THE FENIAN EXCITEMENT.

Meetings at Buffalo and Cincinnati.

REPORTS FROM CANADA.

The Fenians-Meeting at Buffalo. BUFFALO, October 30th.—In spite of the heavy rain last night, there was another big meeting at the old Court-house. The Fenian Senator, Mr. Morrison, and others spoke, creating great enthusiasm among the audience. The Irish military organizations are recruiting men, and money is being collected. Even the women are said to be at work, and the war spirit is rampant.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30 .- The Fenians of this city assembled in large numbers, at the armory, last evening, and great excitement was manifested over the news from Toronto and Washington. Many of those who participated in the Buffalo expedition, were present. Head Centre Fitzgerald mustered into the service four full companies of menand arrangements were made for uniforming and arming as many as may be mustered TORONTO, C. W., Oct. 29 [Special to the Tribune].—The despatch of Mr. Seward to the British Minister regarding the condemned Fenian prisoners causes some excitement and much indignation here. The feeling is very general throughout the Province that the death-penalty should be carried out, at least as far as the ringleaders are concerned. Among the volunteers this feeling is very strong, and numbers threaten that, unless the Government allows the law to take its course, they will resign their command.

Lynch is reported to be in no way discomposed since his trial. He sleeps well and eats heartily, and does not at all seem to realize his position. Yesterday, the other three Fenian prisoners were arraigned. Their trials are to take place shortly. The prisoners all speak well of their treatment by the Canadian officials, but bitterly denounce their friends in the United States for leaving them without funds and otherwise unprovided.

The Assizes at Cornwall opened to-day. The Hon. Chief Justice Draper made a long and eloquent address to the Grand Jury, who proceeded to consider the bills against the Fenian prisoners at present in jail there. They are all Canadians who were taken along with Mike Murphy.

OTTAWA, Oct. 29.—The news of the threats of vengeance by the Fenians, should Lynch and his companions be hanged, is creating great excitement here. The hotels are crowded, and groups are to be seen at the street corners reading the extras in the rain. The volunteers at Ridgeway demand the death of the raiders; but others believe, from Mr. Seward's demand upon the British Minister, that their execution would culminate in war with the United States, and therefore oppose it.

The only two Ministers here to-day are besieged with anxious questions; but they will know nothing till the return of the Attorney General, who is at Hamilton.

[See Second and Last pages for additional Locals.] Assaulting A Policeman.—Several men congregated at the corner of Second and Catharine streets last evening, and behaved in a disorderly manner. Officer Honsin a disorderly manner. Officer Hons-worth ordered them away. Matthew Love, one of the party, became very defiant, and had quite a fight with the officer before he was secured. Alderman Clouds held Love $1,000 bail to answer for assault and

SUICIDE.—A very melancholy case of suicide was brought to the notice of Coroner Gover, of New York, yesterday afternoon. It appears that for some time past Emile Moth, a native of Denmark, sixty years age, has occupied apartments in the house No. 19 Allen street, where he also carried on the business of manufacturing lamp chimney cleaners. At the breaking out of the rebellion Mr. Moth resided in New Orleans, and being pressed into the rebel army, served during the war. He subsequently arrived in this city and started in business, but his domestic relations were such as to make domestic relations were such as to make him unhappy in the extreme; and on more than one occasion he had threatened and attempted to end a miserable existence. On Sunday evening Mr. Moth purchased a quantity of charcoal and placed it in an iron not in his room. Letter triplets described pot in his room. Late at night he closed the door and windows of his bedroom as tightly as possible, after which he deliberately set fire to the charcoal and calmly reclining on his bed inhaled the fumes from the gas until reduced to insensibility. Yesterday morning he was found dead by an officer of the

RAYMOND ON THE SOUTH.—Speaking of the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment by the South, and of the unwillingness of the Southerners to accept it, to-day's New York Times says: "We do not propose to press our views of this matter, with undue warmth or pertinacity, upon their attention. As we have already said, it is eminently one for their own decision. for their own decision. They have the right to act as they please about it—to accept or reject our advice, and to denounce and vilify all at the North who give them counsel more or less unpalatable, to their hearts' content. If they can find in so doing either id or consolation in their troubles we shall be very glad of it, for certainly they need both. We have nothing to gain by trying to aid them—nothing but distrust and alien-ation at the North, and evidently little be-yond calumny and detraction at the South."

