ENGLAND. The vigorous measures of the British Covernment against the Fenians, had reestablished public confidence, and business was reviving in Dublin. HANOVER.

Prussia has commenced using coercion to meet the hostility to the Prussian rule in Hanover. A deputation of the inhabitants from the town of Hadersleben had been received by Count Bismarck. In reply to their inquiries the minister stated that the popular vote in North Schleswig, as to whether those districts are to belong to Prussia or Denmark, will be taken, but no until after the consolidation of the state of affairs generally in the Elbe Duchies. AUSTRIA.

The Emperor of Austria has ordered that all proceedings against Marshall Benedek and other generals for their conduct during the late war to be dropped.

From Washington

[To the New York Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 27 .- The Interior De. partment has received a telegram announcing the death, at Council Bluffs, of General Samuel R. Curtis, one of the Commissioners appointed to inspect the finished work of the Union Pacific Railroad. He was actively engaged in the late war.

It is expected in official circles that Lieut. Gen. Sherman, after visiting St. Louis, will return to Washington, to report in person the particulars of his recent visit to Vera

The United States Supreme Court, in a eause from the Circuit Court of the Eastern District of Louisiana, dismissed the appeal for the want of jurisdiction. It appears that the amount in controversy did not exceed two thousand dollars.

CITY BULLETIN.

SHOOTING IN A HOUSE OF ILL FAME-A MAM ATTEMPTS TO KILL HIS SISTER,— Last night about eleven o'clock a young man named Charles Patterson went to a house of ill-fame, No. 323 South Juniper street, and shot a young woman who was living there under the name of Laura . Laura is the sister of Patterson. She is about 20 years of age, and is quite prepossessing in appearance. Her mother is dead, but her father has been married again, and resides with his wife at No. 1502 Jaffar. son avenue. Owing to disagreement with her step-mother Laura left home, and has been leading a life of shame for upwards of a year past. Patterson is attached to the Navy, and is home on leave of absence. On Christmas he discovered where his sister was living and went to the house. He had an interview with her. He urged her to quit her present life and go home, offering to pay her board for her. She replied that her step-mother would probably turn her out of the house if she went there—that she liked the life she was now leading and had nodesire to quit it. The man used various arguments, but all in vain. He left and seems then to have formed the idea of killing his sister. He berrowed a horse pistol to be used for that purpose. He appears to have been very much attached to her for it was some time to attempt the bloody deed, and even then he was obliged to drink two glasses of brandy to nerve himself for the occasion. Last night Patterson again went to the house in Juniper street and had another in-terview with his sister. She still refused to leave, when he drew out his pistol and fired at her. The weapon was loaded with duck shot, which took effect in the hand, head and breast. The wounds are serious, hefore he could muster sufficient courage

but are not considered dangerous.

Officer Blee, of the Fifth District, was close by and heard the firing. He ran to the house and some person cried "murder!" from the second-story window. He ihen broke in the door and took Patterson into custody. The prisoner made no resistance and was taken to the Station House.

A physician was called in, and the wounds of the young woman were dressed. She was then removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital under the direction of Lieut. Connelly. This morning Patterson had become perfeetly calm. He expressed great satisfaction at not having killed his sister, and said that he was glad that she had time to think over her folly and repent. He will have a hear-ing this afternoon before Alderman Beitler, at the Central Station. PRIZE FIGHT.—Early yesterday morning there was a prize fight near the boundary line between this city and Delaware county.

The alleged principals in the affair were two men named Smith and McCaulley. They have been training for some time. Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, Smith and McCaulley, their seconds and friends, and numerous spectators left the city. The party passed over Gray's ferry bridge, thence through Maiden lane to the Schuylkill, where all embetted in better. all embarked in batteaux. The boats were rowed down the Schuylkill to Darby creek and up the latter stream some distance. A landing was then effected and a ring was formed. Smith and McCaulley took their positions and several rounds were fought, smith was pretty badly punished but McCaulley only received two bruises. The latter was declared the victor. All hands then returned to the city.

AN OWNER WANTED .- A push cart, sup-

CALIFORNIA BREADSTUFFS. - The fine clipper ship David Crockett, arrived here last evening from San Francisco, in the short period of ninety-five days, with a cargo of 66,000 bushels of California white wheat, consigned to Charles H. Cummings, and Message Rowland & Ervien; and 4 000 wheat, consigned to Charles H. Cummings, and Messrs. Rowland & Ervien; and 4,000 bushels of barley, consigned to Messrs. Massey, Collins & Co. The telegraphic despatch, ordering this cargo, was forwarded on the 1st of September, and the vessel is now at the wharf, ready to commence discharging her freight. We have heretofore charging her freight. We have heretofore received several lots of California flour and wheat from New York, which has proven of very superior quality; but this is the first direct cargo ever received at this port.

