Interesting from New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 22.—[Special to the Tribune.]—Governor Wells returned to this city last Saturday evening. The military authorities the investigation of the statement, made to them in writing, that the rebels of this city contemplate a rising, and massacring of Union citizens on the 1st of November, All Saints' Day. Large supplies of arms, with some brass cannon, are known to have been recently imported.

A portion of the 17th U. S. Infantry, from Newport, Ky., and the 6th U. S. C. I. have lately arrived. They are encamped with a large number of other troops at Greenwell, a distance of about 5 miles from the city.

Capt. Stone, in command of the gunboat squadron, has deemed it expedient to move his command to a position which will insure him the protection of the U. S. troops. The gunboats are not in commission, and are without armament.

The Pennsylvania Election.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—In explanation for the delay in publishing the official returns of the State, at the late election, it is due to the Secretary of the Commonwealth to explain that several counties have not made their returns, because the Return Judges thereof have adjourned over to the 23rd inst., the period fixed for receiving the returns of the vote in the county. Such Return Judges have been instructed by the proper officers here, that they can make a return of the home vote before they receive the soldier's vote, which latter return can be made as is provided by law, separately and afterwards.

There are hundreds if not thousands of soldiers, citizens of Pennsylvania still in the military service of the Government, whose votes many state authorities expect to close results in localities, and affect the decision of many wagers on the election involving large sums of money.
