Burning of the Louisville Theatre. [From the Louisville Journal, 13th.] At 12 o'clock last night we were startled by cries of fire from the street in front of our office, and on looking out we discovered fiames issuing from the southeast corner of the Louisville Theatre. The alarm spread from mouth to mouth, and in a few minutes a large crowd had rallied in advance of the steam engines and broken into the theatre, to suppress the fire, if possible. Mr. Tom Carey and others worked heroically with the water pipes belonging to the house, but all their exertions were unavailing. The flames enwrapped the scenery and other combusmaterial on and about the stage in a very short time, and when the engines ar-rived the fire had so far progressed that it seemed impossible either to confine or prevent a spread of the conflagration. In less than half an hour from the first alarm, the theatre building was entirely consumed. The real origin of the fire is unknown. If is conjectured that the scenery was set on fire by the wadding from a gun discharged during the performance last evening. Another supposition is that the property room was set on fire by an incendiary.

The wind was blowing stiffly when the fire occurred and the cinders were whirled about for many squares. The splendid Jewish Synagogue adjoining the theatre, being to windward and nearest the flames. was soon enveloped, and before water wa brought to bear upon it the roof was enfire-ly burned in. By falling debris and water whole interior of the church was defaced to an extent that will render it almost ir reparable. Several other houses in the neighborhood narrowly escaped destruction by the rain of coals that bespangled the heavens for a wide circuit around the theater. Buckets and blankets were vigor ously used upon the housetops, and by almost superhuman activity and watchfulness the extension of the conflagration was intercepted. As it is, however, the catastrophe will prove alarmingly destructive. The loss upon the Louisville Theatre will not be less than $50,000, and wil probably overreach $60,000. It was insured for $10,000 only, in the Hope Company of this city. This insurance reverts to John Rates of St. Louis, the original owner of the building, from whom Mr. George Fuller purchased it, and afterwards transferred it purchased it, and afterwards transferred to Col. Marc Mundy. The misfortune to Col. Mundy is very great, and he merits and will have the sympathy of the entire public. To our citizens the loss of the theatre will be sensibly felt. It was one of the completest temples of the drama in the West, and we cannot hope to have another that will so fully meet all the requirements of a theatre-going people. The destruction of the theatre carries with it embarrassments and losses to the dramatic company. that cannot be easily overcome. Their dis-tresses will excite the sympathies of one and all in our community.

Misses Emma and Ada Webb lost the valuable costumes worn by them in the plays last evening. Fortunately, the balance of their wardrobe was not in the theatre.

Mr. Frank Keller, the acting stage manager, suffered the loss of all his text books and music, the collections of ten or fifteen years. They were invaluable, and can never be replaced.

Mr. Ernest Zoeler, leader of the orchestra, lost all of his sheet and book music and a fine violin. Other members of the orchestra sustained losses more or less severe.

It is impossible to approximate the value of other private property consumed.

The burning of the synagogue was truly deplorable. It was the general opinion that deporable. It was the generatorimon that it could have been saved had proper exertions been made. Yet, we are not disposed to censure the Fire Department. They, worked manfully, and many of them distinguished themselves by intrepid encounters with the racing flames.

ters with the raging flames. The loss upon the Synagogue is not less than $20,000. It was insured for $3,000—$4,000 in the London and Liverpool, and $4,000 in the Kentucky Mutual. The building is utterly wrecked, and will not be fit for use as a church again. Mr. Tom Tindell, of the Drama Saloon, is loser in a small amount, by damage from water. The cigar store on the corner owned by Frank Morelli, was also damaged considerably; uninsured. We may state the outside losses at about $2,000, and recapitulate as follows, viz: Loss to Louisville Theatre, - $50,000

Loss to Synagogue, Loss to individuals, 20,000 2,000 $72,000 Insurance on Theatre. -- - $10,000 Insurance on Synagogue, ---8,000 Total insurance. - $18.000 Actual loss. This is one of the most disastrous conflagrations we have had in Louisville the present year. The losses may exceed the above figures. They will not fall under then ma-terially, if at all. Troubles in Syria.

