Jeff. Davis's Guards Removed.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 3.-The parole granted to Jefferson Davis some months ago, giving him the privilege of the ground of the Fortress during the day, has been ex-tended, through Executive clemency, in re-moving all surveillance over him and the guards from his rooms in Carroll Hall at night. Instructions to this effect have been sent from Washington to General Burton, com-mandant of the Fort. This deprives hi-imprisonment of anything like severity, imprisonment of anything like severity, and paves the way, as is generally pre-sumed, for his final parole and release. All the guards over him, both during day and night, being removed, he now enjoys perfectly untrammeled liberty and every possible means of comfort and pleasure while held as a prisoner in the Fort. It is said that he has expressed great gratification at this action of the government, and already contemplates vacating Carroll Hall and taking up his residence with Mrs, Davis in the casemates assigned her shortly after her arrival here.
