CETY BULLETIN.

THE NEW HORTICULTURAL AND MUSIC THE NEW HORTICULTURAL AND MUSIC HALL, now in course of erection on Broad street, next to the Academy of Music, will cover the entire lot of 75x200 feet, and having a 30 foot street on the south, and 15 feet of open space on the north, for purposes of light and ventilation. The ground-floor will comprise a well-lighted room on Broad street of 26x70 feet, with 12 foot ceilings, and a banqueting-room in the rear, of 70x112 feet, capable of seating about 1,000 persons, and both well-lighted and ventilated.

At the west end there will be a handsome rehearsal room of 25x70 feet, with 16 foot ceiling, and with a private entrance from Westmoreland street, and a private stairway leading up to the stage and to the main floor above. The stage will be $1x71 feet, and elevated 5 feet above the main floor, and will accommodate about 200 chorus singers, are better for orchestra, &c. The main hall will be gained from the Broad street front by an easy rise of 6 feet, opening into a vestibule of 20x42 feet, with ticket office and dressing room of 17x29 on both sides for ladies and gentle-

The auditorium will be 71 by 120 feet, and will contain comfortable and numbered seats for 1,500 persons. A narrow gallery, rest-ing on brackets, will extend from the level of the Foyer around three sides of the Hall, with stairways descending to the main floor at the West end. This will form a delightful promenade during the Horticultural Exhibition, Balls, &c., and will be similar to the one in the upper saloon of the old Chinese Museum. Seats will also be arranged for about 500 persons. The Stage will be flanked with ornamental columns and processing where and the continuous and processing the stage of the continuous and the continuous and the continuous and the continuous and the continuous area of the continuous and the continuous and the continuous area of the continuous and the continuous area of the continuous and the continuous areas are continuous areas are continuous areas are continuous areas are fianked with ornamental columns and pro-scenium boxes, and the opening for the cur-tain will be 42 feet. The ceiling of the main Hall will be 50 feet high, and great attention has been paid to its construction with a view to producing the best musical effects. The entire interior will be finished with a view to having the walls frescoed.

The front on Broad street will be of hand-somely cut stone, sixty feet high by seventyfive feet wide, with projecting portice and columns of brown stone: the dressing of the windows to be of the same material, and the main body of the front to be of pearl grey stone forming an agreeable contrast and relieving the sombre appearance of the brown stone. As the entire Hall will probably contain about three thousand persons the greatest attention has been paid to the strength of the building, and to means of heating and ventilation and especially to means of exit, for which there will be two doorways on Westmoreland street and two on the north side, besides the large doorways on Broad street, and all the doors will be made to open outwards.

Great credit is due to the architects,
Messrs. Sloan & Hutton, for the admirable manner in which these details have been manner in which these details have been attended to, and it is confidently believed that this Hall will not be surpassed in this country for the comfort of visitors and for the convenience of holding large displays, concerts, balls or public meetings. Numerous applications have already been made to rent it at liberal rates, and it will no doubt pay the shareholders a fair interest on their investments. It is hoped that our public-spirited citizens will promptly subscribe for the few shares remaining unsold. Ground plan and elevations may be seen at the office of the Treasurer, Mr. H. A. Dreer, 714 Chestnut street. 714 Chestnut street.

THE GAS INVESTIGATION.—The special committee of Select Council to investigate the condition of the gas works held a meeting last night, and had before them as witnesses, Thomas R. Brown, Robert S. Garrison and Wm. McManus. Mr. Benjamin L. Riley, cashier of the works, submitted a letter, in which he declined to testify on the ground that he did not acknowledge the right of the committee to testily on the ground that he did not acknowledge the right of the committee to subpœna him and put him under oath upon any subject whatever, though he was willing to testify on a former occasion, provided there was no subpœna issued. Col. Page, however, issued the subpœna, contrary to his promise not to do so. Mr. Riley further said: "I shall answer such questions as may be put to me, consistent with the investigation your committee are making. I am able to do to the best of my knowledge; and after such answers are made, if your committee desire it, I will become qualified to the truthfulness of them before any alderman of the city." Col. Page refused, under these circumstances, to receive the testimony of Mr. Riley.

