The Baltimore Police Commissioners'

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1—5 P. M.—The Police Commissioners are in session with their counsel and advisers. It is not known definitely what they will do, but it is believed they will take some such course as this:

Under the law which creates the Board, Under the law which creates the Board, they have the most ample powers. They can, in any emergency, increase their force without limit, and can call on the military if they deem it expedient. They can also summon the Sheriff, who, with his posse, is made subject to their orders. They have assumed, it is understood, the ground: first, that they are not critical efficiel mixery. that they are not guilty of official misconduct, and next under the following clause in the new constitution of the State, they maintain that as they are elected to office by the Legislature, the Governor has no power to remove them; that the clause below of the desired that the clause below of the control of the state of the clause below of the control of the con low quoted annuls and abrogates the provi-sion of the law under which the Governor acts, which was passed prior to the enact-ment of the new constitution.

The clause in the new constitution, refer-

ARTICLE 2. Section 17. The Governor may suspend, and may remove, for incompe-tency or misconduct, all civil officers who received appointments from the Executive for a time not exceeding two years.

It is claimed that as the Commissioners are elected by the Legislature, and not by the Governor, that therefore the Governor cannot remove them. On this ground the Commissioners will go into court, and in the meantime resist by lawful means, by arrest and otherwise, all parties who may assume or attempt to exercise any of their functions or the functions of a police officer.

If United States troops, they will protest to the commander that they are simply exercising their lawful functions, and deny that they are either in insurrection or rebellion within the meaning of the clause in the Constitution of the United States in reconstitution of the United States in reference to that subject; but if the government troops forcibly eject them from the possession of the Commissioners, office, police stations, etc., they will submit under protest, and await the decision of the courts. They profess the greatest solicitude to avoid collision with the General Government. and to prevent a popular outbreak.

5.30 P. M.—It is now said that Mr. Ford is not to be commissioned, and that George R. Berry and Horn, as before named, are to be appointed. Nothing is positive known yet. GOVERNOR SWANN'S DECISION.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—The Governor's decission is a very lengthy document, covering thirty pages of manuscript. The following are the main points of the docu-

I have duly considered the charges which had been preferred by certafn citizens of Baltimore, who were denied the right to vote at the late municipal election for Mayor and members of the City Council, against the Police Commissioners, in connection with the testimony submitted for my guidance in the case, and have arrived at coral priors which I shell proceed by indicate the case of the case conclusions which I shall proceed briefly

The refusal of the Police Commissioners at the opening of this investigation to appear before the Governor, upon his summons, to answer charges of misconduct to office, I look upon as an offence for which they might have been held responsible without any further inquiry into the evi-dence of official misconduct in the late elections. It is true that the Commissioners through their counsel, have to some extent retraced their steps, and announced their retraced their steps, and announced their willingness to appear and answer any questions the Governor might have to propound, but I do not understand that they have yielded the point of jurisdiction to which they still adhere.

Their action in declining to respond to the summons of the Governor, places them in the attitude of State officers, made by law, subject to his direct supervision, treating with contempt the power specially delegated to him by the Legislature, and the still higher power conferred by the twelfth section of the twentieth article of the Constituto him by the Legislature, and the still higher power conferred by the twelfth section of the twentieth article of the Constitution, to take care that the laws be faithfully experted. How is the Governor, it may be seen to the defined to enable me to execute the laws and protect our citizens against a threatened riot and bloodshed, unless impelled to take this step by the further reexecuted. How is the Governor, it may be ask J, representing the sovereignty of the St. to discharge an imperative duty imposed upon him by the organic law, in conflict with rebellious officers setting his authority at defiance and disregarding his incited to held the organic law in the setting his authority at defiance and disregarding his right to hold them accountable for official misconduct, or a palpable violation or neglect of their duties.

The police law invests these Commis sioners with almost absolute power, fearful in its scope, in the hands of designing men, without a check somewhere to protect the public interests. The Legislature never in-tended any such thing. The State of Mary-land is at this very moment threatened with invasion by armed hordes from other States. Military organizations have been formed in the city of Baltimore for the open and avowed purpose of resisting the authority of the law. No single step, so far as I am informed, up to this time has been taken by the Police Board to suppress this ten-dency to anarchy and rebellion, now so threatening, and to excite riot and bloodshed among our people.

