 910 MEAD & CO.'S. No. 910 CHESTNUT ST. SILVER PLATED WARE, DR. H. AVERY, DENTIST, HAS REMOVED his office to 1738 ARCH street, nois f,m,w,121*

gard to the withdrawal of the French troops from Mexico, and he is preparing a sharp letter to Secretary Seward on the subject. The Senatorial caucus to-day decided to depose from the leading committees of the Senate, Senators Doolittle, Dixon and Cowan. They have another meeting tomorrow, when the question of making other changes will be discussed. There are many Senators who favor the election of a new President of the Senate. If they agree to it, Mr. Wade will be the man. Secretary McCulloch has already commenced reducing the quantity of gold in the treasury in anticipation of the action of Congress. It will be done gradually. The Accident at Zanesville, Ohio. SECOND DESPATCH. known yet. [By the N. Y. Associated Press.]

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 4,-The accident Zanesville, Ohio, is not as bad as at first reported. One span of the bridge, only, was broken down. Two engines, two express cars, one baggage and one passenger car were precipitated into the river. The number of persons injured and killed not

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4 .- One span of the bridge of the Central Ohio Railroad, over the Muskingum river, at Zanesville, Ohio, gave way about 9 o'clock this morning, as the Eastern bound express was crossing, precipitating the engine, tender, two Adams's express and one baggage, and one passenger car a distance of sixty feet on to the rocks at the bottom of the river.

It is not known yet that any person was killed, but many are seriously, and some, perhaps, fatally wounded. At the time of the accident two empty engines were crossirg on the down track, one of which escaped with the loss of its tender. This train contained passengers from St. Louis and Cincinnati, destined for Baltimore and Washington, and was the regular connection of the Baltimore and Ohio road by the way of

The body of ---- Caldwell, of Sheridan's taff, lately deceased, at New Orleans, was on the train, but was recovered without damage. It is considered miraculous that no person was killed outright, and under the latest news, alarm is subsiding.

XXXIXth Congress-Second Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. SENATE.-Mr. Sumner gave notice of his intention to introduce to-morrow a series of resolutions declaring the entire control of Congress over the subject of reconstruction, and the right to exclude the lately rebellious States from representation in Congress and irom voting on amendments, A motion to take up Mr. Chandler's reso-lution offered yesterday, calling for infor-mation about Mexican affairs, was lost, Mr. Chandler called up the bill passed by the House yesterday, repealing the 13th section of an act of 1862, giving amnesty powers to the President. Mr. Chandler's motion was lost, and the Senate then adjourned. House.—A resolution was adopted referring the bounty bill of the last session to the military committee for amendments and the increase of members pay to the Judiclary Committee for repeal. Mr. Wentworth introduced a resolution insisting upon the adoption of the Constitu-tional Amendment before the House will consider the propriety of giving the Southern states congressional representation, which was agreed to.

was spreed to. An additional rule was adopted for the appointment by each Congress of a standing committee on Freedmen's affairs. The Banking Currency act reported at the last session came up in order and was
