It seems that one of the accused sold a lo of waste paper and rags to Mr. Robert Shaw, doing business on the wharf, and received as payment a check on the Corn Exchange Bank for $75. This check has not been presented at the bank, but a third party was arrested with a forced check. party was arrested with a forged check calling for $470 50 on the same bank, and purporting to have been signed by Mr. Shaw. This person states that he was told to collect the money by the accused. They were committed.

TRINITY CHURCH FAIR.—The ladies connected with the Trinity Church, Catherine, above Second street, are now holding a Fair at Washington Building, Third street, above Spruce. The fancy and other articles for sale are tasteful and elegant. A beautiful fire horn is on the stand to be voted for, also a base-hall set, but the reader to expression. a base-ball set; but the reader, to appreciate the preparations, should make a visit to the Fair. The purpose for which the funds thus raised are to be devoted, is a most worthy one, and deserves a liberal encouragement We may add that paintings of Lincoln, by Waugh, and General Grant, by Lambdin, will also be voted for. A fine portrait of General Meade also graces the Fair.

A PLEASANT FAIR.—The ladies connected with the Church of the Nativity, at the corner of Eleventh and Mount Vernon streets, are now holding a fair in the basement of the church, for the sale of useful and fancy articles. MR. J. BRENNAN, Diamond Dealer and Jeweler, No. 13, South Eighth LADIES' FANCY FURS FOR HOLIDAY PRE-

LADLES' FANCY FURS FOR HOLIDAY PRESENTS—It is gratifying to find that the comparative stagnation in trade is not universal. The popular old house of Messrs. A. K. & F. K. Womrath. 4!7 Arch street, who may insty besaid to stand at the head of the fancy fur trade in this country, never presented a more animated appearance than it dees now. It is true there is much that conspires to this result. Their tock of elegant, fashionable and expensive furs is princely, embracing many magnificent things in the Fur line that are scarcely found outside of their estabilshment. Then their facilities for procuring the choicest of furs from all parts of the world—walch give them great advantages in point of prices—and their wide and well-earned reputation for dealing with their customers as if every one of them was an expert judge of the article, all combine to make this house a fayorite, not only here, but to buyers throughout the United States. Another thing has added immensely to their business this season, and that is that the people have learned that their stock of medium price goods is the best in the city, and that their prices hroughout are lower than the same class of goods can be bought at anywhere else.

A FACT WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION.-A FACT WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION.—
Having occasion to purchase some articles in the confectionery line yesterday, we called up in the old established house of Miller & Sons, No. 610 Market street, and were much surprised to find their prices much below what we had been paving for precisely the same goods elsewhere. As this is the season when fruit and confectionery are so largely indulged in, we make the chove statement for the benefit of our readers. The above firm manufacture their entire stock of sweetments, and their great facilities for doing business enables them to dipose of it at unprecedented low rates, we noticed a fine display of Fancy Boxes, Tree Ornaments. Prunes, Figs, Raisins, Dates, Almends, etc., etc., all of which were marked at correspondingly low rates.

REBUILT.—By far the greatest single loss occurring from the Portland fire, was that of the immense sugar-house owned by J. B. Brown & Sons. We rejoice to learn that they have now completed externally their new building. It is nine stories high in front and eight in the rear. The contractors began to lay the brick September 20, and have put two million five hundred them. have put two million five hundred thousand into the building since that time. It is expected that the works will begin to turn out sugar in March next.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CHESTNUT.—The dramatic novelty of last night was Mr. James Schonberg's dramstization of Reade's "Griffith Gaunt," at the Chestnut. It attracted a large house, from the fact that Daly's version will be given at the Arch next week. Many of our readers are familiar with the story ve epitomize it as given last night. Griffith Gaunt, supposed heir to a large property in Cumberland, England, is in love with Miss Kate Peyton, also a possible heir to the same property. Gaunt is a Protestant and Miss Peyton a Catholic. Miss Peyton has another lover in the person of Sir George Neville, and Gaunt and Neville fight a duel which is interrupted by her entrance, after Gaunt has been wounded. Soon after Gaunt and Miss Peyton are married and live hap-pily enought save some trouble arising from the interference of Father Leonard, a priest in the domestic arrangements of the Gaunt family. Here a jealous waiting maid, Caroline Ryder, comes in to add to the trouble, which culminates in Gaunt knockrouse, when eniminates in Gaunt knock-ing down the priest, insulting his wife and rushing off an hundred miles to another county. Here he has brain fever. He thinks his wife false, and under a certain thinks his wife false, and under a certain kind of pressure marries Miss Mercy Vint, a complete contrast, in the way of gentleness to his high spirited wife Kate. About this period Gaunt, concealing his second marriage, visits his original wife, who receives him furiously, after learning from Caroline Ryder that he has deceived Mercy Vint. That same night Gaunt disappears, and so does Tom Leicester, his foster brother, who strikingly resembles him. Mrs. Gaunt No. 1 is accused of the murder of Gaunt, and tried therefor. After an exciting time it is ascertained that an exciting time it is ascertained that Leicester has fallen into a most while drunk and has been eaten by fishes. Gaunt re-appears and his wife, owing to the exertions of Mercy Vint, is acquitted in triumph. The parts of Gaunt and Tom Leicester were splendidly played by Mr. G. H. Clarke. Miss Heron did not do so well as Kate Peyron. Miss Cooper was admirable on Mercy. ton. Miss Cooper was admirable as Mercy Vint, and we may say the same of Mrs. Perry as Caroline Ryder, Mrs. Baker in the minor part of Mrs. Vint, Mr. Dubois as Neville, Mr. Jennings as Father Leonard, Mr. Woolf as Mr. Atkins, and Mr. Mackay as Mr. Houseman, a lawyer. The play will be repeated this evening.

