Stabat Mater.

The performance of the Bateman troupe and the Handel and Haydn Society, tomorrow night, searcely needs further notice at our hands. The house will be crowded to its utmost capacity, and this great composition of Rossini will be given with an array of talent never perhaps excelled in this city. There have been several admirable performances of the Stabat Mater in Philadelphia. About eighteen years ago, Mr. Perelli brought it out at the Musical Fund Hall, with his fine class of amateur ladies and gentlemen, with beautiful effect. Many of our readers will remember with pleasure the great success of that performance, especially on the part of the ladies who sustained the solo passages. The Stabat Mater was afterwards sung in splendid style by the Pyne Troupe, and still later at Concert Hall, by the Harmonia Society, when the leading soprano solos were sustained by the same lady who achieved such a brilliant success on the eccasion of Mr.

Perelli's performance. To-morrow night, with Mdme. Parepa Brignoli, Fortuna, Ferranti and Mrs. Schimpf, with the grand chorus of the Handel and Haydn Society, and with a full and effective orchestra, we shall probably have the best performance of this sublime work yet heard in Philadelphia, and it is only to be regretted that the other engagements of Mr. Bateman will prevent the repetition which is so eagerly desired.

MR. HENRY VINCENT .- On the evenings of next Monday and Wednesday, at the Academy of Music, Mr. Henry Vincent will deliver two lectures, the first on "The Great American Conflict," and the second on "Oliver Cromwell." Mr. Vincent comes from England with a reputation second to no lecturer, and he brings with him the endorsement of friends of our Union such as John Bright. He will receive a warm welcome. Tickets may be procured, for both lectures, at Trumpler's, Seventh and Chestnut streets.

THE FREEDMEN'S COMMISSION. - The meeting to-night at the Academy of Music will be an overflowing one. The admirable object of the society and the striking array of eloquent speakers announced for the occasion will combine to crowd the house. Chief Justice Chase in the chair, and Gen. Howard and Rev. Mr. Brooks on the platform, give promise of a treat in the way of patriotic eloquence, rarely enjoyed on any single occasion.

Facts and Fancies. Since Mr. Bancroft has come out as a joker, Bancroft has come out as a joker, Bancroftiana are beginning to come to the surface. This is good:

"Last summer riding at Newport, tête à tête, with a charming young lady, the historian whispered in the intervals of a trot. Don't call me Mr. R. call me George." The

'Don't call me Mr. B , call me George.' The young woman said not a word, but some young woman said not a word, but some time after in a large company at dinner, cross the table, she said, 'George, hand me the salt.' A Copperhead tells that story, but "Fas est, &c," you know.

Touching the Bancroft joke about "flashing beautiful"

ing beautiful women across wires," a spiteful wretch suggested that the venerable wag must have been to Niblo's lately. Beauregard says the needle gun is a humbug. Peter will admit, we hope, that it is a humbug that is exploded to some purpose. Jefferson (not Thomas), calls a man "clear headed," when he "has no wool on the top of his head, in the place where the wool ought to grow."

The Narragansett Weekly tells a story of a hunter in North Stonington, who shot at a rabbit from both barrels of his gun, and missing it, took his tobacco box from his pocket and threw it at the rabbit, hitting it on the head and killing it instantly. What's in an aim? If the fellow had used a harerigger he would have knocked Bunny over

A PERFECT SEWING MACHINE—GOLDEN HONOR WELL BESTOWED.—Backward and forward—backward and forward, swings the pendulum of Time, recording the world's life on the dial of eternity, and, as it beats, the world grows older, riper, and, we hope, better. AN INTERESTING EXPOSE.

Intercepted Correspondence of Duke Gwin--His Land Grant from Maximilian---Correspondence Between Mr. Seward and Mr. Drouvn de Lhuys.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—About the 1st of July, 1865, Mr. Corwin was desirous of sending important dispatches from Mexico sending important dispatches from Mexico to the United States Government. Col. Don Enrique A. Mejis, then about to visit this country, offered to be the bearer, but his offer was only partially accepted, for Mr. Gorwin feared that the officers of Maximilian's Government, would not besitate to milian's Government would not hesitate to violate the sanctity of even an embassadorial violate the sanctity of even an embassadorial seal in the hands of any private person, in order to know the State secrets of this Government. He therefore sent his dispatches by private opportunity to Vers Cruz—they were put into Don Mejia's hands after he had gone on board the steamer. But the events that had happened justified Mr. Corwin's fears. Don Enrique had been seized, his papers all taken from him and acceptance. his papers all taken from him and opened. Not finding the expected despatches of the United States Minister, he was released after a few days' imprisonment, and his papers returned to him. Among them was found a bundle of letters belonging to some found a bundle of letters belonging to some other traveler, but accidentally mixed up with his at the examining rooms of the Custom House. In this bundle were the following letters from Dake Gwin, showing that he stood high in the estimation of both the Imperial and French Governments, that he was about to obtain large tracts of land, and his son was to have control of the largest gold mine in the world. But Mr. Gwin did not confine himself to his own prospects, but speaks of Mr. Johnson's accession to the Presidency in no flattering prospects, but speaks of Mr. Johnson's accession to the Presidency in no flattering terms. In these days, when President Johnson has been pardoned by the rebels and taken into their high favor, it is refreshing to read that "Andy Johnson's speeches breathe such a heinous spirit that there is nothing before us but extermination. It really makes me sick when I contemplate the bloody agony that awaits the Southern people."

speeches breathe such a heinous spiritination. It really makes me slok when I contemplate the bloody agony that awaits the Southern people."

