CITY BULLETIN.

A COUNTRYMAN SWINDLED .- An individual, evidently from the rural sections, went into the office of W. G. Huey, broker, No. 54 South Third street, for the purpose of buying some gold. He was followed by a well-dressed Irishman, who pretended to have some business to transact in the office. After the countryman had gone out the Irishman also left. The Irishman soon overtook the other, and after a brief con-versation succeeded in selling him ten brass tokens, which he represented as $20 gold

A MURDER IN PRESON.—A man, named Hugh Murder, was arraigned before Alderman Shoemaker, this morning, upon the charge of assault and battery on Officer Urban. Murder was arrested on Sunday night, at Germantown road and Jefferson streets, by Urban, for breach of the peace The officer was set upon by some of the companions of Murder, was knocked down and kicked and his prisoner rescued. Murder was sent to prison in default of $1,000 bail to await his trial.

CHICKEN THIEVES .- Two colored men. named John Williams and Frank Wood, were arrested this morning at Forty-first and Market streets by Officer Kelly. They had two bags containing twenty-one chickens and turkeys which are supposed to have been stolen from Delaware county. Alderman Allen committed the prisoners.

TEMPERANCE FESTIVAL, -- A complimentary concert to Fidelity Temple H. and T., No. 13, will be given at the Assembly Build-ings, to-morrow evening. The programme contains some excellent selections.

TILL-TAPPING.-John Wilson was before Ald. Tittermary this morning upon the charge of having robbed the money drawer of a place, No. 848 South Front street. He was committed to prison.

HOLIDAY FESTIVALS.—Measures have been taken by persons connected with the various churches and benevolent associations of Camden, for holding their holiday fairs and festivals. The funds which are raised at these festivals are canarelly entry fairs and festivals. The funds which are raised at these festivals are generally appropriated to the uses of the several institutions for whose benefit they are held. A proposition, however, has been made to the effect, that all the moneys raised at the contemplated fairs shall be given to the Managers of the "Home for Friendless Children," in order to enable them to facilitate the area. order to enable them to facilitate the erection of their new building at Fifth and Plum atreets, which they design soon to commence. This is a measure which should elicit favorable consideration.

elicit favorable consideration. ATLANTIC CITY.—The Republicans of Atlantic City on Tuesday elected D. W. Belisle for Mayor, and their entire State, county and municipal ticket, by majorities rang-ing from 13 to 28. There were only 136 votes polled, and the contest was warmly fought, but principle triumphed over the combined influences of Johnsonism, rum and Cop-perheadism.

SCHOOL MATTERS.—All the public schools of Camden are now in a prosperous condi-tion. In Atlantic City the trustees of pub-lic schools have made arrangements for adding another department to the school there, which will give additional room for a hundred scholars.

A DESIBABLE IMPROVEMENT.—For many years, in fact ever since the city of Cam led has been incorporated, the fronts of the river within the city limits have needed improving in a permanent and substautial manner. A large number of wharves have leen made, but for two miles along the Delaware the shore has needed filling up, wharfing in, &c. It is contemplated to soon commence the work of improving this property, and Councilmen are seriously considering the propriety of opening an avenue along the front. long the front.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.—The work of constructing the monument to the fallen beroes of Gloucester county, which the Board of Chosen Freeholders ordered to be raised at Woodbury, has been commenced. These memorials of their heroism are fitting testimonials to their bravery, and should be erected in every county. A similar monument is also soon to be reared to the brave men from Camden county, who fell in defence of the Union in the battles of the late rebellion. ate rebellion.

HANDSOME CHURCH EDIFICE.—The congregation of the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, of Camden, which is an offshoot of the Third Street Church, have taken steps for erecting a very tasteful and com-modious building. This church is designed to be the handsomest edifice of the kind in Camden, as liberal contributions have been made towards it.

THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT of the United States Army has forwarded to the United States Commissioners, at the Paris Exposition, a large collection of models of various kinds, including a model of the Rucker ambulance, models of improved litters for conveying wounded men, plans of army hospitals, contrivances for alleviating the sufferings of the wounded, such as slings for the arms and legs, and many other artifor the arms and legs, and many other arti-cles of similar character.

A CATTLE ITEM.—In Great Britain, on 5th of March last, the total number of cattle returned by occupiers of land and estimated by collecting officers was 4,785,836; he number of sheep returned and estimated, 22,048,281; the number of pigs, 2,477,619.

AMUSEMENTS.

DRAMATIC—At the Academy of Music last evening Herr Dawison appeared in his great character of Shy-lock, in the German translation of "The Merchant of lock, in the German translation of "The Merchant of Venice" We saw a portion of the performance and feel confident that the ability of Herr Dawison is fully up to his reputation. The company from the Stadt Theatre in New York is an excellent one. We were up to his reputation. The company from the Stady Theatre in New York is an excellent one. We were especially pleased with Herr Reiffarth as Launcelot Gobbo. Portla, Nerissa, Jessíca, Bassanio, Antonio and Balthazar were all effectively performed. We do not quite comprehend the system of springing so many bells at the close of each act, as the prompter or stage manager did 1set evening. It rather interfered with the harmony of the entertainment, Interfered with the harmony of the entertainment, Interfered with the harmony of the entertainment of the given, with Dawison as the hero. To morrow he appears in "Nar'issa." At the Walnat to might Mr. Hooth appears in "The Apostate; "aterplees, "The Serious Family." To morrow for Bouch has a benefit On Saturday afternoon the first Both hattee will be given at the Walnut. The tragedy of "Hamlet" will be presented—Mr. Booth as Hamlet supported by J B. Roberts. Barton Hill and Charles Walcot. This will affired ladies and those living out of the city a fine opportunity to witness this masterplees of Mr. Booth Strington and Frankford can visit the Walnut on that occasion, see the entire play, and get home at an early hour in the evening. These matinees will be made by permanent feature during the present engagement of Mr. Booth. At the Chestnut this evening Mr. Joseph Jefferson will repeat his great impersonation of Rip Van Winkle supported by the whole company. 'Found in a Four Wheeler' is the afterplees. Everybody should see Mr. Jefferson's great creation. He played this charcter for one hundred and seventy-two consecutive nights in London. To-morrow evening Mr. Jefferson appears in three piecs. On Saintedy the Lusual matinee will be given. At the Arch Mr. Dan Bryant repeats lass night's bill. To-morrow, for his benefit, a change of performance will be given.
