INCIDENT TO A SLEIGH RIDE __] again becomes our duty to place on record an occurrence which will probably result in the death of a young man and the arrest of another on the charge of murder. Monday afternoon James S. Stewart, of the coal firm of Dickson, Stewart & Co., Lloyd Jamison and Wm. Dodds, left the city in a sleigh, and proceeded out the Greensburg turnpike to the toward & Co. to the tavern of George Weiss, three miles beyond Turtle Creek, where they stopped, and whilst warming and refreshing them-selves, James Gwin, a resident in the neigh-barbood geme in our decounted badded selves, James Gwin, a resident in the neigh-borhood, came in and accused Dodds of having, some time previous, stolen a dog from him. Dodds, who also lives in the vi-cinity, denied the accusation, and an alterca-tion ensued. Gwin ran out of the tavern and across the road to a blacksmith shop, where he procured a coal digger's pick (a new one), with which he returned. Meeting Dodds at the door of the tavern, he struck him with the pick in the left side, the point penetrating through to the back. Gwin then fied, and Dodds, bleeding profusely, was taken into the tavern. The neighbor-hood physician was called in, and Mr. Dick-son, of this city, sent for. At the latest ac-counts last evening Dodds was sinking counts last evening Dodds was sinking rapidly, and his death expected. His occupation was that of hauling coal by contract, and his character in the vicinity that of a peaceable, quiet young man. Gwin for-merly resided at Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county. The police are after him, and it is hoped they will succeed in appre-hending him.—Pittsburgh Gazette. LADIES' DRESSES AND THEIR COST .-- A lady correspondent of a San Francisco pa-per writes: "One lady of my acquaintance, of refined and cultivated tastes, and noted for her tasteful wardrobe for home as well street costumes, expends upon it $10 per month. Of course, her own graceful handiwork is apparent in a large proportion of her apparel. Another, less circumscribed, her apparel. Another, less circumscribed, dresses very handsomely on $15 per month; and still another, whose genteel outfit at-tracts many an observant eye upon Mont-gomery street, succeeds in keeping her ex-penditures within $30 per month. These are not suppositional cases, nor isolated ones; their name is 'legion,'" Commenting upon this item, the editor remarks: "We suggest to the ladies in question that they can make a good thing of it, financially, by opening a school in this eity for the purpose of teaching women how to dress with taste and econo-my. If they can teach women how to get themselves up in good shape at an expense themselves up in good shape at an expense of from $120 to $240 per annum, we venture to say they can realize more than the teachers of any other art in existence."

AN INCIDENT OF THE ELECTION .- The AN INCIDENT OF THE ELECTION.—The Newburyport Heraid says one the intelli-gent and independent voters, on Monday last, with a brick in his hat, was given a dollar to vote a certain ticket. He reached the beliet how setily but was a little cert dollar to vote a certain ticket. He reached the ballot-box safely, but was a little con-fused in mind, and through his watering eyes all things appeared dim, like the fag end of dissolving views, when with a sud-den jerk he thrust the greenback into the bollot-box and put the ballot in his pocket, and started for home. Some of the boys tried to tell him that it was not a religious meeting, and the box where he had depomeeting, and the box where he had depo-sited his money, was not a contribution box; but he hurried homeneither wiser nor richer from his day's work from his day's work.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-Isaao F. Redfield, of Boston, has been appointed, and has accepted a position abroad to look after the interests of the United States pending in the English and French Courts, involving nearly twenty millions of dollars. General Sherman's mission to Mexico has proved a total failure. He is said to be creatly disgusted with the whole matter. A deputation of woolgrowers are in conference to-day with the Finance Committee on the tariff.

Secretary McCulloch will not send the new tariff bill, prepared by Mr. Wells, to the Committee until next week.

Jeff. Davis's counsel are again here trying to get some action so as to secure his speedy trial.

[By the U.S. Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.-Most of the members of Congress have already left here for their homes, and on the excursion to New Orleans, and the city is already very dull and quiet.

The Cabinet meeting is in session at the White House, as usual, to-day, and nothing of interest has transpired at the Executive Mansion this morning. It is understood that upon the further investigation of the facts connected with the disposition of the United States troops in Missouri, the Congressional delegation from that State are satisfied, and will withdraw their opposition to the policy pursued by General Grant in reference to the difficulties in that State.
