his old room; witness told him it was occupied, and that he would have to go in the room with the man who accompanied him; Atzerodt turned to with the witness resumed, and said he thought Harold rode a bay horse and the other a grey horse. Harold took a drink and went out, and man who accompanied him; Atzerodt turned to go up stairs, when witness told him he had not registered; Atzerodt then registered his name in a hesitating manner. The witness then repeated much of the testi-mony given at the assassination trial, relative to Atzerodt having arms with him at the hotel, etc. Mr. Bradley noted an exception to the testi-mony of the last witness, as well as to that of Dr. Hall, as being irrelevant to this case. In answer to certain questions witness, said the starges for Prince George county, Maryland, started from his house, and that passengers were continually coming and going. The Prince George's stage and the Port Tobacco stages, both started at the same time. across at the stables. Question—When did you first hear of the as that conversation. The witness was disinclined to answer the question, and Judge Fisher said the witness could answer when he first heard of the assassiinted.
