THE RELIEF OF COLORED FREEDMEN.

Last evening a meeting of the Association of Friends of Philadelphia and vicinity, for the relief of colored freedmen, was held at the Arch Street Meeting House, Feurth and Arch. The meeting was called by the Executive Board; for the purpose of laying before the association the present condition of the society, and to devise means to continue the work. Samuel R. Shipley the charman of the Board, made a statement to the effect that the funds were exhausted, while considerable labor remained to be done in advocating and assisting the freedmen in the South. During the coming winter much suffering is anticipated, owing to the failure of crops and, the neglect to pay the freedmen for the labor already done. In addition to the educational interests under the care of the Association, food and clothing will be needed. Other members of the Association addressed the meeting, arging contributions to replenish the hers of the Association addressed, the meeting, arging contributions to replenish the treasury and enable the Society to continue operations. Independent of these considerations the Society has engaged thirty-six teachers for the freedmen, and has accepted from the Government a number of buildings, which have been fitted up for school purposes. At least fifteen thousand dollars will be needed to carry out the work now hand for the next eight months. It was will be needed to carry out the work now on hand for the next eight months. It was suggested that the Society had peculiar opportunities for assisting the colored men, as the motives of the Friends were recognized and appreciated by the people of the South, and hence the same hostility exhibited towards others, was not shown to this Association. It was decided to appoint a committee to prepare an address to the mem-bers of the Society within the yearly meeting, and the former committee on subscrip-tions was requested to assist the Executive Board in reaching the members of the As-

SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY .- The fifty-first anniversary of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church, at Broad and Arch streets, was celebrated last evening. Arch streets, was celebrated last evening. The church edifice was crowded with the friends of the institution, and the pulpit was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. The exercises commenced by a chant, entitled "The Lord is in His Holy Temple," after which Rev. James F. Cooper invoked the blessing of the Almighty on the proceedings of the evening. The hymn entitled "Opening Day" was beautifully sung by the scholars, after which prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. G. D. Boardman, D. D. Hymns 2nd recitations by the scholars then followed, and the presentation of the offerings took and the presentation of the offerings took and the presentation of the offerings took place. The annual report of the Sunday School was read. It showed that in the main school there are 300 scholars, infant department 80, and the Mission School 150, making a total of 510 scholars. These are superintended and instructed by 62 teachers and officers. The Treestrey's water the standard of and officers. The funeral of Captain Henry Tucker, 6th U.S. Cavalry, took place yesterday aftermoon, from the residence of his father, John Tucker, Esq., on Walnut street, above Tenth, Captain Tucker was a member of the First City Troop, and served in that body during the three months' campaign. He subsequently joined the army for the war. While serving under General McClellan he was selzed with swamp fever, from which he never fully recovered. He subsequently rose to the rank of captain in the 6th United States cavalry, and served in the army in Texas. While on his way home he died, at Cincinnati, Ohio, a few days since. The First City Troop attended his funeral, and the flag at their headquarters, on Twentieth street, above Chestnut, was displayed at half-mast in respect to his memory. He was a brave soldier, and much beloved by all who knew him. FUNERAL OF A MILITARY OFFICER.-

New Jersey Matters.

The Need of Success.—The approaching election which is to take place in New Jersey on the sixth proximo is one of more significant importance than for many years. The issues at stake are greater and of far more consequence. They involve principles which strike at the future life, prosperity and perpetuity of our nation—principles which are big with vitality, and are calculated to affect for good or evil the people at large. Fully aware of these facts—fully appreciating the necessity of the triumph of Republican principles, and the dreadful consequences which must result from the dominance of the dogmas advocated by the Copperheads and Johnsonites, the Union Republicans of the First Congressional District have entered upon the work of the campaign with a zeal and energy which cannot fail of success. They are determined to elect every member of the State Legislature from Cape May to Trenton, and make contest for all the local offices. Their ticket, headed with the popular name of Judge William New Jersey Matters.

with the popular name of Judge William Moore for Congress, is a strong one in every essential feature. The strongest and most available men have been selected—men who cannot be subsidized by any of Andrew Johnson's lackeys, authorized to dispense Johnson's lackeys, authorized to dispense favors and patronage—but who will use all their influence and power against the proposed policy which threatens the country with so much danger, if not drenching it again with fraternal blood. Too many families have felt the mournful effects of the war, the originators of which Mr. Johnson's policy is designed to defend and assist to submit to any indignity like this. assist, to submit to any indignity like this. It is gratifying, therefore, to feel assured, as the Union party do, that there is a possibility, in fact a probability that their candidates for Congress in each district will be elected. Such a work is imperatively demanded, and the true men are laboring with a will to accomplish such a desirable SHIP BUILDING.—Ship building at Cooper's Point, Camden, is now carried on to a very large extent. Some of the best of coasting vessels have been built at the yards there, and what is of peculiar gratification to the owners and builders, they have been remarkably successful, and have weathered bravely many hard and dangerous storms. At the present time several new schooners are in course of construction, and, when finished, will be first-class crafts.

NOMINATED .- On Wednesday last the Attominately.—On Weinesday last the Atlantic County Union Republican Convention was held at Egg Harbor city, for the purpose of making their county ticket. The present incumbent, Hon. Mr. Woelsiffer, who so ably and satisfactorily represented the county in the last Legislature, was remominated. This was a compliment to a good and worthy gentleman. good and worthy gentleman,

CITY ELECTION.—Atlantic City holds its municipal election at the same time the State election takes place. On Saturday evening the Republicans will hold their City Convention to nominate a candidate for Mayor, and other local offices. The Democrats have nominated Mr. John Harrold for the position of Mayor.
