XXXIXth Congress-Second Session.

[CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

House.-Mr. Paine (Wis.) offered a reso lution directing the Secretary of Warts communicate the names of all drafted men who failed to report to the proper authorities.

Laid over one day, under the rules.

Mr. Price (Iowa) introduced a bill to re peal so much of section 51 of the Internal Revenue act of last session as imposes a license tax of $100 on retail grocers who grind their own coffee and spices. Read twice, and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

On motion of Mr. Ferry, (Mich.), the Committee on Commerce was instructed to in-quire into the expediency of making appropriations for such harbors on the western coast of Michigan as were surveyed this year by the general government.

Mr. Ingersoll (Ill.) offered the following:

Resolved, That the President of the United. States is hereby respectfully requested to inform the House, if not incompatible with the public interest, how near "the verge of the government? the present body, called a Congress is at present, and if it is not nearer the centre than he formerly supposed. [Laughter.]
Mr. Eldridge (Wis.) demanded the yeas and nays. The yeas and nays were refused, and the resolution was rejected. Mr. Ingersoll asked to withdraw it, but

Speaker informed him that the House had already rejected it.

Mr. Wentworth (III.) offered the following: Resolved. In response to that portion of the President's message that relates to those communities which claimed to be the Contederate States of America, that this House finds in the many acts of disloyalty which have transpired in those communities since its last adjournment, as well as in the recent elections in the loyal States, additional reasons for insisting on the adoption of the pending constitutional amendment before it will consider the propriety of giving them Congressional representation.

CMr. Ancons, (Pa.,) moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost—yeas 37, nays 119 as follows:

Mr. Rice (Me.) introduced a bill conferring jurisdiction on the Court of Claims in cases arising out of treaties with the Cherokee Indians of 1817 and 1819. Read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee. The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. McKee (Ky.); calling on the President for correspondence or information relative to the present condition of affair in Mexico, the present condition of affair in Mexico, came up and was adopted.

The Senate bill of last session, making a grant of land for a railroad from San Francisco to Humboldt's Bay, came up and was postponed for two weeks,

Mr. Boutwell (Mass.), having obtained unanimous consent to make a personal statement, said—I have observed in some newspapers what purports to be a report of some remarks made by me in a caucus of Union members of the House last Saturday evening. The report to which I refer is in many particulars quite incorrect. What I said I said very coolly, and will repeat it substantially to the House. I gave notice to the caucus that it was my purpose, at an early time, to introduce a resolution calling for the correspondence between the State Department and our Minister at Rome in reference to John H. Surratt, and I expressed a desire that my friends should support the passage of the resolution it there should be any opposition or doubt about it.

I then said, I believe, as coolly as I am speaking now, that I had good reason to believe that the Executive Department had had knowledge for many menths of the place where Surratt was; that he was em ployed in the army of the Pope of Rome; that it had for many months a knowledge of the regiment and company in which, and of the name under which he was serving; that it had observed a report of his arrest and escape, and that I thought under all the circumstances, it was time that the country should know whether these facts were so or not. I therefore desired that the resolution which I intended to introduce, and which I did introduce yesterday, should be supported by the Union members of the House. Now, I will say for myself that I have good reason for believing, I believe I have the best reasons for thinking, that so early as May last, the Executive Depart. early as May last, the Executive Department of the Government had knowledge of where Surratt was. I did not say on Saturday night last, nor do I say now, nor have I said anywhere, that the Government has been at fault in not procuring his arrest, been at fault in not procuring his arrest, but when I left this city last July, I did expect that very soon the country would have known that the arrest had been made, but week after week transpired, and month after month passed away, and there was no public information that his arrest had been made. I did say in public speeches that I had good reason to believe that the Government had knowledge of the whereabouts of Surratt.

I have now this to say—Further correspondence has been called for. When it appears the House and the country will see whether or not the Executive Department had that knowledge. The House and the country will also see whether the Government has taken such means as were in its power to procure his early arrest. On that point I have no knowledge whatever. If it shall appear that I have been mistaken as to the fact that the Government had knowledge, there is no person in the House or in the country who will more willingly retract than I shall.

I have this to say further, that while I am opposed to the President of the United States, and to his policy, I shall make no warfare upon him which I do not consider fair and legitimate. I shall not attempt, here or elsewhere, to misrepresent or abuse him. But what I do mean to undertake, and perform to the extent of my ability, i and perform to the extent of my ability, is to ascertain whether he has been true in the great office which he holds. I intend to bring to that inquiry, as one member of the House, a judicial mind. If it shall appear that he has been true, there is no citizen of the country who will more readily recognize the fact. If, on the other hand, it shall prove otherwise, then, as a citizen and as a representative, I shall perform my duty to the country.

the country.

Mr. Schenck (Ohio), on leave, introduced a joint resolution to appoint two managers for the National Asylum for Disabled Vol-nor the National Asylum for Disabled Vol-unteer Soldiers, to fill certain vacancies. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Blaine (Maine) offered a resolution instructing the Secretary of War to furnish, on application of the Adjutant General of any State, certified copies of the muster-out rolls of any volunteer organization of such State serving in the late war. Referred to the Military Committee.

The House, at two o'clock, adjourned.

These 5m side and your feelings uncomfortable? These 5m plaining. Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These 5m plaining upon you, and stand a set of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in his condition, suffering and derangement while in his condition, suffering and derangement while in his conditions, suffering and derangement while in his conditions, suffering and derangement of the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again.
