The party will leave for St. Louis to-mor-row morning, after a trip through the most magnificent country in the world. Mr. Biddle and a portion of the Philadel-

Council will be held with them this week. A fight recently occurred in the neighbor-hood of Baxter Springs, Southern Kansas, between a party of surveyors, under Colonel Phillips and Colonel Goss, and a number of desperadoes, in which Goss was killed and Phillips badly wounded. Colonel Goss was the Democratic candidate for State Anditor, and Colonel Phillips was formerly a well-known correspondent of the New York Tribune.