A ROUGH PARTY-SUPPOSED STABBING, —A man named Wm. Barr was before Ald. Allen this morning upon the charge of fast driving. He and three other men were in a wagon yesterday afternoon. The vehicle was driven at a furious rate through a toll gate on the Darby road. At that time there was fighting going on in the wagen. The attention of a policeman was attracted to the party. Three men then jumped from the wagon and escaped. Barr who had hold of the reins was captured. His face was much cut. A bloody knife was found in the wagon and it is supposed that one of the others had been stabbed. Barr was fined $10 for fast driving and had in $500 ball to keen the presce. bail to keep the peace.

LARGENY OF PUSH CARTS.-David Painter, a young man, has a fancy for stealing push carts. He has been in the habit of borrowing the carts and never returning them. Yesterday he attempted to sell one at Sixteenth and Wood streets, when Officer Parastrond him. Bennett was sent for, and arrested him. A push cart borrowed from Geo, Buckman, Coates street near Nineteenth, three weeks ago, was found yesterday in Sansom street. This morning at a hearing before Alderman Hutchinson, four charges of larceny were preferred against Painter. preferred against Painter. Also a charge of carrying a billy. He was committed in de-fault of $2,500 bail, for trial.

THE RESULT OF A CHRISTMAS SPREE,william Tinsman was arrested last evening at Eighth and Market streets, and taken before Ald. Beitler upon the charge of larceny. It seems that a few days ago a man entrusted him with a horse to sell. The animal was sold and brought $55. On Christman of the series of mas Tinsman got on a spree and spent all the money. When called on in relation to the sale, he had not a penny to hand over. He was committed in default of $1,000 bail to answer.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—This morning, about eleven o'clock, while workmen were engaged in tearing down a wall at the north west corner of Twelfth and Market streets, portion of the wall fell suddenly. John Logue, one of the workmen, was instantly killed. His body was recorded. killed. His body was removed to the Sixth District Police Station, and Coroner Daniels was sent for to hold an inquest. One man was seriously injured and another was slightly hurt.

SLIGHT FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon a slight fire occurred at the house of Mr. Green, on Green street, near Eleventh. Some of the children broke the gas fixtures and then put a lighted match to the pipe The escaping gas took fire and set fire to the premises. Mr. Francis Dougherty, who was passing, rushed in and extinguished the fiames. In doing so one of his hands was badly burned.

A BRUTAL SON, -A young fellow, named Edward Wright, aged about 18 years, residing on Cabot street, above Fifteenth, was arrested last evening upon the charge of beating and abusing his mother. It is said that he has been in the habit of assaulting her. When Officer Warren entered the house Wright had a club raised to strike his mother. This morning he was sent below by Ald. Fitch to await trial.

Supposed Larceny.-John Fryer was He had in his possession a black silk dress, a pair of new boots and a half dozen of silver plated table spoons, which he was trying to sell on South street. He was committed, and the articles are at the Fifth Ward Station, awaiting owners.

LARCENY.-Joseph Casperson alias Kiker, was committed yesterday, by Alderman Shoemaker, to answer the charge of rob-bery. He was engaged in huckstering, and had with him a boy, named Graff, about 13 years of age. He is alleged to have stolen about $14 from the pocket of Graff.

DARING BOND ROBBERY.

Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars in Bonds and Stocks Stolen.

The Act Committed in Daylight,

Escape of the Perpetrators

We have to record another of those bold, droit and successful bond robberies which have marked the last few months in the Eastern cities. It is the first of the character which has taken place in Philadelphia for some time, and it ought to be the

The circumstances are as follows, as we learn them in the first flush of the discovery of the robbery: About 1212 o'clock to-day two persons iressed in a gentlemanly manner, entered day, an immense quantity of edibles, in-No. 209 Chestnut street. The office at the time was in charge of Mr. J. Bayard, a venerable gentleman, father, we believe, of Mr. C. P. Bayard, No one else was in the place. The fire-proof door was open, and the safe within it was also open. On the entrance of the two strangers, they asked for Mr. C. P. Bayard, and made quite a number of inquiries as to what kind of stocks he dealt in. Mr. Bayard senior answered their questions corteously, and apparently to their satisfaction. While thus engaged, standing up talking to strangers Nos. 1 and 2, stranger No. 3 made his appearance and inquired of Mr. Bayard, where he could get a bill of exchange. Mr. Bayard informed stranger No. 3 that he could get one at Browns & Bowen's, next door above. Stranger No. 3 then disappeared, and shortly afterwards strangers Nos. 1 and 2 also left the premises in the quietest and most gentlemany manner. More than an hour elapsed before the robbery was discovered, and an attempt was made to discover the amount of the loss.
