

CITY BULLETIN.

BASE BALL MATCH. A well-contested and interesting game took place yesterday afternoon between the Athletic and Keystone clubs, on the grounds of the Keystone, at Eleventh and Wharton streets. The attendance was large, and pretty fair order was preserved, although at times the crowd pressed in upon the field allotted to the players, and interfered somewhat with the play. The full nine of the Keystone were present, while on the Athletic side Hayhurst was substituted for Pike, necessitating a change in the fielding positions. The game resulted in favor of the Athletic, by the following score:

ALL HALLOW EVE. To-night we have the annual celebration of All Hallow Eve, at this present writing the weather is as propitious as the quaintest lore of old traditions could desire. The morning opened with real bracing autumn air, and the sunshine was bright and cheerful, and to their daily labors with elastic step, and the whole world looked full of life and energy. As the day progressed the promise of the early morn'g was not disappointed, evening will doubtless be one during which merriment will joyously reign. It is to be hoped that all our readers, young and old, will have plenty of nuts, apples and apples to eat, and that every home into which our paper comes will be a scene of domestic comfort and pleasant recreation.

ELECTION. The following officers were elected by the members of the Hibernia Fire Engine Tug Company last evening. They will serve for one year. President, Francis H. Finney; Secretary, Edward F. Casey; Treasurer, Joseph J. Schofield; Captain, Andrew Casey; First Lieutenant, Adam Erford; Second Lieutenant, Henry O'Neill; First Sergeant, Sylvester Byrne; Second Sergeant, George Harrison; Third Sergeant, James Dady; Fourth Sergeant, Archibald McCann; Fifth Sergeant, James A. Sawyer. The company will parade on Thursday, November 29th, and will proceed to Fort Washington for target practice.

OBITUARY. George Smith, a well-known and highly respectable citizen, died on Monday last, in the 81st year of his age. He was one of the oldest members of the Masonic Order in this city, was connected with the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and for very many years was treasurer of the Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, and of Eastern Star Chapter, No. 188. He also occupied many other positions of honor and trust. In the bestowment of charities to unfortunate brothers, or the families of the deceased, he was remarkable for the generosity of his disposition and views. By the Masonic Brotherhood his loss will be severely felt and greatly deplored.

FALL OF A SCAFFOLD. Yesterday afternoon, at two o'clock, the scaffolding attached to a building at Broad street and Columbia avenue gave way, precipitating several workmen to the ground. One man named Michael McCann, 5th Street, was severely injured and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. Another man named Andrew Allen was hurt about the head, and was taken to his residence, 3rd and Walnut streets. A third man, James W. White, (colored) was injured in the thigh. He was taken to his residence.

FENIAN MEETING. A meeting of officers of the Fenian Circles of this city was held last evening, at which resolutions were adopted declaring the invasion of British territory by an oppressed people a legitimate act of war, and that the trial and sentence of Col. Lynch is a challenge to the Irishmen of America, and is accepted in the spirit intended.

FREE NIGHT SCHOOL. The free night school for young men, inaugurated last spring under the auspices of the Social Union, was re-opened last evening at the hall, No. 540 North 4th street. The teachers volunteer their services. The tuition is the kind that is most needed, and much good is done by the institution.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT. Yesterday afternoon, a horse attached to a wagon driven by a man named William Spear, became frightened at Callowhill and Twenty-third streets, and ran away, throwing Mr. Spear from the wagon and severely injuring him. He was removed to his residence, Thirty-fourth and Haverford streets, West Philadelphia.

THE TAX RATE FOR 1867. The various Departments of the city are now preparing their estimates and expenses for 1867, to be submitted to the Finance Committee, so as to enable the Committee to fix the rate of tax for 1867 at an early day. The rate, it is thought, will be about the same as that for the present year.

THE AMERICAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION supports among the friends three hundred teachers, who benefit these poor people in many ways. We ask our readers to give their attention to the appeal of its authorities, who are now in our city soliciting funds for its noble work.

REV. OVER. William Given, aged eighteen years, residing at Twenty-second and Arch streets, was admitted into the hospital yesterday with his leg badly crushed by being run over by a dray, at Germantown road and Norris street.

THE REV. DEWITT TALLAGE lectures at Musical Fund Hall, to-morrow evening, on "The Pleasures of House Hunting." See advertisement.

AN INDIAN CURIOSITY. Among the Oriental curiosities in the Loan Exhibition at Southampton, England, is an official dagger of a Hindoo Bard, the property of Mr. Fenian. The following curious inscription has been affixed to it by the poet "in Guzerat" a number of petty chiefs called Thakors, whose conduct was somewhat resembles that of the old Highland chieftains of Scotland, or did so a few years ago. Each chieftain had his family bard, who was also the family historian. These bards were called Bhas, Bharotes, Bhasars or Charans. No treaty or marriage settlement was complete unless countersigned by the bards of the respective families, whose signature was a rude representation of the knife, dagger, worn by them. These daggers were often heirlooms, and are by no means easy to get. This one belonged to the family of Bhat, or Charan, of Veshnar, a town about forty miles from Ahmedabad, in Guzerat, Presidency of Bombay.

