OITY BULLETIN.

FEMALE MEDICAL COLLEGE.-The seventeenth annual session of the Female Medical College of Pennsylvania opened a short time since. The introductory lecture was delivered by Prof. Ann Preston, before a full and highly appreciative audience. The class for the present session promises to be a fine one and in talent and in numbers indicates that the cause of medical education for women is enlisting educated and true women in its ranks. The ladies of our city are invited to visit the College on College are invited to visit the College on College avenue and Twenty-second streets. Its doors are open for the admission of students for a partial course, to those desiring to in-form themselves on special subjects as part of a liberal streets. of a liberal education.

IILLEGAL DISTILLATION.-Timothy Mc-Carthy was before Commissioner Sergeant yesterday upon the charge of removing whisky from a distillery other than to a bonded warehouse. McCarthy was held in $1,000 bail to answer. Patrick McCarvey was before Commissioner Smith on the charge of distilling without giving national control of the contro charge of distilling without giving notice or bond as required by law. He was held in $1,000 bail to answer. Dennis McCall was also before the Commissioner upon the same charge, and was held in $1,000 bail to answer.

FIRE AT A WOOLEN MILL,—Last evening about half-past six o'clock, a fire broke out in a one-story building attached to Pollock & Campbell's woolen mill. on Washington avenue, below Twenty first street, used as a picker room. The firemen were promptly on the spot, and by their exertions the flames were confined to the picker room. This, however, was destroyed, together with its contents. The mill was but slightly The entire loss is estimated at about $8,000.

NEW PIERS IN THE DELAWARE, - The new pier in the Delaware, about one mile below the Navy Yard, will be completed in about ten days. It is 60 feet in width, and extends into the river 200 feet from the bulk head. The pier is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad. Piers Nos. 13 and 18 at Port Richmond, belonging to the Reading Railroad, are being widened and extended to the Port Warden's line, a distance of CHARITABLE BEQUESTS.—The will of the late Elizabeth Hoge, of Philadelphia, was received at the office of the Register of Wills yesterday. It contains the following liberal bequests: $5 000 to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, for the use of such disa-bled ministers and their families as the trustees may designate; also, $3,000 to the Board of Domestic Missions connected with the same church.

Collection of Personal Tax.-The Collectors of Personal or Poll Tax, appointed by the Receiver of Taxes a few weeks previous to the last election, in each of the Wards, have returned the sum of $5,669 32 as the aggregate amount collected. This is a much larger sum than was ever returned under the old system, when payment was made to the aldermen.

RIOTOUS FIREMAN.-Thomas J. Dagney, a member of the Hope Fire Company, was badly cut in the face and two of his teeth knocked out last evening by being struck with a firehorn. The act was committed by a member of another fire company while passing the Hope. The wound of Mr. Dagney was dressed at the Hospital.

HURT IN A FIGHT.—Anthony Joslin, aged 55 years, living at No. 5 Asbury street, was kicked in the abdomen during a drunken fight in Bedford street, near Seventh, on Sunday night, and so badly injured that his life is despaired of. He was admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital yesterday after-

STABLE DESTROYED BY FIRE,-About half-pastsix o'clock, last evening, the stable of Jacob Tyson, located at the corner of Cumberland and Armat streets, Germantown, Twenty-second Ward, was entirely destroyed by fire. Two horses were burned

PROFESSOR APPOINTED .- Dr. Von. Moschizisker has been appointed professor of clinics and clinical lecturer, and of diseases of the eye and ear at the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery. It has been found necessary to make a separate chair in this school for this purpose. FATAL RESULT.-James Kennedy died at the Penn Hospital yesterday, from the effects of injuries received in a coal mine in Schuylkill county, on the 11th inst.

CHOICE ARTICLES FOR GENTLEMEN.— Such as Gloves and Gauntlets Mufflers, Wrist warmers, etc., at the Furnishing Depot of C. Henry Love, N. W. corner of Fifth and Chestant streets.

LADIES, leave your orders for Christmas Cakes at A. Upham's, 630 Pine street. FINE CONFECTIONERY AT REDUCED PRIMES.—The high rates which have ruled for Confectionery of all kinds for seme time past, has diminished the consumption of it to sume exten, hence we note with pleasure that Messrs. George Miller & Son, No. 610 Market street, have reduced their rates from twenty to thirty per cent below the regular prices. As this fathe season when all indulge more or less in sweetmeas, this reduction in prices is exceedingly opportune. We doubt not their sales will be largely increased by the change.

TRY OUR YANKEE BUNNS. Morse & Co., 903 and 904 Arch street.

SUITABLE FOR PRESENTATION.—C. Henry Love, at the N. W. corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets. has just opened a choice assortment of Fancy Silk Scarfs, Neckties, Gloves, Emoking Jackets, etc., which are well adapted for Hollday Gifts.

MAGNIFICENT FIELD FOR MEN OF EN-TERPHISE.—What we predicted some days ago about the great business future of the "American Cowmilker," now on exhibition at 412 Chestnut street, is in a fair way of being realized at an early day, if we may judge from the growing demand for the machines themselves, and the rights to sell them, which are crowding in upon the owners of this invaluable patent from all parts of the State. It is certainly one of the most simple and common-sense inventions of the age. Go and examine it.—The Press, Dec. 15.

A NEW CITY CHARTER.—The city charter of Camden has become so lumbered up with amendments and supplements that its original provisions have been rendered nearly obsolete. A proposition has been made to provide the city with a new one sufficiently comprehensive and full to meet all the emergencies and requirements of that rapidly increasing city. The lawyers themselves can scarcely tell what provisions are or are are not operative at the present time. After the new charter has been drawn up by persons competent for the task, it is to be submitted to a vote of the people for ratification, at an election which may be ordered for that purpose. This is a measure which ought to be accomplished at as early and practical a day as possible, for the interests of the city depend it of the city demand it. THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT,-The work the monument recently erected to the soldiers from Camden county, who fell in the battles for freedom, is now completed. It is a creditable memento to their brayery, but its location should have been within the court house enclosure. That is the most

Going Ahead. - The good citizens of Millville, Cumberland county, who have the future educational interests of the rising generation at heart, are taking measures to tablish night schools in that thriving village.

HADDONFIELD.—The Ladies' Union of the Haddonfield Baptist Church are making preparations to give a grand supper in the Town Hall, on Thursday next, the proceeds of which will be applied to purposes of benavolence.

THE PARKS.—The cold weather has given the lovers of ice and skating rare opportuni-ties for enjoyment by the opening of the parks, all of which have been placed in excellent condition.
