FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The second annual parade of the Metropolitan Fire Department came off yesterday, and proved a decided success. The companies were reviewed at the Metropolitan Hotel by the Commissioners, members of the Governor's staff, mem-bers of the State Legislature and a large number of citizens. The procession passed through several of the principal streets and was everywhere well received.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, Judge Nelson presiding, the question of the legality of further arrests of dealers in lottery tickets until the question of law in the cases at issue are decided, was discussed at considerable length. The important opinion was given by Judge Nelson that no further arrests should be made till the Supreme Court had passed upon the point raised, whether the law contemplated on the raised, whether the law contemplated on the part of lottery dealers a payment of a license or the imposition of a tax for the business. The question came up on the arraignment of two parties, who were discharged on their own recognizance.

Before Justice Dowling, yesterday afternoon, at the Tombs Police Court, the Witnesses against Frank Hellen and W. R. Babcock, were examined, tending to prove an alleged complicity in the Lord bond robbery. Mr. Gunning S. Bedford, Jr., Assistant District attorney, appeared for the people, Mr. John E. Burrill for Jay Cooke & Co., and Messrs. O. L. Stuart, Algernon S. Sullivan and ex-Judge Stuart for the prisoners. Bail was refused and they were remanded, the case being postponed until next Friday afternoon.

remanded, the case being postponed until next Friday afternoon.

The case of Rev. George T. Williams, the Episcopal clergyman, who was recently arrested on a charge of picking a lady's pocket in a Fifth avenue stage, was again before Justice Dodge yesterday. The complainant, Mrs. Morre was not present and offer. Mrs. Moore, was not present, and, after a brief examination of witnesses, the case was adjourned until Thursday, December 6.

James Dougherty was yesterday committed by Coroner Naumann on the charge of being implicated in the murder of Walter Wescott, in First avenue, on the 3d inst. The evidence against him was given by two other men, who were also arrested on the same charges and volunteered to turn State's evidence.

The Centres and delegates of the Fanian Brotherhood in this vicinity held a meeting at the Apollo Rooms, in Prince street, on Sunday night, and addressed a final appeal for aid in the revolution which is about to be inaugurated in Ireland, to all citizens of the Metropolitan district and New Jersey.

The Congressional Retrenchment Committee, while investigating the affairs of the New York Custom House, discovered that the clerks were taxed four dollars a month for political purposes, and, if they refused to pay, were discharged. A very handsome sum has been made by the Collector in the matter of bonded warehouses, and it is stated that he now makes $40,000 a year out of his office. of his office.

An up-town distillery was yesterday taken possession of by the internal revenue officers of the government, and a large quantity of spirits seized on a charge of a violation of the Internal Revenue act. Pro-ceedings for the confiscation of the whisky have been commenced. It is said that several other distilleries have gone into the custody of the collectors till the operations of the proprietors in the burning fluid dodge have been investigated. The exemination of the distillers arrested recently in Brooklyn was contin-ned before Commissioner Newton yesterday. Frederick Cochue, an inspector of in-ternal revenue, will be examined this morning on the charge of receiving a bribe, and John N. Wilson, a distiller of Brooklyn will be tried for giving a bribe to an inspect-or of the revenue. Mr. Wilson had made an affidavit charging Cochue with receiving money from him.

From the reports of the Committees on Sewing Machines at the Maryland Institute Fair of 1832.

"We flid the Elliptic Lock-Stitch Sewing Machine to excel all others."

"It is the most simple in construction, having fewer parts, rendering it easier of management, and requiring less power to work it than any other machine."

"The Elliptic Hook is an improvement of great value, insuring the greatest certainty of execution and prevening the liability of missing stitches, so common in other machines."

"Another valuable improvement is an adjustable feed bar, adapting it to the finest or heaviest fabric."

"It is the only machine we have seen that will gather without changing the tension."

PENNSYLVANIA ANTI - SLAVERY SOCIETY.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Fennsylvania Anti-Sla

I am aincerely yours.

ROBERT COLLYER.

To Lucretta Mott. Robert Purvis.

Chicago, Nov., 19, 1868.
Lucretta Mott arose and said that all had been surprised at the marvelous results which had been accomplished through G.d within the last year or two. We have had more than we could ask or thi. k. She had read letters in the papers concerning the condition of the freedmen. The work of the Anti Slavery Scriety is not ended. Slavery has only nominally been done away. Blaves are in bondagestill. They have been tent to Cuba and other places and sold again into bondage there.

The work of the society is not done. The public heart is in the work of educating these poor slaves. Those who have gone South among them return full of vigor and hope, willing again to go among the poor unfortunates and again engage in the sause. The letters which had been read 'ast night showed that the freedmen were capable of cduration. Some of them had evinced remarkable progress. She urged all to rajes their voices in thanksgiving to God for the great good that He had accomplished through their exertions.

The following report was then read by the Secre-

Interesting Proceedings To-Day.

Impeachment of the President, &c.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society began its sessions this morning in the lecture rot mof the Frankiln Institute. The room was filled to its capacity, meet of the audience being females. At half-past ten o'clock.

Miss Mary Grew came forward and said: As the only member of the Freculive Committee, she felt it incumbe have typen her to say something in relation to the delay in organizine. Ehe could not tell why the officers had not arrived, but supposed they would soon. The speaker was interrupted in her remark by the arrival of Mr. Robert Purvis, Vice President of the Sciety, to whom she yleided the floor.

Mr. Purvis congratulated the members on the prospect before hem. He was glad to see so many veterans in the cause present this morning. Everything is ter ding to a consummation of their work, and under the hand of God a triumph of their principles was sure. The loss of a republican government assuring the rersons, rights of every human being without regard to color, and he might add without regard to sex, was how a fixed fact. Some people are laboring unser a great error in the belief that slavery is ended and our work accomplished. Havery as a legal institution has been abolished; but the curve still remain, in our land, and we have a great work before us in the complete extermination of that sin and all its appendages. On motion of Miss Grew, a business committee of

Your Memorialists therefore respectfully pray that these several acts, doings, omissions of duty, usurpations of power and all other of his malfeavance; in office may be inquired into by the Grand inquest of the Nation, and the tabillot impeacement for the same (if they shall be proven) may be presented to the Serate of the United States stiting as a HIGH COURT OF IMPEACH MENT, and that upon such impeachment he may be removed from office and upon conviction thereof be forever disqualified from holding and epicying "any office of honor, tust or profit under the United States," and be left 'subject to indiciment, trial, juck ment and punishment according t law.

ald that we herefore demand that the negro's right to the ballot shall be protected by Constitutional provision.

Mr. E. M. Parson said that it was only a few years sgo that he had interfered to prevent a mob from burning down a rlace of religions worship. It was only a few years ago that in New York, when Gen. Sigel made his appeal for the Germans to come forward to struggle for freedom, he said America was the battle-ground of freedom. Our ideas have been extended, and we no more have charch burnings. A few years ago a mob rapped at the door of a house in which Mr. Garrison was sleep ing, demanding his life because his views differed from theirs. Our minds have been expanded bevond precedent, and it will only be a short time till we have succeeded in all our efforts.

Mr. A. H. Love said that this is a proposition to put the ballot into the hands of white and black men alike. He did not doubt that we would all live to see the time when wewould all be wondering that such a subject would need discussion. The idea of healtaing to do a duty to the emen who, on every occasion, have been loyal to the Government without a single instance to the centrary.