John Tracey and John Morris, whose ar-rest yesterday in Ashburton street by the Schuylkill river police was noticed yester-day, had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Hibler. It was in evidence that the still was not far from where the arrest was made, and that one of the defendants ac-knowledged being the owner of the still, but insisted that the liquor was for his own use. The accused were held to answer at court.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Before Ald. Beitler yes terday Joseph Carty, John D. Heston, and George Steele were charged with the larceny of a gold watch from the store of Edwin Haas, No. 420 N. Eighth street. Two men entered the store on Saturday night and priced a watch. While looking at the timepiece Heston threw snuff into the eyes of Mr. Haas, and then ran off with the watch. Carty afterwards nawned the watch. The Carty afterwards pawned the watch. The accused were each held in $1,500 bail for AIDING PRISONERS TO ESCAPE, James AIDING PRISONERS TO ESCAPE.—James Newman was before Ald. Beitler yesterday, upon the charge of aiding Lechler, Donnelly and Ellison to escape from the prison van on Friday last, by sawing a hole through the bottom. The evidence showed that Newman was about the door of the cell on Friday, and that he was seen by a young woman to hand a saw into the cell to Lechler. He was held in $2,500 ball to answer at Court.

BARN BURNED,-About half-past two o'clock yesterday afternoon, the barn be-longing to Martin Ulrick, on the Nicetown lane, west of the Township Line road, was set on fire by sparks from a locomotive on the Reading railroad. The barn with its contents was entirely destroyed. Loss $3,000; no insurance.

CHEAN AND THE CHAIN TO A CONTROL OF THE CONTROL OF

A Public Necessity,—The rapidly in-creasing population and number of dwell-ing houses in Camden have been such for a ing houses in Camden have been such for a few years past that, it is time some decided steps were taken towards securing a proper and eligible lot of ground for a public square. In the course of a few more years, every place which would now make a fine square within the limits of the city will have been divided into building lots and built upon, so that a poor chance will be afforded for the city council in the future, should the members of that, body feel at any time so disposed, to provide the city with so desirable an improvement. Now, too, the cost would be comparatively small, and now is the time to consummate an arrangement for purchasing such a an arrangement for purchasing such a square. Camden needs such a park, for it square. Camden needs such a park, for it would conduce to the sanitary condition of the people, by giving them a place where they could take their wives and children, and enjoy a few hours recreation away from the busy cares and tumults of toil, and where they would be unmolested. The City Fathers should take this matter into consideration, and act upon it in such a manner as may redound to the best interests of the inhabitants.

NEEDS REMODELING.—If ever there was NEEDS KEMODELING.—If ever there was a county jail that needed a thorough and complete remodeling and finish, it is the Camden county jail. It was a piece of botchwork from the first, the male and female departments being in such close proximity that those unfortunate ones who get there have to submit to all kinds of indecent language, and visitors are shocked by the coarse vulcarity of the investes talking back guage, and visitors are shocked by the coarse vulgarity of the inmates talking back and forth. The Board of Freeholders have been asked many times to have it changed for the better, but as most of the members from the county were opposed to the Court House and jail being built in Camden, they do not appear much disposed to make any except absolutely imperative alterations. But this jail is nauseous and unhealthy, despite the exertions of Sheriff Sharpe and his assistants to keep it clean, and the alterations alluded to ought to be made at the tions alluded to ought to be made at the earliest moment.

THE POLICE FORCE. — During the past two months a remarkable quietness has existed in Camden, no disturbances or breach of the peace of any serious moment having occurred, and in consequence few arrests have been made. The city, too, has enjoyed an immunity from the usual number of cases of burglary and other unlawful acts. Generally at this season house-robbing and thieving are indulged in to an extraordinary extent, and some cases are of a bold and venturesome character. The present quiet condition, therefore, may The present quiet condition, therefore, may be justly attributed to the persevering watchfulness of the police force.

AGAIN AT WORK.—The work of incen-diarism has again commenced. Early on Tuesday morning the School-house at the corner of Fourth and Mount Vernon streets, Camden, was set on fire and burned to the ground. Three men named Alonzo Boggs, John Gallagher and William Sweeney, were arrested, charged with the crime, and committed by Mayor Budd to answer.

THE CHOLERA.—While this dreaded disease appears to be decreasing in virulence and fatality elsewhere, in Camden it has entirely disappeared. It has not been attended with many fatal results in that city, and it is owing to the care, caution and cleanliness of the people that its career has been so moderate. has been so moderate.

In Limbo.—A man giving his name as William Derring, and hailing from New York, was committed to the county jail yesterday, for passing counterfeit money. He had succeeded in passing a number of bills before he was taken into custody.
