From Mexico.

WASHINGTON, November 29th. — The Government has not yet received any offi-cial or other reliable intelligence of the re-ported crossing of General Sedgwick with troops to Matamoras, and therefore thinks the statement untrue. the statement untrue.

the statement untrue. New OBLEANS, November 28th.-A pri-vate letter, dated Baton Rouge, says there, is no truth in the report that three cargoes of small arms had been shipped from the arsenal at that place, intended for a military force to be organized on the Mexican fron-tior. The arms were sent to New York for tier. The arms were sent to New York for needed repairs. New OBLEANS, Nov. 29,-The steamer

Alliance, from Vera Cruz, brings Mexican dates to the 25th inst.

Maximilian's baggage had arrived at Vera Cruz, but he was still at Orizaba, where he has been residing for the last three weeks as a private gentleman, not exercising any of the functions of office. In the port of Vera Cruz were two French and Austrian frigates; also a frigate at Tampico.

pico. Bzzaine was at the City of Mexico. The French now hold that place, Puebla, Orizaba and Vera Cruz, using Cordova as an out-post while fortifying Orizaba, an impregna-ble stronghold, and are also using the Pas del Mercho as an outpost for Vera Cruz. They hold no other norseesions in Mexico.

They hold no other possessions in Mexico. It is rumored that the Church party have offered to raise $6,000,000 if Maximilian con-sents to remain. An American protecto-rate is regarded by the people as the only solution of the present difficulties. On Tues-day, Novbember 6th, the Liberal army day, Novpember oil, the Liberal army moved in overwhelming force on Jalapa which was strongly fortified and garrisoned by the Imperial Mexican and Austrian troops. The cannonading continued for several days at intervals. The Mexican Imperial troops described to the Liberal army, and the Imperial troops ware deiver army, and the Imperial troops were driven army, and the Imperial troops were driven to the Cathedral, where they were cut off from supplies of food and water. The can-nonading was distinctly heard over fifty miles.

The final attack was made on the city on the 11th instant, when the Imperial troops surrendered as prisoners of war, and were so respected. On the 11th Colonel Dapau, with 1,000 troops, arrived at San Bartolmo, on the way to Jalapa, but hearing of the surrender, returned to Orizaba. The Alliance brought despatches for the American and French consuls at this port, the purport of which is unknown.

Washington, Nov. 29 —Although no for-mal official communication has been made to this Government, there is no doubt that information has been verbally furnished of Napoleon's intention to remove the French troops from Mexico at the earliest practicable time, the arrangements for that purpose how being in progress. The reason why the first detachment, or one-third of the troops, were not embarked in November, according to the Emperor's own programme, is, that the other two-thirds might have been seriously damaged by the Liberals, who were persistently pressing them who were persistently pressing them. To obviate such a result, it was deemed most prudent, as a military necessity, to re-move them all at once, and there is now no doubt that this will be done.

Much speculation has been indulged in as Much speculation has been indulged in as to the actual business of Lieutenant General Sherman in accompanying Minister Camp-bell to Mexico. The truth, however, is, that he was designated as an adviser to that gen-tleman, both as regards diplomatic affairs in Mexico, and military movements on the frontiar should an amergency arise to re frontier, should an emergency arise to re-quire a new disposition of our troops; but since the reception of the Emperor's inten-tions, with regard to the removal of his army, it is not supposed that such a neces sity will occur. The last news received by the Government respecting Maximilian, is that he was at Orizaba, the French officials refusing to permit him to leave Mexico unless he formally resigns his crown.

son died at the age of nearly 74 years, at his residence in Clarksville, Tennessee, on Fri-day, the 23d inst. He had long been in feeble health, and his death was not unlooked for. He was born in Robertson looked for. He was born in Robertson county, Tennessee, January 11, 1793; was a lawyer by profession, earning a fair reputa-tion at the bar, and for several years held the office of Circuit Judge. In 1827, he was nominated on the Republican ticket, and by the heavy vote of the negroes of his dis-trict, was elected to Congress. He repre-sented his district during the entire term of President Jackson's Administration. In 1838 he was again elected, and by sub-

At the close of Polk's administration, Mr. Johnson retired to private life, and accepted the Presidency of the Bank of Tennessee, which position he filled till 1859. His extreme age prevented bim from taking an active part in public affairs dur-ing the war; but when his native State was concurred from the rebels and a new Lowis conquered from the rebels and a new Legislature was organized. Mr. Johnson was elected to the State Senate by the Union party. His feeble health, however, would not permit him to assume the duties of the position. He therefore resigned, and remained quietly at his home in Clarksville, He was a man of industrious habits, of fair attainments, and possessed considerable bility as a statesman.

AFRICAN COMMERCE.-The Commercial AFRICAN COMMERCE.—Ine Commercial Agent at Gaboon, Africa, in a letter to the Department of State, dated Sept. 25, trans-mits the accompanying circular of laws af-fecting the commerce of that port, hitherto free. He says: "I learn from an English trader who vestarday had an interview Tree. He says: "I learn from an English trader, who yesterday had an interview with the Commandant Superior, that export and import duties of four per cent., anchor-age duty of one franc per ton; also, pilotage and lighthouse fees are to be imposed. The export duty, as explained by the commandant, will apply to African produce brought into Gaboon, from other ports in a ship coming here to complete her cargo, as many of the American vessels do," Circular.—The merchants are informed

Uncular.—Ine merchants are informed that in consequence of a reduction affecting the sum which the colony receives from the metropolis for its local expenses, they will be, from the 1st of January, 1867, subjected to the payment of annual duties, of patent and license, the tariff of which has been es-tiblished according to the following for the ablished according to the following figures, to wit:

A patent for a wholesale dealer, 800 francs; atent for a retail dealer, 400 francs; a license or a tavern, or to retail liquors, 400 francs. An agreement, which will follow hereter, will determine the conditions of clascification of the merchants in these three ategories.

DRY CHINAMEN.-While Western Europe DRY UHINAMEN. — While Western Europe has been drenched with rain throughout the ummer, it appears from the most accounts that they have been eleven months without ther rain or snow at Pekin. This is in China a great public calamity, which is cought to be averted by fasting, prayer, and applatory ceremonies. In the summer of 864 the drought was so great that the mperor himself made a vow "to rectify conduct and be more anxious for the elfare of his people."
