THE DAIL Y AVENING BULLETIN ; PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY NOVEMBER 3, 1866 .--- TRIPLE SHEET. THE OLD ESTABLISHED STAND OF JOHN O, MEAD & CO., SILVER PLATED WARE.—Nort to a handsome service of solid sliver, which will cost enor-monsly, the most acceptable present that can be made, either to a bride or to a friend; in the holidaya, is one or more articles of solir or Plated Ware of the fluest quality. Indeed, it may be questioned whether the latter may not be considered in ore desirable than pure sliver, when it is remembered that the best plated ware is equally durable, just as elet ant in design, and innuitely cheaper. The very best place in the city to procure avticles of this kind is at the catablishment N; E. corner of Ninth and Chestant streets, where a splendid assortiment of Sliver Plated Ware, of the inwest and most unique designs, is to be found at the lowest prices. The advantages of purchasing at this the proprietors employ the finest artists in the pro-duction of beautiful designs, and they alone, of all the a nuffactures in this city, plate hard metal goods with far is med Sheffield ware. Considering the large amount of pure sliver metal they sell cheaper than any one else, in fact, they offer their goods at man-interest to purchase from first hands. The high repu-tation that this old and long established house has en-alyed of many years is a guarantee of itself that all articles are just what they are represented to be, and we can assure tur rader that they will guarantee phe full wight of sliver in every instance. Another ablishment is, that they have the most varied, and at he ester is that they have the most varied, and at he say the fine of sliver in every instance. Another ablishment is, that they have the most varied, and at the say the of a fine of the select that can be found in this or any other city.
