THE PARAGUAYAN WAR. Active Hostile Preparations Still Going On.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 29.—In Rio Janeiro the last fortnight has been eventful. War preparations are urging with utmost haste, The iron-clad Cabral, commanded by Lieut. Paes Leme, steamed for the Plate upon the 15th inst., and two steamers carrying muni-tions and troops are to leave in a day or two for Paraguay. Of the ten thousand national guards called upon the 9th to service for the war, four hundred have already been drafted war, four function have already been drafted in the city, and others are arriving from adjoining points to be forwarded without delay to Paraguay. Recruiting and enlisting are pushing in every point and all the officers under process of court martial have been ordered to active duty. Marchal de Campo, the Marquis de Cayles left on the Campo, the Marquis de Caxias, left on the 22d for the River Plate, accompanied with his staff, on board the Carmel, and all be-tokens the resolution of the imperial government to spare no means to carry on the war and render their forces capable of offensive Marshal Caxias' staff is composed of the

The affair caused great excitement and comment; one side maintaining that the speakers were using seditious language, and were inciting the people to massacre the Portuguese; the other side asserting that the disburbance was purposely provoked by the Chief of Police, and was expected, and that the battalion had been brought to that spot in order to irritate the meeting and give an excuse for arresting the three speakers.

The charges which the press and people of Buenos Ayres made against General Mitre may be summed up as follows;—First, that he neglected to forward a reinforcement of three thousand men demanded by Porto Alegre after the capture of Curuzu. The demand was made in order to be able to attack Curupaity at once. Second, That he lost fifteen days of precious time by falling into the trap which Lopez laid for him when the latter proposed the late peace interview. The time thus gained by Lopez was used in additional fortifications and in a transit him a printing defences and in was used in additional fortifications and in strengthening his existing defences and in-trenchments around Curupaity to such an extent that they are now impregnable. Third, That he was too precipitate in not allowing the squadron to bombard the fort-ress some hours longer before attacking by land.

The Late Plenary Council's Greeting to the Pope, and the Pope's Reply
BALTIMORE, December 7.—The Prelates of the Catholic Church lately in session here sent a cordial greeting to the Pope through the Atlantic cable. It left Baltimore on the 9th of October, and reached Rome the same afternoon, in about fifteen minutes, making allowance for the difference of time.

The wording of the telegraph was as follows:
Seven archbishops and forry bishops, met in council, unanimously salute your Holiness, wishing you long life, with the preservation of all the ancient and sacred rights of the Holy See.

This despatch was answered by the following letter, addressed by his direction to our most reverend archbishop by Cardinal Barnabo, dated Oct. 24: The telegram which the bishops of the States of the American Union, assembled in council, had the happy thought to address to the Holy Father, proved to be of great comfort and conso-lation to His Holiness, and so highly did he appreciate its spirit that he ordered it to be immediately published in the official journal of Rome. for the edification of his journal of 'Rome, for the edification of his Roman people, and of the faithful at large. His Holiness looks with interest for the acts and decrees of the Pienary Council, which he expects to receive in due time, and from which he hopes a new impulsaered a continuous and some continuous acts. which he hopes a new impulse and a contin-ued increase to religion in the United States will result. He has, however, directed me to express directly to your amplitude, and through you to all your colleagues, his great pleasure; and to request your colleagues, his great pleasure; and to request you to thank them for the interest they have taken and still take in defending the Holy See, and in vindicating its contested rights. Moreover, His Holiness has learned with the college. His Holiness has learned with satisfaction His Holiness has learned with satisfaction that the Papal loan is succeeding, also through the co-operation of the American Episcopals. He thanks them particularly for this, and now expresses the hope that such co-operation will not cease, and that thence a prosperous result may be obtained. In the meantime, I pray the Lord that He long preserve and prosper you.

Most affectionately, your servant,

ALEXANDER CARDINAL BARNABO,

Rome, FROM THE PROPAGANDA, 24th Oc-To the Most Rev. Martin John Spaulding, Archbishop of Baltimore.

