He was informed that Mr. Welsh was not there and got into an argument with not there and got into an argument with the bartender. Words ran high when Mr. Miller, the other proprietor of the house, came down stairs and undertook to put Lynch out. As the latter got to the door Lynch out. COAL AT RETAIL AT PORT RICHMOND PRICES—at the Shipping Wharf, foot of Laurel street, Kensington. Gross ton (2,240 lbs.) always delivered, saless otherwise ordered, J. K. & W. TOMLINSON, The Humors of the Prussian Campaign

A German journal says that a Bavarian soldier, on being asked why the army wore cocks' feathers in their caps, replied that, as the Prussians have eaten up all the cocks and hens in the country the Bavarian troops wear the feathers to show that nothing else was left.

A Vienna correspondent tells an amusing story of a Prussian professor and a Prussian doctor who had to serve as privates in a regiment, and who, not being very bellicose, sought the humble position of cattle-drivers to the regiment. When the cattle took refuge in a park the drivers sent in their cards at the castle and were received with proper consideration. Whereupon the Pall Mall Gazette says: "Was it not in a play of Ambrose Phillip's that Pyrrhus drove cattle, and said he was goaded on by love? Mil-ton, too, in 'Lycidas,' makes his friend and himself feed their flocks and drive a-field in the early morning. The professor will be able to lecture on these political metaphors from his own practical experience, and may, perhaps, write a commentary on the 'Georgics,' which will excel all previous efforts of German scholarship, as he need no longer construct oxen from his inner consciousness."

The head of the Guelphs, says a London journal, emerges from the Bis-marckian deluge the owner of some three millions sterling in securities, not to mention other valuables, comprising £50,000 in English banknotes. And the inventory of the ex-Elector of Hesse-Cassel's saved property has just been given to the public—considerably exceeding, in proportion to the wealth of the two sovereignties, the modest purse of his Hanoverian brother.

Dog Hospital.-A correspondent of the London Field gives an account of M. Santourch's canine hospital in the Rue de Clichy, in Paris. Large airy kennels are constructed round its yards for the larger dogs, and the toy-dog department is a perfect marvel of ventilation and cleanliness. Its payement is of white and black marble its walls are painted white and varnished its walls are painted white and varnished; and around it twenty-two little kennels, made of oak, with bright copper fastenings, are snugly disposed for the reception of sick pets. At one end of it are artistic decorations, in which woods, rivers and mountains are depicted, recalling to the fourfooted invalids who roam about the place the scenery of their earlier and healthier days. The customers are sent properties. days. The quadrupeds bear such names as Adelina Patti, Auber, the Prince de Wagram, and Alexander Dumas.

NEWBERN, N. C. TRIUMPH OF MARVIN'SSAFE.

Newbern, N. C., Sept. 24, 1868.

WILLIAM H. OLIVER, ESq., agent for Marvin & Co.:

Dear Sir:—At the late terrible fire on Middle streat, which destroyed our Banking House, we had two of your safes. One of them was removed, and we were removing the other, when we were directed to leave the office, as an adjoining binding was about being blown up. The entire row of buildings was consumed, but on opening the Safe we had the satisfaction of inding everything inside perfect.

We can cheerfully recommend them as being perfectly fireproof, as we have examined two others of your make which were in the same fire both of which preserved the books and papers that were in them.

Yours respectfully,

DISOSWAY, GUION & Oo.,

Bankers.

My building, sluusted on Middle street, was consumed in the late terrible confagration.

I am pleased to say, on opening the safe, every book and paper was found to be in perfect order.

A more intense fire could scarcely be conceived of.

Yours truly,

JOHN DILWORTH & CO.

DEAE SIR:—One of your safes stood a most severe trial in my store at the late fire on Middle street.

My Store was situated in a row of large wooden buildings, the burning of which made a most intense heat. The trial was severe, but the safe came out victorious. On opening it, every book and paper was found in a perfect state of preservation.

Very respectivily,

LEAER.
