The Storm at the Bahamas. Consul Kilpatrick, in a letter dated Nassau, N. P., Nov. 3, states that on the day after his despatch was forwarded to the De partment of State, there arrived the crews of two other wrecked American vessels, the officers and crews being saved, with a very small portion of their cargoes, viz. The brig California, of Bristol, Rhode Island, J. D. Ingraham, master, wrecked at Little Baha-mas, October 2d, on a veyage from Newport, Rhode Island, to Havana, with a general cargo; and the schooner William A. Ellis of New York, Elliet J. Bishop, master, wrecked at Great Abaco, October 21, on a voyage from New York to St. Marks, Flo-rida.

Commander Carter, of the United States ship Winosski, informed the Consul that the keeper of the light-house at the Hole in the Wall told him that a vessel, or fragments of one broken up, was found a few miles from where the Winooski lay, loaded with machinery for a saw mill, dry goods, &c., and that he took her to be American, from the fact of having found two pieces of bunting, a small part of the union, and a part of the stripes on the broken and rugged parts of the rock. The shipping mark on one piace of the machine. The shipping mark on one piece of the machinery was "H. F. D." Ine vessel was wrecked in the late hurricane of October, and no doubt all hands on board perished, as five bodies were found on the beach.

Release of Thirty-nine Fentaus.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—On Saturday night, thirty-nine Fenian prisoners were released from custody. Their discharge was conducted with the greatest secrecy. Only about an hour's notice was given them before they were sent away. They were furnished with transportation by the Government to the Suspension Bridge, and a special train was furnished by the Great Western Railroad. This drew up in rear of the jail Railroad. This drew up in rear of the jail at ten o'clock, and the men were safely lodged on board, in charge of a guard of twenty men. The prisoners received a good supper at the railroad station before starting, and each was presented with a five dellar greenback. On reaching the Falls the Fenians bade good-bye to their escoft, giving three hearty cheers for the Sheriff, the Governor of the jail, and the jail officers.

Distress Among the Cretaus.
The United States Consul at Corea writes,
October 14th, to the Secretary of State as follows: "I hope that our government will be able in some way to contribute to the relief of the unfortunates who are already de-prived of all provision made against the winter, and even in many cases of any means of obtaining a living, by the indiscriminate and barbarous severity of the Government, and who destroy not only stores of provisions, but even the houses and implements, and in many cases the vineyards of ments, and in many cases the vineyards of those whose only offence has been to escape at the approach of a soldiery, of whose numanity they have good reasons to doubt. If the charity of the friends of humanity is not large towards the Cretans thousands must perish during the coming winter,"

Impartial Suffrage Meeting at Washington.

United States Senator Harlan last night addressed a public meeting at the Fair building, Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington. His auditors were about equally divided between the whites and blacks.
His themewas the moral, political, and social necessity of conferring suffrage on citizens of African descent throughout the country. He read from speeches and state. country. He read from speeches and statements to show that the President of the United States himself was in favor of it. He expressed the belief that if those who were present would petition Congress for impartial suffrage there would be no difficulty in the passage of a law for that purpose. the passage of a law for that purpose. Other speakers addressed the meeting.

THE STAGE "OLD MAN."—What a tough chap the stage "old man" must be! We saw him the other night at one of our theatres, and he looked just as he did when we were a boy (we wouldn't like to state pre-cisely how long ago that was) and saw him for the last time. What wonderful material for wear his clothes must be made of, for he appears in the same suit that we first saw him in—that is, he appears to—and they look precisely as they did then. His voice has some shakes in it, but no more than it had then; and he In it, but no more than it had then; and he totters in his gait—yet he always tottered. He is just as hery tempered and passionate as ever, and continues to alarm us lest he may go off with apoplexy in some of his fits of passion, he gets so red in the face. At such times we have observed that he usually forgets to totter, but stamps across the stage with the vice of worth always. the stage with the vigor of youth almost. He continues to call people whom he is angry with: "You infernal scoundrel, sah!" "Never met with such a rascal, sah, in the whole course of my life, sah!" In his playful moods he digs his cane into a favorite nephew's ribs and says, "Ah, ye young dog, ye! Ha! ha! ha!"

An industries had says, "Ah, ye An industrious, hard-working fellow is the stage "old man." He appears at least once every night, and sometimes twice. It seems as though he never would wear out, any more than his clothes. It is very rarely that he dies, either living to wreak horrid vengeance upon some one provider. vengeance upon some one—usually a young man of prepossessing appearance, who hadn't done quite the fair thing by the old woman's daughter—or to evoke a blessing upon a deeply suffering, but happily united was the appearance bearing to the property of the propert upon a deeply suhering, but napplly united pair as the curtain drops, having previously hugged the "old woman" of the play, and executed a fragment of a hornpipe. He has his faults, of course, but there is generally an undercurrent of goodness beneath the crusty surface of the stage "old man," and he is generally a favorite with the audience. -Cincinnati Times.

