THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN : PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, DECEMBER 24 1866 .--- TRIPLE SHEET.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, December 21.-There was a large gathering of the Fenian ele-ment of Norfolk in the Opera House last ment of Norfolk in the Opera House Just evening to listen to a discourse delivered by William McWilliams, Esq., of New York, officer of the order. He made a lengthy ad-dress, giving a history of the cause from its first inception, and gave a detailed account of the operations and financial affairs of the Brotherhood. After Mr. McWilliams re-tired, Mayor Ludlow was called out and medo a four remerks, in which he declared threa, mayor Luciow was called out and mrde a few remarks, in which he declared his full sympathy with the cause of Irish independence, and expressed the hope that they might fight it out manfully to a glo-rions and triumphant conclusion. He paid a compliment to the Irish residents in Nor-folk declaring they ware smooth the bast folk, declaring they were among the best, most orderly, law-abiding and trustworthy citizens. The remarks of the Mayor were very pointed, and left no room to doubt his sentiments on the Fenian question. He was en-thusiastically applauded. Other speakers addressed the meeting, after which the audience adjourned.

ence adjourned. At the terminaion of the Catholic fair last evening, which has been held in Norfolk dur-ing past week, the cane made out of the rebel ram Merrimac, and richly ornamented, was ram Merrimac, and richly ornamented, was rafiled off, with the intention of the winner presenting it to Jefferson Davis. The fortu-nate gentleman was Mr. J. O. Gamage, of Norfolk. Intense curiosity was manifested on the occasion, which will be increased when the presentation takes place. The British steamer Brazilian, which left Philadelphia vesterday morning, arrived at stores and cotton for Liverpool. The weather has been exceedingly stormy here yesterday and to-day. A heavy gale has been blowing from the northwest, and a large fleet of vessels have arrived in Hampton Roads for a harbor. They are principally northward bound vessels, and will as soon as the weather moderates will sail as soon as the weather moderates. Vessels arriving here report the weather very severe on the coast during the past three days, and especially around Hatteras, here on last Monday night and Tuesday, it blew a very heavy gale from the north-west, commencing on Sunday with strong southeasterly winds.

southeasterly winds. The brig Golden Lead, Captain Lang-thorne, arrived here late this afternoon, from Swan Island, with a cargo of guano, bound to Philadelphia. She left Swan Island on to Philadelphia, She left Swan Island on to Philadelphia. She left Swan Island on the 30th ult., and had northerly gales and bad weather the entire passage. Off Hat-teras she experienced heavy gales from southwest to northwest, and had her sails blown away, besides leaking badly. She will have to go to Norfolk for repairs before she can proceed to her destination. The schooner Union, Captain Ames, from New York, bound to Baltimore, with an as-sorted cargo, also arrived here this after-noon, having suffered somewhat from the heavy weather on the coast. She left New heavy weather on the coast. She left New York on the 11th inst., and has, therefore, been out at sea ten days. She first experi-enced southeasterly strong breezes, which gales. While sailing down the west coast, and when about two miles west of Cape Henry, her mainsail was carried away and she was blown out to sea, drifting about for five days. A southerly wind springing up, she made the capes again yesterday, and caught the severe northwester while entering into the bay. With the loss of her main-sail and a torn jib, she made this harbor last night, and had the misfortune of being run into by an oyster schooner just as she anchored. The little schooner was roughly han-dled, but her cargo was preserved intact. The Union is a vessel of only sixty eight tons burden, and has been for a long time engaged in the coasting trade from New York to Charleston, and further south. Capt. Ames states that she was in the hurother vessels were lost, and says she behaved admirably, riding the seas as securely as in a comfortable haven. She will have to

to the riot, and subsequently in regard to the management of the Federal departments and the sentiments of the Southern people. All connected with the commission are sworn to secrecy in regard to its proceedings. Lieutenant General Sherman paid a short visit to the committee this morning. He will attend the races at the Metairie Course, this afternoon.

