apparel and spoons. CHANGE OF NAME CONFIRMED .- At the meeting of the Corn Exchange Association, now the Commercial Exchange, the legal change of the name of the institution was announced by the President, Howard Hichman, Esq., whose proclamation to the effect will be found in another column. Mr. Hinchman also stated that the uncolumn. Mr. Hinchman are stated that the are the third avoidable difficulty that has heretofore caused the delay in the erection of the "Chamber of Commerce" is now removed, and that the erection of that splendid edifice will be at once proceeded

INTERESTING OCCASION.—The Bethune Hall, corner of Twelfth and Oxford streets, will be open for Divine service to-morrow afternoon, open for Divine service to-morrow atternoon, when addresses will be made by Rev. J. H. Suydam, Rev. Dr. Schenck and Rev. T. De Witt Talmage. This will be the first meeting of this kind in connection with this new enterprise. A fine choir will be present, and during the afternoon several pieces selected for the occasion will be sung. The new movement is under the care of Rev. P. S. Talmage, of the Reformed Dutch Church.

Congress Hall, Cape Island, with J. F. Cake, Esq. at its head, is now in full operation, and presents attractions not equaled anywhere on the sea coast. The old and new Congress on the sea coast. The old and new Congress Halls, together with the Ocean House, now all combined, afford a magnificent variety of parlors, fine sleeping-rooms, elegant dining-hall and concert-halls, not found anywhere else among the popular summer resorts. The terms for this year are moderate, and the way the house is keptl is not surpassed by the best of the city hotels.

CLOSING LIQUOR STORES ON SUNDAY .- Preparations are being made to have the mass temperance meeting advertised to take place on the ance meeting advertises to take place on the morning of July 4th, in Independence Square, prove a grand affair. Already several doquent speakers have been secured for the occasion, and others will yet be obtained. The programme embraced many attractive features. The meeting will, no doubt, prove one of the largest ever held within this sacred inclosure.

An Elderly Thirk.-William Johnson, aged 72 years, residing on Carpenter street, near Eighth, was before Ald. Toland last evening, upon the charge of the larceny of a push-cart, valued at about $50, from the paper-box manufactory of Bleicher & Dollanger, No. 929 Carpenter street. The cart was taken to Vine street wharf, and there offered for sale for $10, when Johnson was arrested by Officer Hart. He was committed in default of $500 ball VIOLATING THE LIQUOR LAW.—Edwin McBride was yesterday held in $800 ball, by Alderman He is the proprietor of a tavern at Cumberland and Cedar streets, and had been notified by a Mrs. Peterman not to sell any liquor to her husband. No attention was paid to the notification, and Mrs. Peterman made complaint against Me-Bride.

ROBBING HIS EMPLOYER .- Francis E. Brink was before Alderman Hurley yesterday upon the charge of larceny. He was employed in a gro-cery store on South street, below Fifth, and is suspected of having taken money from the drawer. Small amounts have been missed at dif-ferent times, and the total amount stolen is about Brink was held in $500 bail to answer at HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- A Mr. Harmer, while returning from a visit to his father in the lower section of the city last evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, was attacked by five or six men, as he was passing a lot at Fifth and Reed streets. He was knocked down and rendered insensible by a sudden blow, and when he recovered consciousness his watch and pocket book were gone.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF A HORSE .- A young man, named Edward Hale, was arrested and taken before Ald. Jones upon the charge of having been concerned with William Halfman in the larceny of a borse and wagon a few days ago. He was held in $600 bail for a further hearing.

EARLY CLOSING .- We are happy to learn that the entire piano trade have wisely and humanely determined to close their establishments during July and August at 3 P. M. on Saturdays, and on other days at 5 P. M., thus affording their help a little rest during these usually oppressive
