did not endeavor to get Williams on the second car. This concluded the evidence, and the Judge charged the Jury. He said that there was no evidence produced to show that the company refused to carry the colored man; at the time the transaction took place, as the law then stood, the company had a right to make rules as to who should ride or not in the employees of the road was not to carry the employes of the road was not to carry out the regulations of the company, then the jury can render a verdict in favor of complainant. Again, if the colored man got in the car, and intended to pay his fare, and they refused to carry him, then he was entitled to damages. There is no doubt but that the colored man was told to get on the car.

The jup y then rendered a verdict in favor of defendant. Mr. Goforth, previous to the charge of the Judge, submitted, in writing, charge of the Judge, submitted, in Writing, that the company have no right to make regulations for the exclusion of colored people from their cars, and that they can make no difference between riding on the platform and in the body of the car.

THE CASE OF CONOVER.-Yesterday Judge Fisher, in the Criminal Court, at Washing-ton, gave his opinion on the demurrer in the case of Sanford Conover, indicted for perjury respecting the assassination of Presi-dent Lincoln. The Judge over-ruled the demurrer, giving his reasons in an elaborate opinion, in which he discussed the powers of Congress in taking the testimony of wit-nesses, and paid a high compliment to Judge "Advocate-General Holt, whose character had been assailed because of his official ac-tion in relation to this case. The counsel for the prosecution took exceptions to the ruling of the Court, and prayed an appeal to the Court in general term, which was granted. If that Court sustains Judge Fisher, as is probable, Conover will doubt-less be brought to trial at the next ensuing term of the Criminal Court for the District