THE WALNUT.—Mr. J. S. Clarke appears this evening in "The Comedy of Errors." "The Merchant's Clerks" and "Turning the Tables."

THE ARCH.—Mr. F. S. Chanfrau appears to night in "Our American Cousin at Home" and "The Debutante," THE AMERICAN.—"The Black Crook." ASSEMBLY BUILDING.—Signor Blitz.

NATIONAL HALL,—The Old Folks. CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS.-By the official announcement it will be seen that the usual Christmas entertainments at the Academy of Music will be given this year. On Christmas afternoon "The Arabian Nights Entertainment" will be given, with fifty tableaux of the most gorgeous character. The vast building will be thronged with eager expectants, both young and old, and the spectacle will be enjoyed to the full.

CALCUTTA COPAL RESINS .- The Comptes Rendus contains some new researches by H. Violette on these resins, which previously had been found soluble in ether, turpentine, benzole, petroleum and other hydron carbons, as well as vegetable oils, only after losing about twenty-five per cent. of their weight by distillation. Violette's experiments show that these resins, heated in a closed vessel at a temperature between 350 or 400°C., or 662 and 752° Fahr., acquire after cooling, without losing any of their weight, the property of dissolving, hot or cold, in the above named liquids, and forming excellent varnishes. He finds also that copal resin, heated as stated, under pressure, with one-third of drying linseed oil and onethird of essence of turpentine, gives directly, llear limbid varnish of a beautiful slightly lemon color, perfectly adapted for carriages, and for the inside as well as the outside of rooms, where delicate wen as the outside of rooms, where delicate painting is required. Under the double influence of heat and pressure this resin acquires new properties. Manufacturers, who would take advantage of this discovery, must bear in mind the retort used will be subject to a pressure of at least 300 lbs. to the square inch.

THE VIRGINIA VINEYARDS.—There is reason to believe that the vineyards of the Piedmont valley will become an important source of wealth to Virginia. The surrounding mountain ranges give them a warm and even climate, which is peculiarly favorable to grape culture. They are out free from rust and milder. During liarly lavorable to grape culture. They are quite free from rust and mildew. During the last season, when even the excellent vineyarns of Erie, in this State, suffered severely, those in Piedmont escaped uninjured. The grapes ripen there nearly a month earlier than our New York varieties, and are said to equal, if not to surpass them in flavor. The yield is also claimed to be more abundant.—N. Y. Post.

POST OFFICES IN THE SOUTH,-The Postmaster General has decided to discontinue all post offices in the Southern States where the late postmasters fail to make a return of money and stamps in their hands at the beginning of the war. Very few of the old offices in the Southern States have thus far offices in the Southern States have thus lar been 're-opened, and except where special applications are made, no more will be for sometime to come. During the present week one hundred and thirty-six offices in North Carolina were thus officially designated as discontinued. Out of eight thousand post offices in North Carolina, only three thousand have thus for hear re-opened. sand have thus far been re-opened.

THE MINT.—The Superintendent of the Mint shows that the gold, silver and copper coinage from 1793 to 1868, inclusive, is $987, 500,000. The gold coinage was about $845, 500,000; the silver, $136,333,333, and the copper, $5,500,000. The total coinage of the Branch Mint at San Francisco during the first sight months of this record received. first eight months of this year, was $9,642,000 of gold, and nearly $500,000 in silver. As there was a subsequent increase, the Directors think that the business of the entire year will be fully up to the average.

SUBSCRIPTION circulars are now out in Baltimere proposing a general subscription to erect a marble monument over the remains of the late Chief Justice Roger B.