Col. Mejla promptly forwarded these despatches to Mr. Romero, the Mexican Minister, who sent them to Mr. Seward. Through our embassy at Paris they were transmitted to the French Govern nent, as containing full proofs of the complicity of that Government with some of the principal leaders of the rebellion. Mr. Drouyn de Lhuys's pointed and pungent reply will be found at the close of this correspondence.

My Dearest Belaved Wife and Daughters: The startling news from the United States has made the blood of every Southern sympathiser run cold with horror. My policy is on every man's lips as the only one that will save this Empire.

The Rimber or likers most unaccountably away from sion, and where we have every prospect of immediate and permanent prosperity. My bolicy is on every man's fips as the only one that will save this Empire. The Emperor litegers meat unaccountably sway from the capital, but his minister having charge of this matter considers it so pressing that he has gone to him with it more than a week ago. No one doubts that there will be an entire change of ministry, with one or two exceptions, when the Emperor returns, and that his entire ministry will be in favor of my policy. It seems that he is effecting this change in his absence, and that he remains away to accomplish it. If I dared write I could give you the names of persons who have approaches me with this news that would leave no doubt on your minds that all of these things will happen, and that very soon. The delay is unpleasant, but the certainty of success that will follow this delay is a great consolation, e-pecially when everything is so dark for us everywhere else. Never have a doubt of my success, I have less now than ever. Willie is getting into heavy business. They are proposing to give him the entire control of the richest gold mines in the world, in Sinola, and he is one of three who have asked for the concession of all the railroads in Sonora. MEXICO, May 18, 1865.—My Dear Colonel. The news from the United States appals every one here and paralyses all business. What will happen next is the constant inquiry. The Empergr's absence mugt seem to persons at a distance extraordinary, but it is now developing itself, that he is bringing about a radical change in his counsels, and that there will be an entire change of policy on his return. Three of the riling men in his counsels have been dispisced since he letis, and two miles are of social finct in banishment, equivalent to it. No one here doubts that Alemonte will come into power and from the effect of the man from the first he has declared that my plan of colonization is the only salvation for the empire. The same sentiment is nitered by every one in favor of the empire. In fact, if anything in the future can be certain in this country, at an early day you will see a decree opening North Mexico to the enterprise of the worl! What a people we can assemble there if this policy is adopted. What a country it will he in a very few years. The recent startling events and the policy I have indicated, causes delay that is unpleasant, but no doubt of ultimate success. I have never been so confident as at present say to. my good and highly-valued friend, Mrs. W., that we will vary soon meet again in the most delightful spot on the globe, and there will not be a cloud to obscure the future. She will eat her Christmas dinner in the palace, to a certainty, and what a time we will have! The day I leave here I will rend an order to France for a large supply of the best wines in Europe, and they will be mell, wto the taste by Christmas. This is not romance. The stern reality that confronts every one of my sentiments banishes all romance. I must have realities. The crusades will be surpassed in the emigration to the country of my future home, and such a people worm moved from one country one of my sentiments banishes all romance. I must have realities for stime; it may be but for a very short time. I confess I chase at every hour's delay, but I do not permit in the palace, to sertain a cheer of success, and that success will be many energies. The undersigned, Ravoy Extraordinary and Minister Fleen'potentiary of the United States at Farls, has the honor to transmit to his Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs copies of four letters which have been aubmitted to the State Department at Washington.

The first, dated Mexico, Nav 16, 1866, is addressed by William M. Gwin, the scond from Dr. Gwin himself, on the same sheet without date, addressed to his wife and daughler in Paris. The third in the well-known bandwriting of the doctor dated Mexico, May 18, 1865, is addressed to "My dear Colonel," and was contained in an envelope addressed to "To the Hon. B. Wood," (now a prisorer of State for alleged trasonable practices,) inclosing a communication to the editor of the New York Dady News, dated at Mexico, 19th of May, 1865, upon the subject of Mexican affairs.

By these letters it appears.

By these letters it appears.

First—That Dr. William M. Gwin and family, though citizens of the United States, are disloyal to its government.

Scond—That they are ergaged in obtaining from

ment.

