A Letter from Napoleon the First.
It is supposed that during the recent transfer of the archives of the Department of State to the new building on Fourteenth street. some of the papers may accidentally have got astray. Among them none could have been more interesting than the following characteristic letter of the great Napoleon, of which the subjoined is a translation. It is supposed that the American Minister referred to was the famous joker, Armstrong, afterwards Secretary of State:

"16,147. Correspondence of Napoleon 1st, 1810.—To M. de Champagny, Duke de Cadore, Minister for Foreign Relations at Paris. PARIS, 19th January, 1810.—Monsieur Duke the Cadore: You must see the Minister from America. It is, beyond all, ridiculous that he writes of things that one does not comprehend. I prefer that he should write in English, but at length, and in a manner that we can understand.

How is it that in affairs so important he contents himself with asking letters of four lines? Speaking to the Secretary who is here, speak also to the Secretary who is about arriving from America. Send by a courier extraordinary a despatch, in cipher that Government is not represented bere. that its minister does not understand French, and is a morose man, with whom one cannot deal; that all obstacles would be removed if we had here an envoy to talk with. Write in detail on the matter. Let me know what effect the letter from Altenburgh has had in the United States; what has been done, and what is proposed. Write to America in such a manner that the President may know what a fool has been sent Arkansas and the Constitutional Amendment.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 17.—A special despatch to the Avalanche, dated at Little Rock today, says a resolution introduced in the Legislature of Arkansas to reject the constitu-tional amendment was referred to the Com-mittee on Federal Relations, and there is a disposition to treat the matter with great deliberation.

In the Presbyterian General Assembly, to-day, the reports of the Committee on Foreign Missions and Education were read, and after the discussion of the revised book of discipline a long debate took place on that section which defines the relation of baptized childred to the discipline of the Church. The debate was opened by the Rev. Arnold W. Miller, of North Carolina, in opposition to the proposed change. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. Adger, of South Carolina, and the Rev. Dr. Baird, of Virginia, in favor of the amendment, and the Rev. Dr. Rice, of Alabama, in opposi-tion. The Rev. Dr. Palmer, of New Or-leans, had the floor at the hour of adjourn-

The Hevana Quarantine.
The Consul General at Havana, writes to the Department of State, under date of November 9th, as follows—

"His Excellency, the Governor General, has just communicated to this office that the quarantine regulations have been further modified, so that vessels leaving all ports of the United States, except from Philadelphia and New Orleans, for ports in the Island of Cuba, with clear bills of health, properly endorsed by the Spanish Consul, and with-out sickness on board during the voyage, shall be permitted to enter at once and discharge their passengers and cargoes; and all vessels coming from Philadelphia or New Orleans, shall be quarantised three days for observation.

GENERAL CUSTER,-The Detroit Free Press contains a spicy letter from J. Logan Chipman, the defeated Copperhead candi-date for Congress in that District, to Gen. Custer, in reply to those written by the latter during the recent canvass. Chipman says: "Your conversion to the doctrines of the Philadelphia platform was so sudden, so opposed to your views in regard to Texas, so repugnant to the private opinions entertained by you only a few days before your change, that I heard it charged, and never denied, that your only motive was to win the President's favor, which, unfortunately for you, you did win in time to have your promotion in your pocket before you turned against him by your onslought upon me. I say unfortunately, because to-day you would have been deemed more honorable by men of all parties if you had clung sturdily to your Radical views, and had not taught your late Radical brethren to doubt your stability in the face of tempta-

THE Internal Revenue Bureau has issued a circular concerning the law and regula-tions for the purchase and use of internal revenue stamps. It is stated among other things therein, that arrangements has been made with the American Photograph Company New York, to print internal revenue stamps upon bank checks and other instruments which may be forwarded to them by various parties for that purpose. Any proprietor of an article named in schedule C may furnish a design for a stamp, which, if approved, will be engraved by the government engravers at the cost of the pro-

Governor Cummines, of Colorado, has arrived in Washington, and gives encouraging reports of the disposition of the Indian tribes in the vicinity of that territory. There does not seem to be any danger of the treatened war with the Utahs, which has been apprehended, and for the fear of which a call had been made upon the government for troops to preserve peace on the frontiers. Every indication points to peace during the winter.
