Street Presbyterian Church, has been afflicted with an affection of the throat which has prevented his preaching. Dr. Adams being unwilling to compel the church to be dependent upon temporary "supplies," and being desirous of giving the congregation an opportunity of filling his place if they desired to do so, tendered his resignation to the Session of the Church. Last evening a congregational meeting was held for the purpose of taking action upon the resignation. After considerable discussion a vote was taken upon a resolution declaring that it was inexpedient to accept the resignation of Dr. Adams. The resolution was carried by 109 years to 50 noes. It is only right to state that many of the persons who voted "no" on the resolution, did so from a conviction that the reverend gentleman desired to be relieved from his pasto-ral charge. This vote, while it was a merited compliment to Dr. Adams, is only an act of simple justice to him. Through an act of simple justice to him. Through his incessant labors and efforts in the past the congregation was formed and its beautiful church edifice was reared. His people have shown as decided an unwillingness to dissolve their connection with him, as he has felt reluctance to succumb to the attacks
