BOSTON, Dec. 18 .- The correspondence connected with the removal of Gen. Schouler from the office of Adjutant General of this State is published, from which it appears that the reasons assigned by Gov. Bullock for making the removal are of a political nature, and based principally upon the circular issued by Gen. Schouler opposing the election of Gen. Butler for Congress.

The Mississippi Levees.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 18,—No bids have been received for the purchase of $1,000,000 worth of levee bonds, advertised for in New Orleans. The failure is said to have been owing to the fact that the law prohibits the sale of these securities at less than par.

The unsettled condition of political affairs is also said to have had the effect of preventing the issue of proposals.

It is understood that the Board of Levee Commissioners will go on with the work of repairing the levees, notwithstanding the failure of the loan, and confidence is expressed that their safety will be secured be-fore the next flood shall break over the Finance and Business-Dec. 18, 1866. The Stock Market opened this morning with mo spirit than has prevailed for some weeks past, and there was quite a strong speculative demand for Reading and Catawissa Railroads. The upward turn in New York and the favorable statement of the Banks has caused a more confident tone, and the "bulls," af ter being well hammered for weeks past, have taken fresh courage. Catawissa Railroad Preferred, which was the most active on the list, sold up to 30%—a rise of 1%, and Reading Railroad sold at 55%—an advance of 3. Pennsylvania Railroad was firm at 54%; Camder and Amboy Railroad at 123%; Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad at 125; Germantown Railroad at 61%; Elmira Railroad Preferred at 42; the Common stock at 30, and North Pennsylvania Railroad at 37. Mr. Price, from the same committee, reported back with soudry amendments the House bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Puget's Sound, on Admiralty Islet, in Washington Territory. to the Columbia river. The amendments were agreed to and Mr. Price explained the objects of the bill. It was to aid in the construction of a railroad to connect with a road authorized at the last seasion, with Puge's Sound. It made like grants of land with toose made in that bill. The road was to be nothing more nor less than a continuation of the Oregon and California Railroad till it struck Admiralty Inlet.

Mr. Washburne (III.) suggested the postponement of the bill till the recond Tuesday in January. The House had last session asked for information as to the quantity of public land already appropriated. That information had not yet been received, at least he had not seen it. Davis (Ky.) rose and said he presumed Mr.
Trumbull intended his remarks more for the Illinois Legislature than for the Senate of the United States. He understood there was a senatorial election pending there, and he hoped Mr. Trumbuli would succeed. Mr. Trumbull replied angrily to Mr. Davis, saying that he was not influenced by any such motives as those imputed to The morning hour expired, and the subject of the petition went over.