this afternoon. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22.—The schooner Mary Bertrand, belonging to A. A. Guffy, from Tampico for Brazos Santiago, went ashore ten miles below Bagdad. She had $24,000 in specie aboard, the receipts of a cargo of arms furnished to the Liberals at Tampico. Parties from the shore, pretend-ing to act under Mexican authority, seized the money, and carried the same to Mata-moras, under pretence that it was attempted to be carried out of Mexico without being paid. The vessel is a total loss.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

A Washington despatch says, the receipts from internal revenue for Saturday amount to $488,131 68, and for the past week, $2,-936,514 20. This is somewhat below the average for some weeks past, resulting, probably, from the falling off in many branches of trade, always noticeable in the returns from this particular holiday period. The total for the fiscal year up to date, is $161,637,454 12. According to the laws which govern some branches of our trade, a gradual diminution of receipts from some sources must be expected, commencing from the first of each calendar year. This decrease is not very great in amount.

Fluctuations are expected in this branch of finance as in other branches up to the last day even of the fiscal year, as may be last day even of the fiscal year, as may be seen from the facts that on April 2d of the last fiscal year, the receipts were $2,455,349; on May 3d, $2,226,862, and on June 2d they reached the large sum of $3,421,952, which is the second highest amout ever received in one day, and which was the more noticeable from the fact that the second mean of Stars from the fact that the second was on Satur-day, on which day the receipts are almost uniformly less than on other days, and du-ring these three months of April, May and June, the average receipts were under $1,-000,000 per diem. Other facts might be given to show the fluctuations in this respect, and prove that the total receipts for the year must not be arbitrarily estimated by the receipts for any one day, or even one month.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, December 23d.—The steamer Merrimac has arrived with Havana advices of December 18th. By the French steamer Panama late and important news had been received of Mexico. The advices reach to the 9th instant, and assert that Maximilian had not returned to Mexico, but was still at Drizaba. The opinions of the press and people resthe Emperor's proclamation are pecting pecting the Emperor's proclamation are very conflicting. The Estafette says that Maximilian no longer addresses his countrymen as Empe-ror but as a simple citizen, and considers the proclamation as a semi-abdication.

The Era considers the project mentioned in the proclamation as feasible, and that it has the stamp of loyalty and simplicity that continues at once captivate at once. The Patrie, on the same subject, considers the resolution of the Emperor as having diffused general content and hops, and has confounded all his enemies and encouraged his friends, and even asserts that it is the intention of the projected Congress to discuss a new form of government; that Maximilian gives it full power to do so, and what-ever may be the form of the government adopted by that Congress, it will be legitimate.

Rumors are current in Havana that Maximilian will be more settled on his throne than ever, that even Juarez is getting tired of the contest, and is about to give in his adhesion to Maximilian, but of course no foundation can be found to furnish such a report. Nothing has, as yet been officially announced concerning the reorganization of the army, but the commands of the three divisions would be held by Mejia; Miramon and Marquez respectively. The French and imperialists had evacu-

The French and imperialists had evacu-ated San Luis Potosi and Aquas Ardientes. Luca Frees was held by the French. Ba-zaine had endeavored to communicate with Sherman and Campbell by telegraph, ask-ing them if they had instructions to facili-tate the French evacuation, and was an-swered that as the French had got them-selves into such a difficult condition they wight gat themselves out of it as best they might get themselves out of it as best they could, and both declined decidedly to serve as moderators between the French and Mexicans.

Mejia, and all the principal Imperial officers ignore Bazaine and his authority. The French seized the custom house at Vera Cruz on the 12th instant, although the Imperial authorities protested strongly against it.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23 -- Vera Cruz advices of December 20th, received to-night, state that the French authorities had selzed the Vera Cruz Custom House, and carried off $200,000 of Imperial treasure.

The French steamer Eugenia had left with $600,000, of which $400,000 belonged to the French Government, and $200,000 to citizens. One thousand French troops had left for Frence left for France.
