

CITY BULLETIN.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—A council of the Congregational Church was held yesterday afternoon at last evening in the First Congregational Church.

Corresponding Members of Council.—Rev. Mr. Goodell, D. D., Rev. H. B. Swift, Rev. John G. Wilson, Rev. William T. Ewa, Rev. John Charlton, Rev. W. G. Cox, Rev. Mr. Moore, Pittsburgh, and James Smith, Esq.

The following delegates responded to the call:—First Church, Philadelphia.—Charles McClinton, C. F. Miller and John Havestick, Second Church, Philadelphia.—Rev. George Smiley, D. D., pastor, and S. H. Davis, delegate.

Central Church, Philadelphia.—Rev. Edward Hayes, pastor, Burdett Hart and J. Edmonds, delegates.

Plymouth Church, Philadelphia.—G. L. Hart and F. C. Burpee, delegates.

Plymouth Church, Canterbury, Delaware.—Rev. Mr. Harvey, pastor, and J. Savage, delegate.

St. John's Church, Landis, N. J.—Rev. C. B. Dye, pastor.

After the credentials were presented, Rev. G. W. Smiley, D. D., was chosen Moderator and Rev. C. B. Dye, Secretary.

Prayer was offered up by Rev. Burdett Hart.

The call for the Council was then read, and on motion it was proceeded to the examination of the pastor-elect.

Rev. Dr. Fairley then gave a succinct statement of his life's history. He had been brought up in a poor family, and when about sixteen years of age, he came to himself with the Independent Church in Armagh, Ireland, where he first commenced studying for the ministry; he had studied in the Congregational College in Dublin, but it was closed at the end of the first session after he had entered it.

His first pastorage was at Hexham, in the north of England, where he labored with great success. Upon being asked why he came to this country, he said he had three reasons: first, political; second, religious; and third, a family reason.

After a very thorough and searching examination as to the doctrines and principles of Congregationalism, the audience were requested to retire, and the Council sat with closed doors to deliberate upon the acceptance or rejection of the pastor-elect.

At the evening session the clerk read the minutes of the Council expressing their unanimous satisfaction of the examination which the pastor elect had undergone. The exercises were then continued as follows:—Introductory services by the reading of the 4th chapter of Hebrews by Rev. C. B. Dye. Sermon by the Rev. G. W. Cox.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Fairley, late of Constantinople. The right hand of fellowship given by Rev. Edward Hayes.

Charge to the pastor by the Rev. Dr. Smiley. The address to the people by the Rev. John G. Wilson, the pastor of the Independent Christian Church, of this city.

Invocation by Rev. Samuel Fairley, the newly installed pastor of the church, after which the vast assemblage slowly dispersed.

MATCH BETWEEN THE GERMANTOWN AND ST. GEORGE CRICKET CLUBS.—The long expected opening match between the St. George, of New York, and Germantown Clubs, was finished yesterday, resulting in a victory for the Germantown, by four wickets.

The Germantown team was a very exciting one, and great interest was manifested throughout by the most brilliant and appreciative audience. General Meade in the name of the Germantown expressing his pleasure in seeing so many of his old companions in arms, and speaking in the highest terms of the much lamented Captain Walter Nowell, whom he had known as an officer, and who was the most distinguished of the old Germantown Club.

The points were received by Mr. Alex. W. Wister, who in a few appropriate remarks, the flag was then raised by the Germantown band, playing the "Star Spangled Banner" and "The Star Spangled Banner," the whole scene being a most picturesque one.

The following was the score of the game:—FIRST INNINGS. GERMANTOWN, 10. St. George, 6. Second Innings. GERMANTOWN, 10. St. George, 6.

INTERNAL REVENUE RETURNS.—PLACES OF AMUSEMENT.—The following are the returns for the different places of amusement in Philadelphia for the quarter ending September 30, 1886.

Walnut Street Theatre—July, $5,771; August, $9,193; September, $10,722. Total, $25,686.

New Chestnut Street Theatre—July, $1,884; August, $7,161; September, $7,507. Total, $16,552.

New Arch Street Theatre—July, closed; August, $1,028; September, $9,282. Total for two months, $10,310.

Carreras & Dixey's—July, closed; August, $4,845; September, $7,854. Total for two months, $12,699.

The New American Theatre being closed during the greater part of the summer, the return for the proceeding month of July, the receipts of the establishment since January last: Walnut, $123,660; Arch, $79,181; Chestnut, $93,702; American, $20,982; Carreras & Dixey, $56,878.

The Pupils of Girard College will attend the Matinee exhibition of the Lincoln Memorial Tableaux, on Saturday afternoon, at the invitation of the proprietor.

ALLEGED HORSE THIEF.—Charles Davis had a hearing before Alderman Beiler, yesterday afternoon, upon the charge of the larceny of a wagon and a set of harness, said to belong to Mr. George Souder, of Chester county. It seems that the wagon and harness were offered for sale at a very low figure, which excited suspicion, and led to the arrest of the prisoner. Davis was bound over for a further hearing.

A JUST TRIBUTE.—Col. John K. Murphy, of the 29th Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, yesterday received from the War Department at Washington, a commission as Brevet Brigadier-General, taking date March 13th, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services during the war." Col. Murphy was a brave soldier and is one of the most estimable citizens.

ANOTHER RIOTER.—James Cardell was arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Beiler upon the charge of having been concerned in the election row at Twentieth and Catharine streets, and the assault upon Sergeant Walsh and Officer Orr. He was held for a further hearing.

THE QUEBEC FIRE.—Another person died last night in the hospital, from injuries received in the late terrible fire. Bread and provisions are being regularly distributed among the sufferers by the Catholic priests and Sisters of Charity, who are working night and day. A theatrical performance was given last night in aid of those who have lost everything they possessed by the fire.

Uniform for the Navy.—The Navy Department will soon issue an order with regard to the navy uniform, which is to be restored as it was before the late rebellion, with improvements, including a more artistic arrangement of the ornaments of the shoulder straps. During the war officers of the navy wore what is called service uniform, but the full dress is to be resumed.

THE STEAM DRUM OF THE STEAMER MAJOR REYBOLD exploded yesterday while she was lying at the wharf at New Castle, Delaware. No lives were lost, but a few persons were slightly injured. The boat was towed to Wilmington for repairs.

COMMODORE VAN BRUNT has purchased St. John's Park, New York, for $1,000,000, whereon he will erect a depot for the Hudson River Railroad.