It is well known that so far as the action of the Governor is concerned no pretext has been furnished for these revolutionary pro-ceedings. Is the Governor, to whom these ceedings. Is the Governor, to whom these officers are made directly responsible, by the law, to rest quiet and see the laws of the State and the public peace disturbed, the State invaded by armed revolutionists, (in complicity with those whom the Police Board are encouraging by their apathy) and make no effort to protect the dignity of the State against insult and outrage?

"But the Legislature did not leave to implication this power of the Police Commissisoners in the discharge of their official duties as State officers."

The Governor then proceeds to review the law governing his action, and argues that the exclusion of the newly registered voters at the last municipal election by the judges, was a flagrant violation of their duties. He says the examination of the judges of elecsays the examination of the judges of elec-tion, all radical in their proclivities with one or two exceptions, produced a most un-favorable impression upon his mind as to their conduct in the future.

If continued in office entertaining in the main the intolerant view that loyalty resides only with those who support their policy, is it not a reasonable inference that they would claim, in the absence of any instructions from the Police Commissioners who refuse to interfere, to challenge the votes of all who do not come up to the stand ard? If they ignored the obligation of the second ballot box for rejected votes, so plainly pointed out by the law, surely it would be no greater stretch of authority to go behind the Registry and recognize whom they please and no one else as legal voters.

The Governor next reviews the Registra-tion law and the various decisions made under it, and also the election laws. He sums up as follows:

"The evidence in the case proves beyond a doubt that the Police Commissioners have violated the law, and rendered themselves liable to the charge of misconduct in office, by creating or permitting to grow up under their eyes, and with their complicity, a violent partisan organization—treating all as disloyal who do not adopt the views of the radical party; by denying the right of the Governor to entertain jurisdiction over the charges of official misconduct preferred against the Commissioners; by appointing to office both as judges of election, special policemen and clerks exclusively from their own party, and in many instances incompetent; and, in some of the precincts, most disreputable characters; and denying appointments to any other class of our citizens, by delegating to the marshal and officers under him the power to appoint special poby delegating to the marshal and omcers under him the power to appoint special policymen, without themselves inquiring into the qualification or moral standing of the said officers, thus attempting to throw the responsibility of bad appointments, which they were ready to accept, upon their subordinates; by suffering the judges of election to throw aside the boxes for the rejected ballots, and giving them no advice as to their obligation under the law to use them; and refusing to remove them from office for so manifest a violation of the law." The Governor concludes as follows:

"The Governor concludes as follows:
"The Governor of the State cannot shrink from his duty to the people. The threats of armed combinations at home, of invasions from other States to overthrow our laws; could hardly be expected to deter him for a moment in the unflinching exercise of all the functions with which he has been

"The people of the State of Maryland have been registered by Union med—not the less so because conservative in their sentiments—and these voters duly passed upon by the proper officers, after a full examination into their qualification; (the Constitutional cath having been administered to one and all, and their names entered on the official registry as legal voters, they are adjudged to be so by our highest official are adjudged to be so by our highest official

"They ask at the hands of the Executive that they may not be excluded by a powerful partisan combination, under the control of the Police Commissioners—not powerful in number, but because of the authority which they have heretofore exercised under their commissions from the State, claiming that there is no loyalty but in the extreme radical party, and turning a deaf ear to the demand of any other class of our citizens. demand of any other class of our citizens.

"In the discharge of my official duties in this case I can know no party. I must see that the authority of the State is maintained in the interest of the whole people. If the laws are objectionable, the Legislature, which made them, and not the Governor, is responsible. He is the executive and not the law making power.

"He would bring disgrace upon the State if he should do injustice to the humblest citizen. The appeals to the returned veterans by weak and thoughtless men, to raise the standard of rebellion against the constituted authorities of the State, cannot fail to tuted authorities of the State, cannot fail to meet the condemnation which it deserves among all order-loving citizens of whatever political party. They would have been doing—if they heeded such advice, which I am sure they will not—just what they have been fighting to rebuke in the rebellions States.

lious States.
"The first shot fired upon the American fing in the hands of the recogaized authorities of this State, besides subjecting them to the severest penalties of the law, would cause the laurels which they have won in the struggles of the past to fade and wither in their hands. They will not, I am sure, permit themselves to be lured from their path of duty as law-abiding citizens by impulsive and reckless leaders, when they have the Courts always open to their grievances.

