These people intend settling in South Caro-lina, being mostly connected with German families already residing there. The Colonization Society's ship Golconda will sail hence for Liberia next Saturday, carrying about 600 freedmen, nearly all from Georgia and South Carolina.

The Cotton Crop.

New ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Accounts from Texas and Upper Louisiana announce that the crops are nearly all gathered, and that the rains which have now set in, general as they appear to be, will prevent saving much more. Cotton is now coming in freely, and all will soon be in market, but business is small, owing to the knowledge that the crop will be small. journed. To-night a public meeting was held at Mozart Hall. Generals Rawlings and Noyes delivered speeches. A poem written and delivered by Thomas Buchanan Read closed the proceedings,

The Mississippi Commissioners. Messrs. Hillyer and Lowery, the Missis-sippi Commissioners, yesterday called upon the President by previous appointment, having yesterday sent to him the resolu-tions of the Legislature of that State in rela-tion to Jefferson Davis. They presented to him a letter from Governor Humphrey, who says, among other things, that those whom he represents do not seek to screen Mr. Davis from trial; that his imprisonment is not necessary to secure his presence when desired for trial; that his continued incar-ceration threatens fatal results to his health. desired for trial; that his continued incar-ceration threatens fatal results to his health, and that the ends of justice will be reach by admitting bim to bail or parole, which they respectfully ask. The documents seem to assume that there will be no trial. The President received the Commissioners courteously, and informed them that he would give to the application due considera-tion.
