CITY BULLETIN.

A JUVENILE WITNESS.—This morning at the hearing of a case before Alderman Jones, several youths were examined as witnesses. One lad, apparently about twelve years of age, was placed on the stand and a bible was handed to him. It is always usual, in such cases, for the magistrate transaction shildren in record to the prestion of the prestion and t to question children in regard to the nature of an oath, &c. This examination this morning resulted as follows:
Alderman—Do you know the nature of an oath?

Witness—Yes, sir.
Ald.—Suppose you tell a lie, where will Witness—(Very promptly and emphatically)—To the Bishop's.

Aid.—Oh, no! There is a place further than that.

Witness—I don't want to go any further. That is away out to Eighteenth and Sum-This ended the questioning. The magistrate then made the necessary explanations to the prosecutor and his testimony was DISTURBANCE AMONG NEGROES.—Last night about nine o'clock a row occurred among a crowd of negroes at Sixth and Lombard streets. Two men got into a political discussion. Words ran high, and finally blows were struck. This seemed to have been a signal for a free fight. A number of the spectators joined in the melee, and black eyes soon became common. Razors must have been used, as several of the participants received cuts on the hands and face Nobody was seriously hurt however. The fighting was kept up about fifteen minutes, and then the belligerent parties dispersed No arrests were made.

RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT .- A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Sharkey, ran away yesterday, at Thirty-first and Market streets. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to stop the horse. A young man, the driver of Thumbert's ple wagon, was struck in the breast by the wagon, which was thrown around suddenly by the runaway, and was knocked down. The man was carried away in an insensible condition.

OIL PAINTINGS, PASTELS, &c.-Every connoisseur and lover of art should attend the sale of oil painting, pastels and crystal medallions, which commences this evening, at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street, at 73 o'clock. They are all neatly framed in fine gold-leaf frames, of newest designs, and have been carefully selected from the studios of the most eminent artists by the agent of the New York Art Gallery, an institution established in our sister city for the encouragement of art.

Among the Philistines,—An individual of genteel appearance fell in with and was captivated by a young woman named Jenny May, last evening, and was taken to a house on Dock street. While there it is alleged that the fascinating Jenny relieved her companion of $20. She was arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Butler, was committed to prison.

STEALING MONEY .- John Thomas was arrested yesterday and taken before Ald. Plankinton for the larceny of $10 from a woman with whom he resided at Penn Village in the Twenty-irst Ward. The money was stolen from a bureau drawer. Thomas was held $500 bail to answer.

COMPLETED.—The work of paving Chestnut street, from the Bridge to Forty-second street, West Philadelphia, was completed this morning. This is now one of the finest thoroughfares in the city.

CLEAN BILLS OF HEALTH.-A notice in another column makes the official announcement that there is now no contagious disease at this port, and that all vessels from this port may therefore sail with "clean bills of health."

INFORMATION IS WANTED Of a VOID man named C. T. Abbott, who recently left home while in a state of depression. See the advertisement in to-day's paper.

SILENCE AND TALE.-Mr. Wendell Phillips is very much disgusted that General Grant and Secretary Stanton do not come out boldly in favor of Congress or the President. He is "down on" their "neutrality." There is one topic on which they ought to be willing to speak their minds, viz: the excellence and cheapness of the coal sold by W. W. Alter, 957 North Ninth street, and Sixth and Spring Garden sts. MAMMOTH RAISINS.

"ARRIVAL OF JOHN MORRISSEY, THE GREAT EX-POUNDER, IN WASHINGTON."—This important information came over the wires last night, Since Mr. Webster's time, we have been looking for an ex-pounder at Washington, and now we have it The arrival at the White House of a new suit of clothes for the President, from Charles Stokes & Co. 3 One price, under the Continental, would hardly excite more attention.

MRS. E. A. BROCKWAY, 1423 Vine Street. MRS. E. A. BROCKWAY, 1423 Vine Street, Philadelphia, in her testimony before the Commissioner of Patents, sys of the Grover & Baker Macuine: "It has given me entire as isfaction, and there is no comparison, in my opinion, with other machines in its practical working; it is far superior. I would mention as points of superiority, the elasticity of stitch and it not be ng as liable to get out of order. It is the only machine that I have ever known that is able to embroider, and therefore it is better adapted to family purposes; and on the Grover & Baker you buy the ordinary spool of cotton, and place it immediately on the machine, on the other machines you are obliged to rewind, by some device or other. You can sew with this machine various thicknesses of goods without changing the tension, whereas in other machines they have to be adapted to the different thicknesses of the goods,"

A SUPERB STOCK OF CONFECTIONERY.—
The advent of cold weather is always accompanied with an increased demand for choice sweatmeats, such as our friends Messus. Reckefus & Grieb, Ro. 1203 Chestnut street, know so well how to prepare. Their stock at present is really superb, including all the novelties in Bon Bons, Caramels, Greem Chocolste, Roasted Almonds, Candled Fruits, French Nougat, Etc., etc. They have also a choice assortment of Foreign Fruits, such as Almeria Grapes, Canton Oranges, Lemons, Figs, Frunes, Dates, also fine Belle Flower Apples from New York State, by the barrel or small measure. When in quest of any of the above articles, this is the place to visit.

THE GREATEST LABOR-SAVING INVENTION OF THE AGE.—It is no exaggeration to say that of all inventions that have contributed to reduce manual labor, and promote the health and happiness of the race, the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine stands at the head. The demand for these popular machines at the office of the agents, Messrs. Peterson & Little. No. 704 Chestant street, it greater, we have reason to believe, than at any previous period in their history.

OUR CANDID OPINION.-It is always a OUR CANDID OPINION.—It is always a pleasure to patronize an accommodating artisan, one who not only possesses the ability, but the desire to please his patrons, Such a man is Mr. CHAS, EICH EL, the accomplished bootmaker, No. 504 North EIGH CH street, above Buttonwood. His boots are modeled after the latest fashion, and are guaranteed to fit and wear well. Every gentleman who desires a handsome pair of boots at a very moderate figure would do well to call on CHABLES LICHEL.