Finance and Business-Oct. 30, 1866. There is scarcely any change to notice in mercantile or financial circles. Trade drags its slow length along in a most unsatisfactory manner; and, in many departments, in a most unsatisfactory way. Government Loans were very steady. The Coupon Sixes, '21, sold at 113½. The old Five-Twenties closed at 114½ bid; the '64s at 110%; the '65s at 110%; the policy at 108%; the Ten-Forties at 100, and the Seven-Thirties at 106@106% State and City Loans were unchanged. Beading Rall-road was very quiet at 58@58%. Catawissa Rallroad Preferred was excited. It opened at 28@23%, and fell to 27%, but afterwards rallied to 27%. Pennsylvania Railroad sold at 58; Northern Central Railroad at 49%. and Lehigh Valley Railroad at 67. Camden and Ambo Railroad closed at 129 bid, and Philadelphia and Eri Railroad at 32%. Canal stocks were inactive. 36% was bid for Schuylkill Navigation Preferred; 27% for the Common stock 123 for Morris Canal Preferred and 15 for Susquehanna. Bank shares were held firmly. Oil stocks were not inquired after. Heston ville Passenger Railway was unsettled, and sold down to 14—a decline of 1½.

From Canada HAMILTON, C. W., Oct. 30.-A grand dinner was given to the English Confederation delegates last night. Speeches were made by the Hon. J. A. McDonald, Mr. McDougall and others, all in the interest of the Confederation. The speeches were remarkable for the absence of any allusion to the Fenians and to Secretary Seward's letter.

The Union Pacific Railroad Excursion. (Special Despatch to the Bulletin.) ALLIANCE, Ohio, Oct. 30.—The Excursionists who are about to take a run along the Union Pacific Railroad have arrived here: They had a very pleasant run from Philadelphia to Altoona.

Below Altoona a freight train met with an accident, which delayed the party five hours. The excursionists, however, started on their way rejoicing, and so far have had good time. At Pittsburgh the party was joined by Capt. John McCoull, Elias D. Kennedy and Josiah Coply, of the Pittsburgh Gazette. The trip so far, has been exceedingly pleasant.

OYEE AND TEEMINER—Judges Allison and Ludlow.

—Yesterday afternoon James Monaghan, charged with the murder of James T. Moore, on the 15th of August, 1865, was arraigned for trial. After eight jurors were obtained the panel was exhausted and a special venire was issued returnable this morning. The jury was then selected and the trial proceeded.

The death of Mr. Moore resulted from a fight at Eleventh and Sansom streets on the night of a delegue election.

Rieventh and Sansom streets on the night of a delegate election.

Dr. Attes testified that he attended Mr. Moore; first visited him on the 15th and founds wound in the front part of the abdomen; there was also w wound in the stock over the region of the right kidney. Moore died on the 18th; witness informed Moore that he could not live, but he made no declaration as to the manner in which he received the injuries.

Dr. Shapleigh testified to the post mortem examination and inding two wounds, one in the back and one in the abdomen. The deceased came to his death from hemorrhage in consequence of the wound in the abdomen.

hemorrhage in consequences to the occurrences at domen.

James McLaughlin testified to the occurrences at Eleventh and Sansom streets; a meeting of delegates was being held, and he saw Moore present as a dele-gate; a row occurred, but the witness didn't see Moore receive his wounds, inasmuch as witness was attacked the time helieve Monaghan was there, but could receive his wounds, insumen as witness was attacked at the time; believe Monaghan was there, but could not swear positively that he is the may; Moore was stabled about the same time the witness was attacked; didn't see any one with a knile.

Alderman McMullen testified that __tsaw Moore after he was stabled; saw him at his house; went there to take his dying derications; nothing was said upon the subject of his dying; the night before his death saw him, and he could not speak to witness; that was the first the witness thought he was going to die, and then it was too late to examine him.

Jane Flaherty testified that she was the wife of Moore, the deceased; he was sensible until within five minutes of his death; he was conscious that he was dying; he said he was dying; the clergyman visited him at half-past seven and he died about eighte colock; the clergyman bade him good-bye, and told him he formed the last rites of he church. Moore said nothing that morning about the manner in which he had received his wounds; he did before that; he spoke about to Thursday and Friday.

The case is still on trial.
