OITY BULLETIN.

ATTEMPT TO FIRE A HOTEL .--- This morning about three o'clock, an attempt was made to fire the Providence House, located mane to nre the rrovidence House, located on the Main street, at the lower part of Frankford. Bags saturated with coal oil were stuffed under the front porch and were set on fire. The flames were discov-ered early by Officer Mercillict, and then sparks were being blown into the cellar of the house, through a hole under the porch. sparks were being blown into the cellar of the house, through a hole under the porch. The fire was extinguished before any damage had been done. A man named Peter Madden, who lives opposite, was ar-rested on the charge of having been the incendiary. He was seen just before the fire endeavoring to get into the house. He made a partial acknowledgment of his guilt, and said that the proprietor of the house had been in the habli of selling liquor to his wife. The accused was locked up to await an investigation by the Fire Marshal.

A HEAVY BLOW .- The wind last night was very high. Window shutters were banged, and all signs which were not very substantially put up were blown down. The substantially put up were blown down. The gale made the air very cutting, and but few people ventured out of their houses. The vessels along the Delaware were knocked about rather lively, but as far as ascer-tained no serious damage wasdene. A pas-senger railway car on the Hestonville road was blown from the track just after cross-ing the Wire bridge, about eleven o'clock last night, and went over an embankment. None of the passengers were hurt, but the horses were so much injured that they had to be killed.

A GOOD SELECTION .--- C. Colket, Esq., has been chosen President of the Philadelphia, been chosen President of the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad Company, in place of E. C. Dale, deceased. Theselection is an excellent one. Mr. Colket has long been prominently identified with different railroads centring in the city, and for many years has been a leading director of the road over which he has been called to preside. Mr. W. S. Wilson, the active and energetic Superintendent; Mr. A. E. Dougherty, the accomplished Secretary, and Col. John B. Peddle, the gentlemanly and obliging General Ticket Agent, all continue in their several positions.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY .- A young man named John Jackson, aged 18 years, was arrested yesterday and taken before Ald. Good, upon the charge of burglary. He is alleged to have broken into the house of Mr. Potter on Fisher's Lane, near the of Mr. Potter on Fisher's Lane, near the North Pennsylvania Railroad, and stolen a lot of clothing belonging to the farmer and his family. Jackson acknowledged the rob-bery, and said that he had sold the stolen articles. Some were recovered at places where they had been sold. The accused was committed in default of $1,000 bail to anawar at Court answer at Court.

A SPANISH DONATION .- Among the Lon-A SPANISH DONATION,—Among the Lon-don Times's advertisements the following necently appeared—"Archbishop Mauning acknowledges, with his thanks, the letter and enclosure of N. I. L., received safely on November 5th." The transaction to which the announcement dimly refers is contracting on the day on which the RISLEY'S CONTINENTAL NEWS EXCHANGE To all places of sumsement may had up to the ok any evening. which the announcement dimly refers is extraordinary. On the day on which the Gunpowder Plot is called to mind by gro-tesque exhibitions in the public streets, Archbishop Manning received the letter al-luded to, the enclosure being a check on a leading bank for the sum of five hundred pounds. The sender gave no name, but signed himself "Guy Fanx, a Protestant," and marked his donation "for the use of Pope Plus IX." Archbishop Manning looked upon the letter in the light of a jest, and was about throwing letter and check on the fire, when his secretary suggested that they might be able to trace the author of the supposed hoax, inasmuch as the check the supposed hoax, inasmuch as the check was numbered and lettered by the bankers. Archbishop Manning agreed to this, and on the check being presented at the bank, the manager said he had instructions to pay the amount, and that the gift was that of a Protestant gentleman, who was anxious that. his name should not be made known. The Archbishop transmitted the money in due course to Rome, and thanked the donor by public advertisement. A PRESENT TO THE PRESIDENT .- The