SHOCKING CASUALTY.-One of the most shocking casualties, says the Covington (Ga.) Examiner, occurred on last Sabbath, between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in this county, about five miles from this city, this county, about five miles from this city, that it has ever been our duty to record. Mr. James Skinner, a farmer living on the plantation of Major Lee, for want of sufficient outbuildings, stored his cotton, as he gathered it from the field, in a portion of his dwelling. On Sabbath evening Mr. Skinner and his wife took a walk into the plantation, leaving two of their childrenone a boy four or five years old, and the other an infant about nine months oldby the fire in the house. The parents had by the fire in the house. The parents had been absent but a short time, when they discovered that their dwelling was in flames.
It appears that the little boy, by some means, had set fire to the loose cotton, which filled the room with a blaze in a few minutes. Alarmed at what he had done, he ran out without thinking of his infant sister that had been left in his care. The distressed parents reached the house, but too left to the course reached the house, but too late to rescue their infant from the burning building, who perished in the flames, together with all of their household goods, leaving them nothing but the clothing they had on their persons.

HORSE MEAT BUTCHER SHOPS -A late Paris letter says—"Two of these establish-Paris letter says—"Two of these establishments are sustained in this city, but the horse at one of these slaughter hoases are not served for table; they are animals spoiled by disease, and are merchandise only so far as hoofs, hide, teeth, hair and grease are concerned. The universal testimony as to horse meat concurs with that which army officers and soldiers have given—that it is very like soldlers have given—that it is very like beef, only that it is coarser grained and of darker color. It is a curious fact that white and and grey horses are more frequently diseased than any others, their lungs being unseased than any others, their lungs being not rarely a mass of corruption, thus verifying the old adage, 'as poor as a white horse.' The horses are killed instantly by a blow on the head, or by being pierced at the heart."

At Cooper Institute yesterday the Women's Rights Convention met again, and was presided over by Mrs. Susan B. Anthony. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Olympia Brown, Bessie Bisbee, Parker Pillsbury, Henry B. Blackwell and others. A lively discussion ensued at the close on the subject of Christianity in churches and statesmanship in Congress.

The firm of Folger & Tibbs, No. 54 Leonard street, have, it is alleged been victimizing about fifty or sixty merchants of the city to an amount approximating $300,000, It is stated that the firm represented themselves to have a cash capital of $40,000, and obtained thereby large amounts of goods, which they immediately shipped South and West, and auctioned off at prices far below their value, never paying the original owners even the smallest amount. Recently, it seems, a man named Klinck bought out the concern, or pretended to do so; but one of the victims, suspecting matters were not all right, made affidavit, which placed the detectives upon their track and three of the parties have been arrested. The rest are being closely pursued. The and three of the parties have been arrested. The rest are being closely pursued. The case was to have been examined at the Tombs yesterday, but was postponed, owing to the absence of the District Attorney.
One of the parties, W. C. Williams, is also charged with forging a check on the Central National Bank to the amount of $3,000.

IMPROVEMENTS IN GOLD REFINING.—
In the annual report of the Directors of the Mint a complimentary reference is made to certain important improvements in the mode of parting gold and allver, made and introduced by Andrew Mason, Eig., Melter and Refiner in the New York Assay Office. The improvements are to be introduced into all the Branch Mints. These are of general interest to refining establishments, and consists, first, in so adjusting the melts for granulating that the pure gold, instead of gold bullion, shall constitute one-third of the mixed metal; and, secondly, in burning the gold in strong sulphurle acid after one treatment in the nitricacid.

The first charge of nitric acid is to be made larger than the first in the old process, but larger than the first in the old process, but twenty per cent less than the amount in both, while the consumption of fuel is greatly reduced and much disagreeable labor removed. It is estimated that the saving in one year's business would amount to $10,000, rating the cost of refining at fifty per cent. greater than in New York.