The following paragraphs, from a letter written by a missionary of the American Board in Syria, dated Sept. 4, show that the troubles of the Turks in Syria are increasing: "Yusef Keram is not yet caught, and is still making trouble in Northern Lebanon, so that it is not safe to visit the cedars this season. There is a mystery about the conduct of the Turkish officials in allowing him to run at large so long, which we cannot explain.

"Ten daysago the Turkish garrison at Boz-rah, in Southern Houran, suddenly pounced upon the encampment of the Amazy Araba (who were living near them in peace and promised security) and plundered the encampment, killing men and driving off their entire herds and flocks. The Arabs appealed to Ismaeel el Atrosh, the prince of the Druses, for aid. Ismacel went to the Turkish com-mander and demanded the restoration of the plunder, stating that a part of it belonged to himself, and it must be given peaceably or forcibly. The Turks refused. The Druses flew to arms, and with the Arabs, defeated the Turks, killing sixty of the Turkish soldiers. This news has just reached us through a friendly Druse sheikh in this village. He says that the road to Houran is now cut off so that the Houran wheat has ceased to come into Damascus, and the price of breadstuffs bassisen. The Turkish general at Damascus has set out for Houran to try and settle the

"And so it goes. Crete is in insurrection— Yusef Keram has been defying the Turks for nine months, and though once apparently crushed, was not caught, and is still making trouble. This Houron affair may draw off Turkish troops and cost the Turks more of men and money than they can afford to spare just now. Yet this part of Syria is very quiet. We have had no cholera, and the while health is good. the public health is good. Our congrega-tions have been large all the summer long,"

In the case of Luther against Borden, given in 7 How., United States Reports, p. 1, (which arose out of "Dorr war," in Rhode Island) the Supreme Court held that under the fourth section of the Constitution. the fourth section of the Constitution, providing that the United States should guarantee to every State a republican form of government. &c. It rest with Congress to decide what go-It rest with Congress to decide what government is the established one of the State. For as the United States guarantees to each State a republican form of government, Congress must necessarily decide what government is established before it can determine whether it is republican or not. And when the Senators and Representatives are admitted into the councils of the Union, the authority of the Government under which they are appointed, as well as sentatives are admitted into the councils of the Union, the authority of the Government the republican character, is recognized by the proper constitutional authority, and its decision is binding on every other departaments. That is the Constitution, as expounded by the tribunal whose decisions are equally as binding on the President as on the people.

Governor Worth, of North Carolina, to

Delegates from different portions of North Carolina to an an educational convention of colored people met at Raleigh last Monday, and continued in session throughout the week. On Wednesday they were addressed by Gov. Worth, as follows: I have come here, upon your invitation, to give you, by my presence, what countenance and encouragement 1 could, having understood that all your proceedings were conducted in a becoming and orderly man-ner. I was not notified that any remarks were expected from me, till your president just informed me. The few words I shall say are unpremeditated. In the first place, let me assure you that I am disposed to do everything I can, as a am disposed to do everything Arcan, as a citizen and as Governor, to protect you in all your rights, and to encourage you to be industrious, to educate your children, and to make yourselves respectable and happy; and while you may expect my protection while you do right, I shall be equally ready to have those muniched who do wrong. to have those punished who do wrong.

You are very poor. Your first care should be, by industry and economy, to provide good supplies of meat and bread, and devete all you can spare to educate your children; and remember that it is the common in-terest of both races that no enmity be allowed to grow up between them. As far as I know, the general feeling of your latemasters is kind! towards you. The whites feel that they owe you a debt of gratitude for your quiet and orderly conduct during the war, and you should endeavor so to act as to keep up this kindly feeling between the two races, Let me advise you not to meddle in governmental affairs. You know how few of your race are now capable of understanding matters of this sort, and you see the strifes and troubles in which party politics have involved the whites. Avoid politics Practise industry, virtue, and cultivate the kind feeling which now exists between the races, and you will thus acquire competence and elevate your condition.

