was the general impression this morning, that the firing of the theatre was the work of incendiarism. We did not learn that any particular one had been suspected. It was stated to us, however, on good authority, that on yesterday evening there was a mis-understanding between the manager and some of the actors in regard to salaries. Some of the actors had declued to play any more until they were paid. The matter, i was finally settled, or so arranged, and the

The President of the Georgia Senate said, the other day, "it was the duty of the people to obey all the laws and cleave to the Con-stitution, but that human forbearance had its limits, and the worm would turn if trod-den upon." Georgia, in her original charac-ter of. "The Worm.", will make a sensation. "We supposed that the last severa turn which she had would satisfy her for a while,
