Arrival of the Corsica.

[By the U. S. Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, December 22.—The steamship

Corsica, with dates from Havana to the 15th, arrived this morning. The following is her

Havana and Mexican advised.

HAVANA, December 15.—The Spanish mail steamer Paris arrived yesterday from Vera Cruz, and brings dates from that port to the 6th inst., and from the city of Mexico to the the 2d.

The proclamation of Maximilian announcing his determination to remain in Mexico was published on the 5th.

The general impression is that Maximilian will run away the first chance he gets, and a passenger by this steamer states that a portion of the imperial baggage has come by the Paris.

His private secretary, Mr. Polakont, came up by the last English steamer, and has gone to New York on the way to Europe.

The Imperial papers report that the decision of Maximilian was received throughout the country by bell-ringing, fireworks and illuminations; but the Estafette, Marshal Bazaine's official organ, says all this was done by the clergy and officials of the Imperial Government; that the people are disgusted, and will never submit to his return to Mexico as the head of the Government, and consequently the French party is desirous that Maximilian should leave his hands. It says:

"The French 'bayonets' brought him there, and have supported him thus far, and therefore to them belongs to guard the throne he vacates."

Mazatlan has been occupied by Corona and his Liberals.

Carvajal has threatened Tezco, in the valley of Mexico, threatening 24 hours for its surrender.

The gunboat Winocski has gone to Tampico to meet Minister Campbell, with despatches brought out here by Capt. Schultz, of New York.

There is nothing of interest here. Americans continue to arrive here.

The steamship Mississippi arrived off this port on Thursday night, having left Sandy Hook, last Sunday morning. She was obliged to anchor account of the fog, and the anchor got foul. She has made the quickest passage of any screw steamer.

From Nassau.

[By the United States Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—We extract the following from late files of the Nassau Guard-ian, promptly furnished to the United States and European News Association by the Purser of the steamship Corsica:

It was reported at Nassau that a copper ore ship was wrecked on the north side of Birds Rock, near Aquia, on the 20th of October, and that all hands on board and the cargo were lost.

The accounts of the late hurricane at St.

Thomas show it to have been one of unexpected severity. The steamship company's new wharf was completely destroyed by a bark being driven through it. The damage to this alone will exceed $100,000.

The hurricane at Turk's Island was equally severe. At the Corcos Islands a large number of wrecking schooners were lost, with all on board. The number of lives lost at the Corcos was estimated at fifty.

At Nassau earnest efforts had been made to relieve the starving sufferers at Turk

Island by sending loads of produce and food.

From Washington.

of the passage of the law by the Legislature of North Carolina, granting amnesty and pardon to all officers and soldiers of the State of North Carolina, and of the late Confederate States armies, or of the United States, for offences committed against the criminal laws of the State of North Carolina.
