FROM GALVESTON.

The Surrender of Matamoras.

From Galveston. [To the N. Y. Associated Press.] GALVESTON, Dec. 7.—The Bulletin has advised from Brownsville to the 2d. On the 30th ultimo, subsequent to the reception of General Sheridan's despatches, General Sedgwick appointed J. L. Sheridan, a civilian, as a Commissioner, and demanded the surrender of Canales and his troops as prisoners of war to the United States. Canales replied that he would rather surrender to Escobedo, and did so, General Sedgwick agreeing.

From Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 7.—A meeting of the merchants at the Chamber of Commerce resolved to memorialize the Legislature to press to compel a reduction of the oppressively high tariffs of the Southern railroads as a measure of protecting the middle classes from suffering during the present winter by reason of the high prices of transportation of the necessities of life.

William Wilkerson alias Warren Manuel, who was arrested for a burglary committed at Quincy, Illinois, in September, and who afterwards escaped from jail, was arrested here to-day and taken by Sheriff Humphreys of Adams county.

Subscriptions are being collected for the purpose of building a railroad from Cincinnati, to connect with the Frankfort Railroad near Eminence, Kentucky.

Resolutions were passed to prepare a case to be presented to the United States Courts, in order to procure a decision thereon, in reference to the recent acts of Congress relative to the tax.

CITY BULLETIN.

Riot.—Yesterday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, a dog fight occurred at Water and Spruce streets. A crowd gathered, and some of the spectators commenced betting. Words got rather high, and when the dogs were pretty well used up, some of the men got to wrangling. Finally the affair broke out in a regular rough and tumble fight, in which about twenty persons were engaged.

HOUSE ROBBERY.—This morning, before Alderman Cloues, James Baldwin of Baltimore, was charged with house robbery. Last evening he went to the house of Robt. Haskell, on William street, below Richmond, and engaged board, and when the morning, about four o'clock, he was heard going down stairs, and Mr. Haskell went after him. He had a bundle with him. This was found to contain his own clothing, but the suit which he wore belonged to another boarder in the house. Baldwin was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

DEPARTURE.—The steamship Tonawanda, Captain Jennings, which sailed at 10 o'clock this morning from first wharf below Spruce street, takes out the following passengers for Savannah: Chas. M. Bach, Charles T. Phillips, Robert Reynolds, E. Neumayer, and wife, Mrs. A. E. Gibbs, and two children, Horatio G. Wood, Wm. E. Wood, Mrs. H. Guerd, Geo. Spigler, Frank Crenshaw, John Moulder, Peter Purves and wife, Maria T. Fries, Alexander Purves and wife, Miss F. Purves, Miss Fanny R. Purves, Elizabeth H. Wood, Miss Helen Warner, Emanuel Cohn.

JUVENILE DEPRAVITY.—A girl, twelve years of age, was committed yesterday, by Alderman Shoemaker, for having stolen about three dollars from the money drawer of a bakery, Frankford road, an Oxford street. The father of the girl had been soldier, and during his absence the mother got to drinking. She neglected her children, and the little ones were of immense mischief as they pleased. With nobody to look after them, it is not strange that they should yield to temptation, and the eldest has been sent to prison for stealing.

AN UNGRATEFUL FELLOW.—A colored man named George Gibbs was arrested last night upon the charge of having stolen clothing valued at $100 from his aunt, who had provided him with a room at her house on Lombard street above Sixth. When arrested Gibbs had in his possession 30 feet of new gutta percha garden hose, which is supposed to have been stolen, and awaits an owner at the Fifth Ward Police Station. Gibbs was taken before Ald. Butler, and was committed to answer.

A CLOTHING THEIF.—James Park was arrested yesterday for the larceny of clothing from a house at St. John and Noble streets. He was caught leaving the house with the clothing in his possession. He was arraigned before Ald. Toland and was committed in default of $600 bail.

AN INTERESTING MEETING.—The claims of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Protestant Episcopal Freedmen's Commission will be presented to-morrow evening, at St. Luke's church, Thirteenth street below Spruce. Addresses will be made by General O. O. Howard, Rev. Dr. Newton and others.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—John McShiffery was run over by a train of cars on the North Pennsylvania Railroad, at Floga station, this morning, about nine o'clock, and was killed. Coroner Daniels was notified to hold an inquest.

FOND OF FINE ARTS.—A man named George Schell, hailing from New York, was arrested at Eighth and Market streets yesterday, for the larceny of a lot of pictures. He was taken before Alderman Jones and was held in $500 bail to answer at court.