Second—That they are ergaged in obtaining from Maximilian titular Emperor of Mexico, grants of Third - That a large accession of capitalists and emi-grants into these states from parties in rebellion against the United States is expected.

Fourth—That they assure the said Maximilian and the 1 mperor of France that their contemplated pro-ceedings will tend at once to promote the projects of Maximilian in Mexico, and inure to the injury of the U-fred States. J. Fed Biates.

Fifth—I hat they claim to have the patronage of the miteror of the French, with assurances of military aid.

In submitting to His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs copies of this correspondence, the undersigned is instructed frankly to state that the sympathies of the American people for the Republicans of Mexico are very lively, and that they are disposed to regard with impatience the continued intervention of France in that country: that any favor shown to the speculations of Dr. Gwin by the timber provided in the speculations of Dr. Gwin by the timber provided in the speculations of Dr. Gwin by the timber provided in the speculations of Dr. Gwin has the speculations of Dr. Gwin and the speculations of Dr. Gwin and the states of the United States to the United States to the United States to the United States would be order to the United States would be order to the Conclusion that I want favor of provided the time confidence, the President of the United States would be order to the conclusion that I want favor of policy materially at variance with that of near ality in regard to the political institutions of the country which he avowed at the commencement of his war with that Republic. The President, on the contrary confidently and sincerely expects in some form an assurance that all the pretences of Dr. Gwin, and of his associates, are destitute of any sanction from the Emperor of France.

PARIS. August 7, 1885.—Sir. I have received the letter which you have done me the honor to address to me, dated August 1. In it you mention to me some plans for the colonization of Mexico, deemed to have been conceived with intentions hostile to the Government of the United States, and you desire to know if it is true that the Emperer Maximal and France lend their support to these undertakings.
We shall always be ready. Sir, to respond frankly to demands for explanations coming to us from an allied nation when they are inspired by a conciliatory spirit, presented in an amicale cone, and based uon authentic decuments or positive lacts. But I must add that the Emperor is resolved to reject all interpolations which may come to us in a comminatory tone about vague allegations, and based upon documents of a oublous character.
You will understand, sir, that it is not for me to enlighten you concerning the speculations of such or such person who has emigrated to Mexico; but what I know of the Intentions of the Mexican Government enables me to say to you that it proposes to let the emigrants
from the Southern States enter upon is territory only individually, and without arms. They will receive such help as humanity requires; but will be immediately dispersed through the provinces of the empire, and bound to abstain, in their conduct, from everything which might awaken the just susceptibility of neighboring nations. I have, moreover, reason to believe that these dispressions of the Emperor Maximilian are by this time as well known to the Cabinet at Washington as they are to us.

As for France, she has on several occasions, Sir, and with entire frank-reas, stated her resolution to observe in all the internal questions which may egitate or divice the Union au impartial and scrupnious neutrality. We have nothing to offer as a piedge of our intentions but our word, but we

June last, and which I have stated in my answer, dated the 17th.

The Emperor trusts with confidence to the sentiments of which you were the interpreter, and although certain recent mani estations may seem difficult to reconcile with these declarations, his Majesty does not healtate to rely always on the honorableness of the American people.

Accept assurances of the high consideration with which I have the boner to be, Sir, your humble and very obedient servant.

DROUND ELHUYS.

MONSIEUR SIEVARD TO MR. BIGELOW.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, August 24.
1865.—687; Your despatch of August 19, No. 157, bas been received. It is accompanied by a correspondence between yourself and Mr. Drouyn de Lhuys in relation to the alleged schemes of Dr. Gwin and his associates in Mexico.

in Mexico.

It gives me pleasure to say that information was received from that country while that correspondence was going on, and which information seems to be authentic, induces the belief that, the speculations referred to have altogether failed. I observe with stiff more pleasure that Mr. Drouyn de Dhays, is the communication which he addressed to you on the 7th or August, sutherizes us to expect that these schemes and speculations, so far as they were hostile to the United states would be disproved by the authorizes acting in Mexico under the direction of, or in co-operation with, the Emperor of France. It is perceived with referred to, in reply, was regarded by Mr. Drouyn de Lbuys, and which elicited his communication, before referred to, in reply, was regarded by Mr. Drouyn de Lbuys, and which elicited his communication, before referred to, in reply, was regarded by Mr. Drouyn de Lbuys as exceptionable.

It becomes proper for me, under these circumstances, to say that your representation was made in conformity with instructions given you by this department, at that on reviewing these instructions we are not able to discover any given you by this department, at the tone reports and rumors that were in circu atom in regard to schemes of 1r. Gwin and other rebel emissation to show the reports and rumors that were in circu atom in regard to schemes of 1r. Gwin and other rebel emissation to alias prejudicial to a good understar dups between the United States and France. The President is gratified with the renewed assurance which Mr. Drouyn de Lhuys has given us of the Emperor's resolution to observe an imparitial and scruppions neutrality upon all internal questions which may agitate or divide the United States.