SHAD AND SALMON IN NEW ENGLAND RIVERS.—It is well known that the number of shad and salmon in the New England or snad and salmon in the New England rivers, and especially in the Connecticut, is vastly smaller than it was thirty years ago. It is equally well known that this decrease in the number of fish has been caused by the increase in the number of dams. The legislatures of Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Connecticut have appointed commissioners to report a roadpointed commissioners to report a remedy.
Their proposal is very simple—to propagate fish in the upper waters by artificial means, and, by building fish-ways, to enable them to pass freely to and from the ocean. Massachusetts has already finished one fish-way on the Merrimack, has comone is a way on the merrimacs, has commenced another, and has authorized two others on the Connecticut, on condition that Connecticut will build one at Enfield Falls and prohibit the use of the gill-net. These fish-ways cost about $5,000 each. The commissioners of New Hampshire have an agent at the present time in New Brunswick, engaged in procuring salmon-spawn.

There is no doubt that the Connecticut and the lesser rivers will be soon restocked with these delicious fish.

THE CHOLERA IN ITALY.—The United States Consul at Palermo says that the cholera at that city has become epidemic. From the time the troops landed, September 18th, to October 17th, it was only in a sporadic form. The Consul learned that on the 19th, which in the official bulletin is marked 217 cases and 121 doubt these marked 217 cases and 131 deaths, there were actually buried in the Campo Santo 300 bodies. There were several American vessels in port, but, with the exception of the mate of the Caso, the health of the officers and crews was excellent.

Appointments.—The President yesterday appointed D. M. Leatherman, of Tennessee, Commissioner on the part of the United States to the Universal Exposition, to be held in Paris in 1867. Richard Beahan, Deputy Postmaster at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Colonel William G. Moore, one of the President's private secretaries, has been appointed a Paymaster in the regular army.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19,—The bark

She was greeted with a royal salute, to which the Vanderbilt and the Prussian war which the Vanderbut and the Prussian war ship Vannetta responded. Thousands of people assembled to greet her on landing. The Vanderbilt drew twenty feet of water, but entered the harbor of Honolulu with Victoria advices say that the question of annexation to the United States is under discussion. The Victoria Telegraph newspaper says England gives no assistance and saddles us with a cumbrous form of government against our wishes.

saddles us with a cumbrous form of government against our wishes.

The Federal authorities spend hundreds of thousands of dollars every year on their Territories, and ask the inhabitants to pay but a tithe of the outlay in consequence of its infancy. Every British colony is devoted to chronic discontent, culminating often in armed outbreaks, while in the United States Territories scarcely a remonstrance is heard. Our country is killed by the extravagant men at the head of affairs, while the other steadily progresses under the management steadily progresses under the management of the people.

CASTOR WHEELS.

FOR HEALTH AND STRENGTH USE CAPE WELL! & CO.'S PATENT GLASS CASTOB WHEELS.

These wheels are designed for Pianos, Bedsteads, &c. We claim that they give to Pianos a greatly increased force of sound, without detracting from the harmony and melody of the instrument, rendering every note more distinct to the ear. This is so apparent that they are now heing applied by many to these valuable musical instruments. Dr. Valentine Mott, previous to his death, pronounced the Glass Castor Wheels an invaluable invention for bedfast invalids, who are guarded against the damp floors after undergoing the process of cleaning, or where dampness is produced irom any other causa. Aside from this, Housekeepers are relieved from the dread of having their carpets cut or torn, as frequently happens from those now in urg. often caused by a rust, which adheres with glue-like tenacity. No such annoyance can possibly proceed from the Glass Castor Wheels, as we all know that glass is non-corrosive. There are no rough or unfinished edges to the Glass Wheels, such as we often find in those of fron, and the latter, though smoothly finished, will soots rust, from the dampness of the atmosphere, if nothing else, producing roughness on the surface, or edge, while the former will always maintain the amoothness of glass, just as they are finished.

By aleeping upon glass wheels you retain all the electricity you had in your body on retiring, and you get up in the morning feeling as fresh and active as a young mas. Glass being a non-conductor, the electricity gened with the inflammatory theorem and the thinks of the Glass Castor Wheels. Ask him if all diseases, with the exception of chronic diseases, are not caused from the want of electricity. We have a man in our place whom the doctors pronounced past curing, with the inflammatory rhenmatism. The wheels cured him in less than four weeks. He is to-day a stout healthy man. These are facts which can be proven on application at our office. No. 23 Race street, Philadeleiphia, or at our CASTOR WHEELS.