"While to them I speak in the language while to them I speak in the language of friendly admonition and the sincerest regard, I cannot characterize with too much indignation, the intrusion into Maryland, to intervene in her domestic affairs, of a well-known revolutionist and agitator from well-known revolutionist and agitator from an adjoining State, who, repudiated already by the leading journals of the party with whom he is co-operating, for this wicked attempt to excite bloodshed and provoke another civil war, has already retired from the field of his treasonable machinations to secure himself from the contempt which his conduct has everywhere provoked. conduct has everywhere provoked. He must not forget that the strong arm of the law is impending over him, and that the State of Maryland will know how to pro-tect herself, at the proper time, against all such disturbers of the peace and the safety of her people.

"Impressed as I am with the utter demoralization of the police organization as it now stands, I shall do what I can to restore it to its proper relations with the State it to it to its proper relations with the State and the law upon which it is founded. I have no desire to appeal to the General Gosistance of the Police Commissioners and their followers to the laws of the State.

"If that contingency should arise, the responsibility will be upon those who prothe laws of the State, and upon these I will continue to stand until the trust imposed in me by the people of the State of Maryland shall be delivered back into their hands land shall be delivered back into their hands—in spite of all threats of personal violence, and blustering efforts at intimidation, which have already disgusted discreet and thinking men throughout the country.

I can only say for myself that the remnant of a life, now half spent, would be purchased at too dear a cost in the high position which I occupy as Governor of the State of Maryland, by the dishonor of my State, and the land, by the dishonor of my State, and the degradation of the people.

[Signed] THOMAS SWANN, Governor of Maryland. ENERAL GRANT SUMMONS BOTH SETS OF

POLICE COMMISSIONERS,
BALTIMORE, Nov. 1, Midnight,—It is understood that the Police Commissioners had an interview with General Grant this afternoon. They informed the General of their view of the case, and claimed that they were perfectly able to preserve the peace of the city.

General Grant also had the newly appointed Police Board before him. What took place is not definitely known, but it is reported that the General advised them not to attempt to establish their authority by force, but to rely entirely upon legal measures before the Courts. It is understood that they design to apply to Judge Martin, of the Superior Court, to-morrow, to be sworn in, when it is the pur-pose of the counsel for the old Board to appear and argue the case. The Commission pear and argue the case. The Commssioners have avery large police force on duty tonight. Special policemen have been sworn, in, and all the station-houses are strongly guarded. The city is quiet.

BALTIMOBE, Nov. 1.—General Grant returned to Washington to-night.

Mr. Latrobe also went to Washington this afternoon, from Annapolis.

The Political Excitement in Delaware. WEMINGTON, Delaware, November 1.— The campaign in this State is exhibiting remarkable activity. The Union party had a grand torchlight procession this evening, which was by far the most magnificent de-monstration of the kind ever seen in this city. The "Boys in Blue," representing the ten regiments of Delaware volunteers, with a section of the First Delaware Battery were out in great force, carrying the battler, flags used in the war. The various trades were represented on many platforms in the procession, and the horsemen and footmen swelled the pageant to more than two miles in length. The utmost enthusiasm was manifested all along the line. The friends of Messrs. Riddle and McKim, the Union candidates for Governor and Congress, are confident of their success. SELF-RULING ENVELOPES.— The Third Assistant Postmaster General has completed arrangements for the re-issue of the self-ruling stamped envelopes, which will commence immediately. Circulars notifying the public of the fact will be sent to all the offices throughout the United States. The improvement which this popular invention has effected in the legibility of superscription and postmarks upon letters while in use a few years ago has encouraged its reintroduction.

introduction. PARDONS FOR DEFRAUDING THE GOVERN-PARDONS FOR DEFRAUDING THE GOVERN-MENT.—The President has directed the issue of warrants for the pardon of W. H. Mc-Cown and John S. Kelly, who were con-victed upon a joint indictment, at the Sep-tember term of 1865, of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, of defrauding the Government, and sentenced to imprisonment, the former for eighteen months and the latter for one
