Co., of Charleston, as due to them from the late Southern Confederacy. An extension of time was given to the United States to continue the case. The sureties for the steamer Bat were discharged.

LIVERPOOL, December 21st.-Breadstuffs quiet. Corn 38s. Five-twenties, 72.

DUBLIN, December 21st, 1 o'clock P.M.-The seizure of Fenian arms and munitions of war continue to be made in various parts of this island. The warlike spirit of the Brotherhood is evidently dying out. The preparations to put down any rising they may attempt to make, continue to be vigorously pushed.

PARIS. Dec. 21, 1 P.M.-It is generally believed here that the plan to reorganize the French army will be modified, it being so unpopular throughout France.

From Washington.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 21,-Isaac F. Redfield, of Boston, has been appointed, and has accepted a position abroad to look after the interests of the United States pending in the English and French Courts, involving nearly twenty millions of dollars.

General Sherman's mission to Mexico has proved a total failure. He is said to be greatly disgusted with the whole matter, A deputation of woolgrowers are in conference to-day with the Finance Committee on the tariff.

Secretary McCulloch will not send the new tariff bill, prepared by Mr. Wells, to the Committee until next week.

Jeff. Davis's counsel are again here trying to get some action so as to secure his speedy trial.

[By the U. S. Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Most of the members of Congress have already left here for their homes, and, on the excursion to New Orleans, and the city is already very dull and quiet.

The Cabinet meeting is in session at the White House, as usual, to-day, and nothing of interest has transpired at the Executive Mansion this morning.

It is understood that upon the further investigation of the facts connected with the disposition of the United States troops in Missouri, the Congressional delegation from that State are satisfied, and will withdraw. their opposition to the policy pursued by General Grant in reference to the difficulties in that State.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 18 .- No transactions in wheat; extreme quotations are $1 90 per 100 lbs. Mining stock closed at Savage, $1,990; Ophir, $187; Belcher, $126; Empire Mill, $195; Imperial, $136; Yellow Jacket, $1,203; Gould and Curry, $690; Legal tenders unchanged.

The surveyor's and engineer's reports brought here recently for the projected railroad between Guadalajara and Lake Chapela, Mexico, a distance of fourteen Jeagues, is under the charter derived from Maximilian last year. It is thought the Imperial Government will sanction the enterprise.

The receipts of the Treasury from the interior during the present month is $3,-000,000.

The money market grows easier, First

Committee appointed by Congress, has i pounds claimed by Frazer, Trenholm & structed their Secretary to obtain from Mayor Monroe the names of the parties holding official position in New Orleans by popular election or by appointment of the Mayor, in July and August last, and the names of the then acting police force of said city, both regular and extra. And the Mayor is respectfully requested by the committee to give such aid in the premises as will enable them to obtain the information required.

Marine Disaster. [To the N. Y. Associated Press.]

BCSTON, Dec. 21. - The schooner Nellie Potter, from Boston, of, and for, Philadelphia, ran ashore on Cape Cod, near Provincetown. The crew were saved, and the vessel landed high upon the beach, and not much injured.

The British brig James Clift, from Aux Cayes for Boston, recently ashore at Provincetown, drifted out of that harbor last night. The British brig Jubilee, ashore at Scituate, remains tight, but will probably get off after discharging her cargo.