INTERESTING TO TURKISH. An exchange paper says that the fastest time on record at all distances, is as follows: 1 mile pacing, Pocahontas, 2:17 1/2; 1 mile trotting, Dexter, 2:18; 3 miles trotting, Flora Temple, 4:50; 16 miles trotting, Dehman, 5:32; 16 miles trotting, Prince, 5:32; 20 miles trotting, Trustee, 5:59 1/2; 100 miles trotting, Quaker, 8:55.62; 100 miles, double, Burke, 10:17.22; 1 mile, running, Henry Peritt, 1:42; 4 miles, running, Lexington, 7:19 1/2.

New Jersey Matters. CAMDEN CITY ASSEMBLYMAN. The nomination, by the Union Republicans of Camden city, of Hon. G. W. N. Cassels, the able and courteous Superintendent of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, was a compliment well merited. His election by a large majority, as a member of Assembly from the First District, is conceded by all parties. His constituents recognize his unflinching devotion to the interests and honor of his district, and of the State, as evincing during the long session of the Legislature last winter, and during the recent extra session, and appreciate his unaltered reputation.

BURGLARY IN THE COUNTRY. Burglary operations in the country have recently been quite frequent, and some of them bold and successful. At Tuckerton, Burlington county, on Saturday night, some thieves effected an entrance into the store of Pharo & Ridgway by forcing open a back window. They robbed one safe of some $50, and blew open another with gunpowder. The explosion was so great that it alarmed the proprietors, and the burglars fled.

COPPERHEAD DEN. A large den of Copperheads, or rattlesnakes, was found near Mount Pleasant Station, on the Cape May Railroad, a few days since. Twenty-five snakes were killed, indicating the fate of the Copper-Headites in the First Congressional District on the 6th of November.

PARTIAL BREAK. A slight break occurred in the new culvert in Mickle street on Saturday, owing to a bed of quicksand, which gave much trouble to the workmen in building a foundation. The break will, however, be immediately repaired.

REPUBLICAN MEETING. The Republicans of Atlantic county have made arrangements for holding a large mass meeting, at Atlantic, on Saturday afternoon and evening next, at which a grand display will be made.

Epigram. Searching the other day among some old papers, I found the following MS. epigram of the celebrated Lord Erskine, which is curious and characteristic in itself, and interesting in proof of the amazing change and improvement which have been since effected upon the Port of Leith, and the facilities for entering and leaving it.

"On being detained nearly a week from want of water in Leith Harbour. For depth profound of e'rlowing far, I blessed the Edinburgh Bar, Whilst muttering curses thro' my teeth, I - the shallow Bar of Leith."

MONUMENT TO THE INDIAN "COMPLAINANT." A large concourse of people assembled at the burial ground of Gyanthia, on the 27th inst., to witness the interment of the "Complainant," in Warren, Pennsylvania, last week. The monument to him then dedicated is in a conspicuous part of the ground, having a base of sandstone one and a half feet high; the sub-base are of marble, together with the die and shaft, making eleven and a half feet of marble. The shaft is surmounted by a suitable cap. Upon the north side of the head his loss will be severely felt and greatly deplored.

"Gyantwahia, the Complainant. John Osall, alias Complainant, died at Complainant, February 18, A. D. 1836, aged about 100 years." Upon the west side is the following inscription: "Chief of the Seneca tribe, a principal warrior in the Revolutionary war, a principal Chief of the Six Nations, from the time of the Revolutionary war to the time of his death. Distinguished for his talent, courage, eloquence, sobriety, and love of his tribe and race, to whose welfare he devoted his life, his energies, and his means, during a long and eventful life."

Upon the south side is the following: "Erected by authority of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, by act passed March, A. D. 1836." Many of the Seneca tribe of Indians were present, and the several addresses delivered on the occasion were translated to them by an interpreter.

BYRON'S WRITING TABLE AND HIS COPIERS. The Manchester Examiner advertises for sale this week is an antique folding writing table, formerly the property of Lord Byron. It appears to have passed subsequently into the hands of the late Dr. Baillie, of Liverpool, a well-known collector of antiquities and "worshiper" of autographs and other relics, by whom the table is duly and formally authenticated. If it be true that the author's copyright interest in his published works lasts for forty-two years after his death, as stated by Mr. Anthony Trollope in his paper read the other day before the Social Science Congress in Manchester, then this year has been the expiration of the copyright of Lord Byron's works, as the poet died in April, 1824. It appears that in 1790 copyright was limited to 14 years from publication; in 1814 the term was extended to 28 years—and it was only in 1842 that it was extended to its present duration of 42 years from publication, or to the end of the author's life, if he should chance to outlive that period. The late Mary de Boissy, it may not be generally known, married about 15 years ago the Countess Guiccioli, Lord Byron's great friend.
