SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—A special mes-senger reached this city at an early hour this morning from the vicinity of Half Moon Bay, announcing that a large ship was seen yesterday afternoon north of that place, close ashore, fring signals of distress and distress ashore, firing signals of distress, and appa-rently in the breakers.

Captain Fletcher, representative of the un-derwriters, immediately engaged a tug boat and proceeded to the scene of the disaster. The place is the same where the ship Carja was wrecked a few weeks since. The British war steamer Sutiej, with Admiral Jones Denman aboard, arrived to-day from Victoria, V. I.

The Maryland Legislature. BALTIMORE, Dec. 27.—The Legislature of this State meets on Wednesday next. It is understood that an effort will be made to declare the last election for Mayor and City Council illegal and void, said election having been held under the registration lists of 1865, to the exclusion of those registered last fall.

It is also expected that a bill will be in-

It is also expected that a bill will be in-troduced, looking to the declaration of a general amnesty, by which all those dis-franchised under the provisions of the State Constitution, for sympathizing with or par-ticipation in the rebellion, will be restored to all their former political rights. There is but little doubt that the National Constitutional Amendment will be rejected, but it is believed that many of the more ob-noxious features of the code with reference to the colored people will be repealed and the opinion has been expressed that there will be found a majority of the Legislature in favor of the admission of negrotestimony. in favor of the admission of negro testimony.

The engrossing subject of interest con-nected with the meeting of the Legislature is the election of United States Senator, in place of Senator Creswell, whose term ex-pires on the 4th of March.

obstacles to their being admitted to repre-sentation in Congress. Col. Weatherly had a subsequent inter-view with President Johnson, to whom he had been informally deputized. We learn bat the interview with the President was of some duration as well as free and candid, during which he expressed the hope that the Southern States would remain firm in their position as regards the constitutional amendment, and steadfastly reject it, believing it to be an advance step to the inauguration of a an advance step to the inauguration of a despotism. In doing thus he hoped they would be guarded in their reasons assigned for its rejection, and avoid any language that might, by any possible reasons, be tortured to give offence to the opposing arty. The President feels confident, from a re-cent decision given by the Supreme Court, that he will be sustained by that law abid-ing body, and that in a short time a returning sense of reason will point out some mid-dle ground between the constitutional amendment and the projected territorial scheme, upon which our country may be-come united, when peace will again smile upon us with all its blessings.

From Nashville. NASHVILLE Dec. 27.—The trial of the alleged murderers of the soldier, on Christ-mas night, has been in progress all day be-fore the Bench of Magistrates, and will oc-cupy all to-morrow. The testimony is far from conclusive as to who fired the shot, and none of the parties on trial can be convicted from conclusive as to who fired the shot, and none of the parties on trial can be convicted on the evidence as far as developed. It is definitely ascertained, in proof, that the affray originated in the soldiers cheering for the Union and Lincoln, while the policemen off duty cheered for Jeff. Davis. A feeling of intense bitterness exists between the sol-diers and the policemen, which threatens bloody consequences on the first substantial provocation. The commanding officers participate in the feelings of the soldiers.