Attempt to Take Freedmen to Peru. NASHVILLE, Oct. 16.—The rumor of an outbreak amongst the negroes, which preoutbreak amongst the negroes, which prevailed here yesterday, is unfounded. It arose from the fact that a number were arrested last week as vagrants, and were promised liberty if they would contract with Cheatham & Beach to work on the plantations in Mississippi. Their summary leaving caused report that they were sold into slavery producing excitament which into slavery, producing excitement which it was feared would create a riot. No fears of violence are now entertained.

The United States Attorney yesterday.

received the following: DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, October 11, 1866.—To the Attorney of the United States for Middle District of Tennes see.—SIR: This Department has received information that measures are in progress for the purpose of inducing freedingen to move to foreign countries, especially to Peru, by promises of high wages and other

If there is reason to believe that these promises will not be performed, and that the condition of the freedmen would not, in most instances, be impaired by the change, it is deemed to be the duty of the Government to prevent them by all legal and moral means, from being thus imposed upon. This circular is addressed to you for that purpose, with the assent of the Attorney General. You will do anything which you properly can toward causing it to be carried into effect. Your obedient servant, W. H. SEWARD.

Regulations for Appointments to the Regular Army.

The War Department, yesterday, issued the following regulations for the examination of candidates for appointments in the regular army: regular army:

First—Boards for the examination of applicants for appointments in the army will not pass any candidates who have not the physical ability to endure the exposure of pass and the physical ability to endure the exposure of the endure the exposure of the endure physical ability to endure the exposure of service; who have any deformity of body, or whose moral habits are bad. The restriction in case of officers for the Veteran Reserve Corps is modified by the terms of the act admitting such as "have been wounded in the line of their duty, while serving in the army of the United States in the late war, and who may yet be competent for garrison or other duty to which that corps has heretofore been assigned."

Second—Candidates must, under the law, "have served two years during the wae, and have been distinguished for capacity and good conduct in the field." Third—The examination as to mental qualifications will be confined to a fair knowledge of arithmetic, reading, writing and spelling, and such other neneral intelli-gence and capacity as will insure reasonable efficiency as a commissioned officer.

Fourth—Any candidates who up to this date may have been rejected by a board are bereby permitted to present themselves for a second examination according to these regulations

Extra Session of the Mississippi Legisla-ture. NEW OBLEANS, Oct. 16.—The Mississippi Legislature met yesterday, in extra session. The Governor in his message said, that the necessities of the State constrained him to call them together, not a special emergency, but a general exigency, resulting from the altered and deranged condition of our Federal relations and domestic affairs. He states the removal of the negro troops from the State and the transfer of the Freedmen's Bureau to the officers of the regular army, are subjects of congratulation.

He deplores the State of the country, and ncloses the Constitutional Amendments but presumes a mere reading of it will insure its rejection. He recommends the admission of negro testimony in all Courts, and requests that provision be made for the education of the indigent children of Confederate soldiers, and for the relief of destitute and disabled State and Confederate. oldiers. The rest of the message is purely local.

Mexican Affairs—The Liberal Defeat not Oredited.

The news of the deteat of General Esco-bedo by Mejia, is not believed in Washing. ton. The last dates from the city of Mexico received are up to the 30th ult. Gen. Mejia wet then about starting from the city o Mexico to San Luis Potosi. It is utterly impossible, that in fifteen days he could have marched from the city of Mexico to Monterey, a distance of nearly eight hundred miles, could have captured Monterey, and the news of it been received at Mata moras.

There is no reason to doubt the authenticity of Eloin's letter to Maximilian, published in Monday's papers. The original of it, with other papers of minor importance but proving its authenticity, were received in Washington a few days ago, and shown to several members of the Diplomatic corps On the 10th instant, they were filed at the State Department, and are now there.
